J., and $135,000 of the assets of the First National Bank of Edgewater, was brought back under arrest yesterday on the American liner St. Paul. Lovelle was arrested in London in September by Scotland Yard detectives.

in September by Scotland Yard detectives.

According to the chief of the Edgewater police, who went to London, Lovelle told where all but $105,000, which was in securities, was concealed in this city. About $14,000, the chief said, would not be recovered. He refused to reveal the identity of the girl with whom Lovelle fled or to say whether she had returned on the same steamer.

PROBLEM FOR INT. LEAGUE

Readjustment of Circuit to Be Discussed To-Day.

International League circuit will be the main topic of discussion when the club owners get together at the Hotel Imperial this afternoon for their an-Imperial this afternoon for their an-nual winter meeting. It is considered practically a certainty that the Jer-sey City franchise will be shifted to Syracuse, while either Brooklyn or Richmond will get the Baltimore club. Tom Fogarty, president of the Skeet-ers, is back in town, after spending most of last week in Syracuse studying the baseball conditions there. Mr. Fogarty said last night that the Jersey City club would go to the city that offered the best terms, but he also stated that the Syracuse proposition looked pretty good, and that the Salt City would within all probability land the Skeeters.

One Escaped Into This Country and Says Finland and Sweden Will Aid Germany.

George Theslof, a strapping six-foot Finn, sat in his brother Jean's drawing The readjustment of the demoralized room in the Metropolitan Opera House apartment yesterday afternoon, and in an unaffected and simple manner told how he aided another brother, Gösta, escape the domination of Russian mili-tarism. The Theslofs are old in Fin-land, and the family has long been identified with the country's dream of liberty.

Gösta Theslof, formerly head of the General Staff in Finland, had no wish to serve with Russia in the present war. Petrograd feared him as the forefront of a possible revolution. The authorities sought him in Helsingfors,
