PALM BEACH IN THE PLEASANT THRILLS OF A RECORD SEASON

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 27.—The statement that the "season" at this and that resort has passed all records, too trite to mean much any more, is now justified for local application for the first time in a number of years. For more than the Poinciana Hotel, literally larger than a dozen of the usual large resort hostilities, has been turning away about 200 people daily, though with the passing of Washington's Birthday the high tide of travel this way has probably been reached.

The annual Washington Birthday ball, to be followed early in March by another of the same character at the Breakers, was distinguished from others chiefly by the fact that was attended by more beautiful women, it is said by the oldtimers, than had ever been here at once. The decorations were of the same character as of the former fetes. A big factor in the brilliancy of the fête was the attendance of many people who have indulged most of the go into the European resorts in recent years. It was freely predicted they would be here, and the prophecy, many people in society said they had never seen such a wonderful display of jewels, some of which are famous all over the world, as at the Beach Club, where about 200 people of Jack and Ed Bradley's choosing dined before the ball.

There was a society baseball game here last Sunday afternoon. It had been talked about for a fortnight and got the attention of fully 500 people, who occupied wheel chairs along the south side of the diamond, where there was a pretty exhibition not so much of the game as of the girls who played it. Several men helped them, playing positions with new designations, such as "assistant first baseman," wherever a girl was not quite able to do the work she got such support.

Miss Lillian B. Hyde, the metropolitan golf champion, who recently won the Florida championship here for the second time, captained one team, and Miss Mary Snyder, of Pittsburgh, the other. The feature of the game was a one-hand catch in the ninth inning, made by Pierre L. Barbery, of Tuxedo. With the bases full, he grabbed off a fly in left field which would have scored all the base runners had the

A daily social as much as a sporting function that began Wednesday was the annual tennis tournament for the championship of the state, under the auspices of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. It had been scheduled to start Tuesday, but there was no inclination among the players engaged the other night Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Monell, Jr., gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Tilford, Colonel Robert M. Thompson, Mrs. Forsythe Wickes, Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McDonald. At another dinner party there were Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. William Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Armour, Miss Edith L. Adams, Miss Lillian Hyde, Miss Ellen Viller, Miss Rosamond Lancaster, Edward Kane, Hugh J. Inman and James Blair, Jr.

The dinner season is now going full blast. Every night the Garden Grill of the Poinciana and the Beach Club are crowded. In the former restaurant the other night Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Monell, Jr., gave a dinner for Mr. and Mrs. David Wagstaff, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Tilford, Colonel Robert M. Thompson, Mrs. Forsythe Wickes, Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McDonald. At another dinner party there were Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. William Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Armour, Miss Edith L. Adams, Miss Lillian Hyde, Miss Ellen Viller, Miss Rosamond Lancaster, Edward Kane, Hugh J. Inman and James Blair, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lewisohn were dinner hosts this week for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rossin, Elmer Crall, Frank Montague and William F. Zeller, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Harris gave a dinner this week for Mr. and Mrs. Arch Selwin. Congressman George W.
