

WILSON REFUSES TO AID SEABURY

Tammany Believes This Means President Is Opposed to Nomination.

M'ADOO MUST DROP EFFORTS FOR JUDGE

Murphy Goes to Saratoga Today, Uncertain Whom to Name for Governor.

President Wilson has refused to help Judge Samuel Seabury become the Democratic candidate for Governor of this state.

This information was brought to Charles F. Murphy and his upstate allies yesterday by a man high in the councils of the Administration, who asserted that the President had laid down a rule for this campaign that in no circumstances would he or any member of his official family interfere in local politics.

This news furnished a choice morsel of gossip for Tammany politicians. But it wasn't any more choice than the construction which the Tammany men placed on the attitude of the President.

Drops State Politics.

As outlined by a close friend of the President, the latter has made up his mind not to interfere in any of the states where a Governor or a United States Senator is to be chosen this fall.

It is understood to be his intention to place responsibility for these selections directly on the local organizations. The President has found that his cooperation for selection will take up all of his spare time without interfering in state contests.

Tammany men were interested in the President's spanking of his son-in-law more than in any other phase of the situation. They knew that up to a few months ago Mr. McAdoo was the chief backer of Judge Seabury for the Democratic nomination for Governor, and that he was using every bit of influence at his command, including Federal officials, to bring it about.

As a result of Mr. McAdoo's espousal of the Seabury cause, Tammany men lined up against it. Now the situation may change. Up to yesterday Murphy and his allies declared themselves as irrevocably opposed to the nomination of Judge Seabury, and it did not look as if they would change.

Pleas for Seabury Rejected.

It is known that within the last few weeks President Wilson has been importuned by friends and relatives to aid in bringing about his nomination. To these pleas the President replied that he would not meddle in state affairs, and would not give his support before the primaries to any particular candidate.

The friends of the President who gave his message to Murphy declared that Secretary McAdoo was behaving splendidly, so far as interference in New York politics was concerned, since his rebuke by his father-in-law. A few of Mr. McAdoo's friends, like Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, are still shouting for Judge Seabury, but friends of the President declare that he is doing so on his own responsibility alone.

Murphy and his allies were undecided yesterday as to a candidate for Governor. They practically have made up their minds to wait until they get to Saratoga. At the Spa leaders from all parts of the state will gather, and the sentiment of the whole party can be obtained. Murphy and his cabinet will go to Saratoga to-day, but many other Democratic leaders will not go until tomorrow.

Advertisement for Hupmobile featuring a car illustration and text: "It doesn't make much difference whether your foot is man's-size or lady's. The step-like heel-rest below the Hupmobile accelerator-pedal give you perfect driving comfort all day long—and night too!"

Advertisement for Hupmobile featuring a car illustration and text: "Motor performance in the Hupmobile is really weird! The motor keeps right on pulling in high—through mud and over hills that some machines can't seem to make at all."

INDEPENDENTS FOR SEABURY

Friends Start Campaign to Win Governorship for Judge.

An independent movement to bring about the nomination of Judge Seabury for Governor by the Democrats has been started by Gilbert E. Roe, former law partner of Senator La Follette, who has a law office in this city.

The Citizens Union made public yesterday the report of its committee on the nomination of Judge Seabury for Governor by the Democrats.

CITIZENS UNION APPRAISES SENATORS

Issues Report on Efforts in Last Legislative Session.

The Citizens Union made public yesterday the report of its committee on the nomination of Judge Seabury for Governor by the Democrats.

The committee highly commended the service of Senator George Crowell, Republican, former Borough President of Richmond, as well as that of Senator Thomas H. Cullen, Democrat, of Brooklyn.

HEARD "MAD DOG" CRY; DROPPED UNCONSCIOUS

Paterson Man So Frightened He Is in Serious Condition.

A supposed mad collie dog, frothing with the mouth and growling continually, ran through the business section of Paterson, N. J., yesterday.

PORCH CLIMBER GETS GEMS

Kaalman Haas, a New York broker; his brother George and Sheriff Weisendanger of Westchester County searched the country around Mount Kisco vainly until dawn yesterday for a porch climber who had stolen $1,000 worth of jewelry from the broker's home on Armand Road, Mount Kisco, while the family was at dinner.

Colonel Approves Organization.

