Comment and Gossip On Sports of the Day

NATIONAL championship titles in lawn tennis and golf will be settled within the next few days. It seems unfortunate that there should be a conflict or that the importance of one should be even slightly stunted by the importance of the other...

What of McLoughlin? WHAT of Maurice E. McLoughlin? This question is foremost in looking forward to the all-comers singles, which begin on the West Side courts to-day. It is my opinion that the greatness of this wizard of lawn tennis will be renewed, that this wonder player from the Pacific Coast will rise once more to the heights which made him the outstanding figure of the Davis Cup matches a year ago...

As to R. Norris Williams. ANOTHER angle must be considered. R. Norris Williams, the present holder of the national title, has been slowly but surely climbing to the dizzy heights occupied by McLoughlin and finding himself very much at home. It seems more reasonable to believe that we now have two really great players instead of one and that McLoughlin's game and McLoughlin's defeat suffer only in comparison as Williams has advanced...

Turning to Golf. TURNING to golf, it is only natural to look for Jerome D. Travers, Francis Ouimet or Chick Evans to reach the pinnacle of golfing glory. As Grantland Rice has suggested, there are other players of first rank to be considered, including Ned Sawyer and Max Marston...

Racing on Solid Rock. IF ANYTHING was needed to lend assurance that racing had come back to its own, the meeting at Saratoga Springs, which came to an end on Saturday, furnished the clinching argument. As has been told more than once in the last month, the sport has prospered and thrived as never before...

Now for the Futurity. DOMINANT is not in the Futurity, which will be run at Belmont Park on Saturday, but good judges predict that Thunderer, full brother to the unbeaten Regret, will more than fill the place of his stable companion and that the rich prize of more than $20,000 will be placed to the credit of H. P. Whitney...

KALEVA MEN SURPRISE SWEDS AT ULMER PARK

Capture Prize in Scandinavian Games, Thanks to Kolehmainen.

FINN CHAMPION WINS TWO EVENTS

Petander Breaks Record in Pole Vault with Leap of Nine Feet Nine Inches.

Braving a steady downfall of rain with the spirit of true Norsemen, the athletes of the Scandinavian-American Athletic League held the second half of their track and field championships yesterday at Ulmer Park, Bensonhurst. Several hundred persons watched the contests.

The track was soaked with the rain and spots of the infield resembled miniature lakes, but in spite of this handicap the competitors performed well, a new record being established in the pole vault. The Kaleva Athletic Club sprang a surprise by defeating the Swedish-American A. C. and capturing the Lagerlof team trophy. With the termination of the first half of the meet, in June, the Swedes had a lead of one point over their Finn rivals, the score being 19 to 18, but yesterday the Kaleva boys more than doubled their early figures. Recording a new total of 37 points, the Kaleva men were returned victors with an aggregate count of 55 points.

Representatives from Boston, Philadelphia and many other cities were on hand, but they failed to make an impressive showing, failing to take a first place in the nine events, and gathering only eleven points. Hannes Kolehmainen, the national champion of the Irish-American Athletic Club, who for the day represented the Kaleva Athletic Club, was a big factor in the success of the Finnish organization. He won both the 880-yard run and three-mile contest in hollow fashion. He shamed the individual honors with Arben Almlof, a rangy youth of the Swedish-American Athletic Club, who captured the 220-yard hurdles and the running broad jump.

Kolehmainen had little difficulty in winning the half-mile race. When the field of seven had reached the first turn after the start, the Finn was leading by a yard. He continued to make his own pace to the tape, which he broke with a four-yard margin over J. Pietila, a clubmate. Kolehmainen was timed in 2:07 3/5. The three-mile race was a duel between Kolehmainen and Willie Kyronen, another Kaleva runner, who is the holder of four five-mile championships. Immediately after the start Kyronen went into the van, with "Koly" striding beside him and Otto Laakso, a clubmate, close behind. The seven other runners followed in Indian file. Kyronen and Kolehmainen splashed long the water track until a half lap from the finish, with Kyronen doing most of the pacing, and Laakso holding on well for two miles, when he began to weaken. On the backstretch, directly opposite the finish, with Kyronen doing most of the pacing, and Laakso holding on well for two miles, when he began to weaken. On the backstretch, directly opposite the finish, with Kyronen doing most of the pacing, and Laakso holding on well for two miles, when he began to weaken.

