Furniture of Elegance for the Living Room. THE refinement and elegance of the Furniture one meets with in the Stately Rooms of the old Red-brick Mansions which dominate so many sleepy English Country towns, may give a touch of distinction to the furnishing of the Living Room of to-day.

Hampton Shops Reproductions of old English Furniture of the most significant periods offers abundant opportunity for the selection of the generously cushioned Settee or the cane-backed Armchair faithfully following the Heppelwhite or Sheraton tradition or the Clock with its somnolent tick and cheery Chimes whose tall case might have been fashioned by Chippendale himself.