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

Motor performance in the Hupmobile is really weird!

The motor keeps right on pulling in high—through mud and over hills that some machines can't seem to make at all.

It only goes to show that a four-cylinder motor—when it is built right—is the only safe and sane motor.

PHONE CIRCLE 1616

Chas. E. Riess & Co., Inc. 1690 Broadway, at 53d Street

T. R. SAYS WOMEN MUST AID HUGHES

Suffragists Rush West to Urge Party to Indorse G. O. P. Nominee.

TWO MAKE TRIP ON SHORT NOTICE

Miss Carpenter and Miss Todd Start for Conference When Colonel Advises Action.

Catching a train for the West on twenty minutes' notice, Miss Alice Carpenter and Miss Helen Todd dashed away last night for the national conference of the Woman's party at Colorado Springs, Col., to secure the Presidential endorsement of that body for Charles E. Hughes.

Their sudden determination to go was largely the result of a letter sent by Colonel Roosevelt to the women's committee of the National Hughes Alliance. In it he endorsed the Woman's party activities, said the time was ripe for the passage of the Federal suffrage amendment, and declared the women in the suffrage states should use their ballots in behalf of their sisters.

"Mr. Hughes has unequivocally taken the right position," wrote Colonel Roosevelt. "The women in the enfranchised states who do not in this election support him forfeit the right to say they have done their utmost for their sisters in the non-enfranchised states."

It was then that Miss Carpenter and Miss Todd made up their minds to rush to Colorado Springs to do their best to make a conference representing four million women voters see things Colored Roosevelt's way. Miss Carpenter shut her desk, telephoned for money, telephoned for a taxi, telephoned for a travelling bag, and announced she was off.

Indorses Hughes on Run.

"We believe the Woman's party conference should indorse Mr. Hughes and use its influence in his favor," she said over her shoulder to reporters as she fled for an elevator. "Mr. Hughes has done for womankind what no other Presidential candidate has ever done. The Woman's party should recognize this and give him its fullest indorsement."

Miss Helen Todd, who had come downtown with no more ambitious purpose than to purchase a pair of stockings, dropped into the headquarters of the Hughes Alliance, and there learned she was to start for the West on short notice. It did not daunt her in the least.

"I feel that at this time, when so much sacrifice is demanded of women all over the world, we want for President a man who recognizes our rights and our existence," she said. "Mr. Wilson has demanded sacrifices of wives and mothers and refuses to recognize them as citizens. We women want a man who recognizes our rights and our existence. Mr. Hughes will do that for us. He has said we should be citizens." And she was gone.

Asks Roosevelt's Opinions.

The letter in which Colonel Roosevelt yesterday gave his unequivocal indorsement to the formation of organizations, especially in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment, was made to the Women's Committee of the National Hughes Alliance, which Miss Frances A. Kellor is chairman.

Miss Carpenter, as chairman of the New York City Committee of the Hughes Alliance, wrote asking Colonel Roosevelt's opinion on this point: "In view of the fact that Mr. Hughes has now indorsed the Federal amendment, I greatly desire to know your opinion upon the formation of a Woman's Party organization in the suffrage states to force a passage of the amendment through Congress."

"The time is ripe for the passage of the amendment. There is a more widespread demand for it than for the passage of any recent constitutional amendment. Twelve states have already enfranchised women without producing even the smallest degree any of the evils prophesied. The women in these twelve states should certainly use this ballot on behalf of their sisters in the other states. Such action is precisely like that of the men who use their ballots to force the abolition of child labor, the passage of the workmen's compensation laws, the adoption of a protective tariff, for the enactment of legislation to secure the military and naval preparedness which is vital to the very existence of the nation."

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

"The time is ripe for the passage of the amendment. There is a more widespread demand for it than for the passage of any recent constitutional amendment. Twelve states have already enfranchised women without producing even the smallest degree any of the evils prophesied. The women in these twelve states should certainly use this ballot on behalf of their sisters in the other states. Such action is precisely like that of the men who use their ballots to force the abolition of child labor, the passage of the workmen's compensation laws, the adoption of a protective tariff, for the enactment of legislation to secure the military and naval preparedness which is vital to the very existence of the nation."

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

Colonel Roosevelt's reply to Miss Carpenter was, in part, as follows: "In answer to your question, I take pleasure in saying I welcome the formation of an organization, especially organized in the suffrage states, to secure the passage of the Federal amendment."