M. Pietila helped in the Kaleva victory by winning the javelin throw, his toss being 142 feet 1 1/4 inches. The summaries follow: The summaries follow: The summaries follow...

Table with columns for National League, American League, and Federal League. It lists games to-day, results of games yesterday, and current standings for each league.

FIELDERS TWICE VICTORS Make It Four Straight in Series with Kansas City Feds. St. Louis, Aug. 29.—St. Louis won a double header in the Kansas City Feds here to-day, shutting the visitors out in the second game and making it four straight victories for the series. The scores were 2 to 1 and 8 to 0. Packard saved his team from a double shutout. In the second game Ciandall gave Kansas City four scattered hits. Johnson was wild and the locals hit him for six doubles, a triple and three singles. The fielding in this game, however, was perfect. The scores follow: FIRST GAME. ST. LOUIS (F. L.) KANSAS CITY (F. L.)

THREE OUT OF FOUR FOR THE RED SOX Cleveland Loses Pitching Duel Between Leonard and Klepper. Cleveland, Aug. 29.—The Boston Red Sox made it three out of four from Cleveland to-day, winning by a score of 1 to 0. The contest was a pitching battle between Klepper and Leonard. Each allowed only four hits. The only run of the game was scored in the fourth inning. Speaker led off with an infield hit, but was forced by Hoblittell, who advanced to second on a pass to Lewis. Gartner forced Lewis at second, but Chapman threw wide to first in trying for a double play and Hoblittell scored. With one out in the ninth, Evans, batting for Klepper, doubled. Chapman hit a line drive toward left, which Janvin knocked down, but could not field. His effort, however, prevented Evans from scoring. A pass to Roth filled the bases, after which Leonard struck out Graney and Kirke. The score follows: CLEVELAND (A. L.) BOSTON (F. L.)

WHALES WIN AND TIE McConnell Holds Rebel to Four Hits—Second Game Called. Chicago, Aug. 29.—George McConnell pitched the Chicago Feds to a victory over Pittsburgh in the first game of the double-header here to-day. The second game was called at the end of the sixth inning, neither side having scored. The scores follow: FIRST GAME. CHICAGO (F. L.) PITTSBURGH (F. L.)

It is understood there is to be a general reorganization of the club as a result of its tail-end position.

Tigers Need Merely One Inning to Beat Yankees

Make Every Sort of a Hit, from Single to Home Run in Second. SHAWKEY DOES HEAVIEST HITTING FOR DONOVAN'S MEN, WITH TRIPLE TO BLEACHERS. Detroit, Aug. 29.—Apparently the effort of winning one game from the Tigers completely exhausted the Yankees, for they showed no signs to-day of recovering from the relapse that set in immediately following their unexpected victory on Saturday. The Tigers won by a score of 7 to 4. Except for a short time in the second inning, when the visitors were ahead, they never figured as dangerous. Detroit, in the second inning, proceeded to put in one of those affairs wherein the betting is even that the visitors never get the side out, and introduced one hit of every known variety in this frame, from a single to a home run. There also was a sacrifice bunt and a base on balls, all resulting in five runs. Peckinpaugh, Bauman, Cook and Bush all had fancy plays to their credit. Cook making the best of these when he went back almost to the bleachers in the seventh and pulled down a drive that Sam Crawford believed would be good for three sacks. Vitt got his regular hit to open the home attack in round one. He advanced on Bush's sacrifice and scored on Crawford's double over High's head, Cobb having walked meanwhile. Veach grounded to Baumann, who got Ty at the plate. Shawkey made a bad throw trying to catch Veach off first, and when the ball rolled a few yards away from Pipp Crawford tried to score. He was out by an inch. Boone singled with one out in the New York half, took second on Daus's bad throw to catch him straying and kept on to third when Young, who recovered the ball, pegged him to second. Nunamaker rescued Daniel with a single to left and the catcher registered on Shawkey's triple to the bleachers. Baker was safe on Peck's fumble, to start the fourth round, and took second when Cole made a bad throw to first. Daus sacrificed his battery partner to third and Vitt's out sent him in. There was no further action that counted until the ninth. High singled at the opening of this period and took second on Boone's out. Nunamaker fanned, High meanwhile being allowed to go to third without a throw. Caldwell batted for Cole and walked, and Cook grounded to Burns, who had to hurry the play at first, and made a mess of his toss. Both runners scored on this misplay, Caldwell having sneaked up to second when nobody was watching. Cook got as far as the key-stone sack before the ball was recovered. Cook got as far as the key-stone sack before the ball was recovered. Cook got as far as the key-stone sack before the ball was recovered.

