

TAKE YOUR VACATION In Phoebe Snowland

UP in the mountains of this ideal vacation country, with its lakes and forests, are scores of places from which to choose the perfect spot for your summer outing.

"MOUNTAIN and LAKE RESORTS"

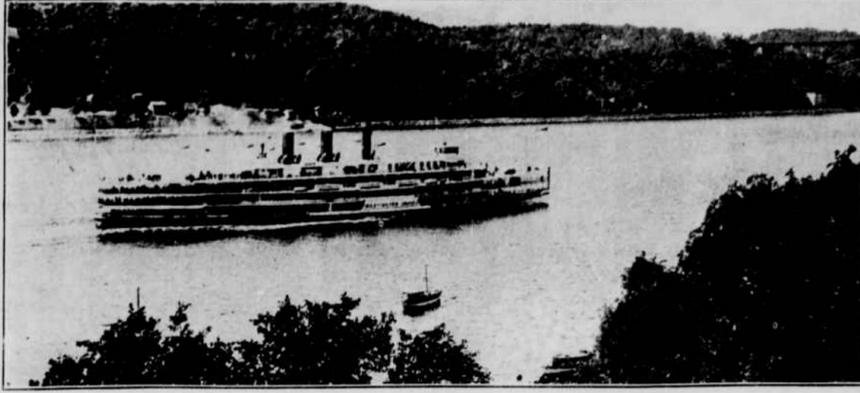

is the title of a beautifully illustrated book which gives you all the facts about the camps, hotels and boarding houses of this vacation paradise. Send 10 cents in stamps for a copy. It will help you greatly in making your plans. Address

JAMES FISTER, Advertising Agent,
Lackawanna Railroad, 90 West Street, New York

Or you can get a copy free by applying in person at these Lackawanna Ticket Offices:

Lackawanna Railroad	Broadway	NEW YORK	BROOKLYN
		Cor. Wall Street	505 Fulton Street
		Cor. Park Place	NEWARK
		Cor. 28th Street	Broad and Market Streets
		Cor. 42nd Street

THE ROAD OF ANTHRACITE

Go By Day Line

The route of marvelous scenic beauty. This daylight trip on the Hudson embraces one hundred and fifty miles of the most picturesque and charming scenery on America's most beautiful river. For a one day's outing or as a part of your vacation trip take this comfortable, enjoyable sail on large, luxurious Day Line steamers between

New York and Albany

Leave Desbrosses St. daily, except Sunday, 8:40; W. 42d St., 9:00; W. 129th St., 9:20; Yonkers, 9:45 A. M., for West Point, Newburgh, Poughkeepsie, Kingston Point, Catskill, Hudson and Albany. Connections for the Catskills, the Adirondacks and points north, east and west. All through rail tickets between New York and Albany accepted. Music. Restaurant.

Special Trips Decoration Day

To Kingston Point and return, $2.00; Poughkeepsie and return, $1.50; Newburgh and West Point and return, $1.00. Through service to Albany as usual. Send 4c. for Literature.

Hudson River Day Line

Desbrosses St. Pier. Telephone Spring 4141 New York

SPEND YOUR GLORIOUS VACATION WEEKS IN THE HILL-TOPS

Lakes of crystalline clearness; rivers and streams abounding in fish; deep woods for the idle stroller; winding roads for the motor and surrey. Nights of golden moonlight, days of high, blue skies—that's the place for your summer vacation this year. Here in the healthful hills of Sullivan, Ulster, Orange and Delaware Counties in old New York State you can enjoy swimming, boating, canoeing, fishing, tennis, dancing and motoring. Throw off restraint and care—come to the attractive "Playground of the Empire State."

New York, Ontario & Western Railway

387 Broadway, Near White St.	225 Fifth Avenue, Near 26th St.
Cortlandt Street Ferry.	1 West 125th St.
25th St. & Amsterdam Ave.	Room 3224, Grand Central Terminal.
W. 42nd St. Ferry.
Brooklyn: 725 Fulton Street	954 Broadway
Newark: 215 Market Street

G. L. ROBINSON,
DEPT. E.
Grand Central Terminal,
New York City.

"PLEASURELAND"

Before the long strip of land jutting eastward from New York became popular as a summer resort it was named "LONG ISLAND," undoubtedly derived from its elongated shape, it being 125 miles long and from 5 to 20 miles wide.

To-day if you were to start on a trip from New York City and follow the shore line of Long Island you would see hotels and boarding cottages galore; throngs of summer folks bathing in the ocean; others enjoying boating, fishing and the cool sea air along its clean, white, sandy beaches. And then if you should turn back along the north shore and see the life of this hilly section bordering the Sound, and the deep indentations of bays winding far back into the woods and hills, scenery as romantic as any in the wilds of Canada, you would surely call this interesting strip "PLEASURELAND."

LONG ISLAND

is a great amusement park—a summer resort just teeming with the activity of those who love Nature and all outdoor sports.

Fahrenheit may be forgotten or set at defiance for here is a temperature without extremes.

BUT THIS IS NOT ALL—the whole story, pictures of beauty spots, hotels and their rates are found in the new book, "Long Island & Real Life," free at ticket offices, 170 Broadway, and Fifth Ave. Building (5th Ave. and 23d St.), or mailed upon receipt of ten cents postage by the General Passenger Agent, Long Island Railroad, Pennsylvania Station, N. Y.