HUGHES STARTING HIS CAMPAIGN IN DETROIT.

Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for President, firing the first verbal gun of his campaign before eight thousand automobile workers at the Cadillac plant. Employees of several other plants joined in giving the candidate an ovation.

HUGHES ATTACKS PORK GRABBERS

Continued from page 1

eny to be an administration of capacity for service to the country. "If anything in this campaign is real it is that we are now facing the question whether we want words or whether we want deeds, whether we want that which is written and spoken, or whether we want American action in the interests of the American people, worthy of the American name, maintaining the American honor, and buttressing the prosperity of the United States."

"One of the very serious charges which must be laid against the present Administration is the charge of putting incompetent men into important positions. That is not for the benefit of democracy, and I now, in this place where I was nominated, without any regard to political future, say this: That if I am elected President of the United States I propose that every man that I put in charge of an important department shall be a man eminently fit to discharge the duties of that department."

Training to Count Something. "I propose that in diplomatic service training shall count something. I propose that when a man goes from this country to represent the great United States, he shall be a man of the highest caliber, a man of the highest caliber, a man of the highest caliber."

Tousands of Hand Shakers. As he progressed—and Mr. Hughes is an experienced hand shaker—it was discovered that the waiting crowds were increasing. A line of men and women, standing four abreast, stretched four blocks down the street from the Conway Building, when those about him finally decided the whole day would be consumed unless they intervened. So a double guard was set about the building, the doors were locked and Mr. Hughes and Senator Sherman were whisked out through private exits.

Confers With Leaders. Mr. Hughes alighted from the Michigan Central train to which his cars were attached at 8:10 a. m., was met by a delegation of local leaders, in which there was a generous sprinkling of Progressives, and was taken to the Blackstone Hotel headquarters. There he met Alvin T. Hart, of Kentucky, newly appointed Western manager, who reported the headquarters here already were under a full head of steam. Chairman William R. Willcox, of the Republican National Committee, and the Governor of Michigan, Charles S. Deneen, Mayor William Hale Thompson and numerous Chicago and downstate leaders participated.

Democrat Extravagance. "Now there is another side that I wish to speak of with respect to a businesslike administration. Four years ago the Democratic party in its platform accused the Republican party of waste and extravagance. They said that they were going to be economical. When they got in they were more wasteful and more extravagant than any administration had ever been."

Not for Foolish Government. "I have no respect for the idea that because democratic government is a government of the people, by the people and for the people it is a government of the foolish, for the foolish and by the foolish. You must have regard for the economic independence of this country. We have learned a few things of late. Those that were talking tariff for revenue only are now whispering vote softly about a protective commission. A little while ago we heard in the Democratic platform of 1912 that it was contrary to the Constitution of the United States to have a protective tariff. That was in effect no course not in words, but the words mean simply this—they say, in effect now that the European war has changed the Constitution of the United States."

DECLARE HUGHES CHARGES FALSE

Administration Officials Deny Politics in Office Changes.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Statements made by Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for the Presidency, in speeches at Detroit yesterday, were characterized as "false as to the facts and of misleading substance" in telegrams sent by Administration officials to-night, after a long discussion by President Wilson and his Cabinet. The charges related to changes in the Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Census Bureau.

Secretary Redfield, in Binghamton, N. Y., telegraphed to Secretary Tumulty denying the charges made by Mr. Hughes and later sent a similar telegram to Mr. Hughes. Edwin F. Sweet, Acting Secretary of Commerce in Mr. Redfield's absence, also telegraphed Mr. Hughes a detailed refutation of the charges.

Mr. Hughes cited the retirement of E. Dana Durand as Director of the Census and the appointment of William J. Harris in his place, and the replacement of J. E. Tittman as head of the Coast and Geodetic Survey by Dr. E. Lester Jones.

Redfield Denies Charges. "Statement of Hughes respecting appointments Census and Coast Survey in Detroit false as to facts and of misleading substance," said Mr. Redfield's telegram. "You may say from me, Durand of Census retired voluntarily; he was not removed or retired. I recommended his resignation, and his successor, Harris, was not political. Made fine record and promoted Trade Commissioner for merit."