YOUNG MR. SISLER PROVES STEADIER THAN W. JOHNSON Browns Take Final Game of Series with Senators by Close Score. St. Louis, Aug. 29.—Williams's wild throw was responsible for the two runs which gave the St. Louis Browns a victory over Washington in the last game of the series here to-day. The score was 2 to 1. The hidden ball trick, worked by Pratt in the eighth on H. Milan, who wandered off second base, furnished the feature. Johnson had only one bad inning—the second—when the home team made four of their seven hits. Sisler was steady than Johnson and received good support. The score follows: ST. LOUIS (A. L.) WASHINGTON (A. L.)

SCOTT BLANKS ATHLETICS White Sox in Meantime Bunch Hits for Five Runs. Chicago, Aug. 29.—The Chicago White Sox bunched hits off Sheehan to-day in the third inning and pounded out five runs, while Scott held the Philadelphia Athletics useless, allowing only three hits. The final score was 5 to 0. In the third inning Schalk, Murphy, J. Collins, Jackson and Felsch each hit safely. The score follows: CHICAGO (A. L.) PHILADELPHIA (A. L.)

BROOKLYN OARSMEN WIN Sullivan and McGovern Win Junior Doubles on Gravesend Bay. D. F. Sullivan and H. W. McGovern carried off the honors in the postponed regatta of the Brooklyn Rowing Club on Gravesend Bay yesterday. The captured the junior doubles by a length of open water and took second place in the intermediate doubles, which, however, was protested and ordered rowed, owing to a collision. In the eight-oared barge race Sullivan stroked the successful crew, which had only a margin of three feet over the second boat at the finish. The summaries follow: Junior doubles—Won by D. F. Sullivan and H. W. McGovern. Intermediate doubles—Won by I. Arnold and J. McGovern. Intermediate doubles—Won by I. Arnold and J. McGovern. Intermediate doubles—Won by I. Arnold and J. McGovern.

TROTTERS HERE FOR GRAND CIRCUIT MEET Lee Axworthy and Peter Scott to Race at Empire City. Two hundred of the fastest trotters and pacers in the country have arrived at Empire City Park at Yonkers for the Grand Circuit meeting, which opens on Tuesday. It is estimated that horses worth close to $1,000,000 are now on the grounds. Many of them came through by special train from Montreal, and many more are recruits from the half-mile tracks. The stables of E. F. Geers, W. J. Andrews, Walter Cox, Thomas W. Murphy, Alonzo McDowell, W. L. Snow, W. H. McCarthy, A. S. Rodney, Nicholas Grady and Andrew McDowell are among those at the track. Lee Axworthy, 2:05 1/4, substitution as yet this season, and Peter Scott, 2:05 1/4, winner of five straight races, arrived for the $5,000 stake race for 2:08 trotters, in which they are to meet on Tuesday. The famous #58 Directum I, that is to start to beat his own unequal record of 1:58 on the opening day, also came through in fine fettle. Italians, it is said, suffer greatly from the heat, whereas they can, as a rule, stand any amount of cold, and hardly appear to feel it.

Tigers Pick New Training Camp Dallas, Tex., Aug. 29.—The Detroit baseball team of the American League has signed a contract to train next year at Waxahachie, Tex., it was announced here to-night by Mike Finn, the Detroit scout. Barry the Right Man. Bill Carrigan landed just the right man for the short field position when he bought Jack Barry from the Athletics. Jack is performing in his old-time form both at the bat and in the field. On this account, Heinie Wagner and Hal Janvin, two shortstops of more than ordinary ability, are warming the bench. Cy Morgan Now an Umpire. Cy Morgan, former Athletic star, is now an umpire. Cy has secured a place on Tip O'Neil's Western League staff. He started out the season as a pitcher around Tulsa, Okla., but his offerings proved soft picking for the boys with the sticks. BASEBALL, Polo Grounds, To-day, 3:30 P. M. GIANTS vs. CHICAGO—Adm.
