SHYLOCK SCENE PLAYED IN HELL

Banking Agents and Producers the Actors Sentenced by Green Room Club Satan.

The setting for the play was a bit unusual. The action took place in hell, where Satan, an old actor, greeted the newcomers. There had been some kind of an accident along Broadway, probably the street had caved into the new subway one sunny day about noontime, and the population of hell was suddenly increased by John C. Peabody, Hamilton McLaughlin, Phil Lang, John Gorman, Dr. George W. Lewis, Billy Grady, Max Plöhn, S. Jay Kaufman and Ralph Stewart, jr.

MARJORIE'S BATTLESHIP.

MARJORIE STERRETT.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Dear Sir: I read in your paper every morning a lot about preparedness. My grandpa and great grandpa were soldiers. If I was a boy I would be a soldier, too. But I am not, so I want to do what I can to help. Mama gives me a dime every week for helping her. I am sending you this week's dime to help build a battleship for Uncle Sam. I know a lot of other kids who would give their errand money if you would start a fund. I am thirteen years old and go to Public School 9, Brooklyn.

Truly yours, MARJORIE STERRETT, 369 St. John's Place, Brooklyn.

February 2, 1916. I am true blue American and I want to see Uncle Sam prepared to lick all creation like John Paul Jones did.

P. S.—Please call the battleship America.