Tittman, Coast Survey, retired voluntarily after my suggestion of resignation. Jones, his successor, promoted for meritorious work as Deputy Commissioner Fisheries. Has made wonderful record installing new life into service."

Defends Jones as Executive. "You refer to E. Lester Jones, his successor, as a stock breeder and veterinary surgeon. At one time he had a farm in Virginia on which he raised stock. This was sold some time before he entered the government service. He never was a veterinary surgeon. He is a gentleman of education and refinement. Before his appointment to succeed Dr. Tittman he was Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries, and displayed administrative talent of such high order that he was deemed by both the Secretary and myself worthy of recommendation to fill the vacancy in the Coast and Geodetic Survey. In our judgment this bureau was well equipped from the scientific standpoint, but stood in great need of a man of executive ability to direct and organize its work."

Confers With Leaders. Mr. Hughes alighted from the Michigan Central train to which his cars were attached at 8:10 a. m., was met by a delegation of local leaders, in which there was a generous sprinkling of Progressives, and was taken to the Blackstone Hotel headquarters. There he met Alvin T. Hart, of Kentucky, newly appointed Western manager, who reported the headquarters here already were under a full head of steam. Chairman William R. Willcox, of the Republican National Committee, and the Governor of Michigan, Charles S. Deneen, Mayor William Hale Thompson and numerous Chicago and downstate leaders participated.

Democrat Extravagance. "Now there is another side that I wish to speak of with respect to a businesslike administration. Four years ago the Democratic party in its platform accused the Republican party of waste and extravagance. They said that they were going to be economical. When they got in they were more wasteful and more extravagant than any administration had ever been."

Not for Foolish Government. "I have no respect for the idea that because democratic government is a government of the people, by the people and for the people it is a government of the foolish, for the foolish and by the foolish. You must have regard for the economic independence of this country. We have learned a few things of late. Those that were talking tariff for revenue only are now whispering vote softly about a protective commission. A little while ago we heard in the Democratic platform of 1912 that it was contrary to the Constitution of the United States to have a protective tariff. That was in effect no course not in words, but the words mean simply this—they say, in effect now that the European war has changed the Constitution of the United States."

DECLARE HUGHES CHARGES FALSE

Administration Officials Deny Politics in Office Changes.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Statements made by Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for the Presidency, in speeches at Detroit yesterday, were characterized as "false as to the facts and of misleading substance" in telegrams sent by Administration officials to-night, after a long discussion by President Wilson and his Cabinet. The charges related to changes in the Coast and Geodetic Survey and the Census Bureau.

Secretary Redfield, in Binghamton, N. Y., telegraphed to Secretary Tumulty denying the charges made by Mr. Hughes and later sent a similar telegram to Mr. Hughes. Edwin F. Sweet, Acting Secretary of Commerce in Mr. Redfield's absence, also telegraphed Mr. Hughes a detailed refutation of the charges.

Mr. Hughes cited the retirement of E. Dana Durand as Director of the Census and the appointment of William J. Harris in his place, and the replacement of J. E. Tittman as head of the Coast and Geodetic Survey by Dr. E. Lester Jones.

Redfield Denies Charges. "Statement of Hughes respecting appointments Census and Coast Survey in Detroit false as to facts and of misleading substance," said Mr. Redfield's telegram. "You may say from me, Durand of Census retired voluntarily; he was not removed or retired. I recommended his resignation, and his successor, Harris, was not political. Made fine record and promoted Trade Commissioner for merit."

Tittman, Coast Survey, retired voluntarily after my suggestion of resignation. Jones, his successor, promoted for meritorious work as Deputy Commissioner Fisheries. Has made wonderful record installing new life into service."

Defends Jones as Executive. "You refer to E. Lester Jones, his successor, as a stock breeder and veterinary surgeon. At one time he had a farm in Virginia on which he raised stock. This was sold some time before he entered the government service. He never was a veterinary surgeon. He is a gentleman of education and refinement. Before his appointment to succeed Dr. Tittman he was Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries, and displayed administrative talent of such high order that he was deemed by both the Secretary and myself worthy of recommendation to fill the vacancy in the Coast and Geodetic Survey. In our judgment this bureau was well equipped from the scientific standpoint, but stood in great need of a man of executive ability to direct and organize its work."

