

MINUTE WOMEN OF 1915 ON THE FIFTH AVENUE

FIRING LINE

The rank and file of the marchers at one of the most densely crowded points in the parade
Modern Photo Service

(Left to right)—Mrs. Bettauer, Mrs. Leonard Thomas, grand marshal, and Maud Jaretkie
by Underwood & Underwood

The Rev. Dr. Anna Shaw refused to ride and footed it with the best of them.
Photo by Brown Bros.

Mrs. Ryce, oldest woman in the parade, in her wheel chair.
Modern Photo Service

Part of the Cavalry—Misses Sadie Tompkins, Collins and May Kerrigan
Photo by Paul Thompson

Boreas did his best but he couldn't lower the banners of suffrage.
Photo by Paul Thompson

"The World-Free" Mrs. Boileau, "Victory"; Theodora Bean, "Liberty"; Janet Travers, "Equality"; Crystal Benedict, "Justice."
Photo by Edwin Levick