Confers With Leaders. Mr. Hughes alighted from the Michigan Central train to which his cars were attached at 8:10 a. m., was met by a delegation of local leaders, in which there was a generous sprinkling of Progressives, and was taken to the Blackstone Hotel headquarters. There he met Alvin T. Hart, of Kentucky, newly appointed Western manager, who reported the headquarters here already were under a full head of steam. Chairman William R. Willcox, of the Republican National Committee, and the Governor of Michigan, Charles S. Deneen, Mayor William Hale Thompson and numerous Chicago and downstate leaders participated.

Democrat Extravagance. "Now there is another side that I wish to speak of with respect to a businesslike administration. Four years ago the Democratic party in its platform accused the Republican party of waste and extravagance. They said that they were going to be economical. When they got in they were more wasteful and more extravagant than any administration had ever been."

Not for Foolish Government. "I have no respect for the idea that because democratic government is a government of the people, by the people and for the people it is a government of the foolish, for the foolish and by the foolish. You must have regard for the economic independence of this country. We have learned a few things of late. Those that were talking tariff for revenue only are now whispering vote softly about a protective commission. A little while ago we heard in the Democratic platform of 1912 that it was contrary to the Constitution of the United States to have a protective tariff. That was in effect no course not in words, but the words mean simply this—they say, in effect now that the European war has changed the Constitution of the United States."

MOOSE TO RUN A STATE TICKET

Despite Some Opposition Local Committee Decides to Go It Alone.

COLBY FOR SENATOR IS ALSO AGREED ON

Seabury for Governor and Robert H. Elder for Attorney General Is Slate.

The executive committee of the Progressive County Committee met yesterday and decided upon a full state ticket for this fall. Some opposition developed in the committee to a complete Progressive state ticket. It was the opinion of some of the committeemen that Judge Samuel Seabury should be indorsed for Governor and Bainbridge Colby for United States Senator and let it go at that. The ticket as finally announced was the following:

For Governor, Judge Samuel Seabury, of the Court of Appeals. Lieutenant Governor, Charles J. Staples, of Buffalo. Secretary of State, Wendel P. Murray, of Gloversville. Controller, Lucius T. Tuckerman, of Milton, Ulster County. Treasurer, Frank P. Tucker, of Albany. Attorney General, Robert H. Elder, of Brooklyn. State Engineer and Surveyor, E. Platt Stratton, of College Point, Long Island. Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, Almet F. Jenks, of Brooklyn. Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals, Cuthbert W. Pound, of Lockport. United States Senator, Bainbridge Colby, of New York.

John J. O'Connell, chairman of the Progressive County Committee, who presided at the meeting, said that primary petitions for all the candidates would be ready soon. He added that the committee would also select a local county ticket. "We have no deals with the Democrats," said Mr. O'Connell, in reply to a question, "and we will put our ticket in the field independently of anybody else."

The radical element in the Progressive County Committee, who denounced the action of the national committee in indorsing Mr. Hughes, the Republican Presidential candidate, is responsible for the "independent" state ticket. A good many of these Progressives, however, are hopeful that the Democrats will indorse Judge Seabury. There is said to be a movement on foot to have Democrats indorse Bainbridge Colby, for the Senate. This suggestion is understood to have been looked upon with some favor in certain Democratic circles.

A committee on vacancies, to fill any vacancies that might occur in the State ticket, was appointed at yesterday's meeting, consisting of Dr. L. Bradley Dorr, of Buffalo; Dr. W. A. E. Cummings, of Ticonderoga; Essex County Chairman John J. O'Connell; John Robert Taylor, of Brooklyn; and George W. Doughty, of Beacon.

HANLY REPUDIATES PROHIBITION PLANK

Doesn't Believe in Initiative, Referendum and Recall.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—The first of three national notification ceremonies in Indianapolis was held this afternoon when J. Frank Hanly, former Governor of Indiana, and Dr. Ira Larrith, of Boston, were notified of their respective nominations for President and Vice-President on the Prohibition party ticket. The next notification will be that of Charles W. Fairbanks, the Republican nominee for Vice-President, and the last will be for Vice-President Thomas R. Marshall, telling him of his renomination on the Democratic ticket.

In his speech of acceptance Mr. Hanly repudiated one plank of the national Prohibition platform. He said he did not favor the initiative, referendum and recall; that he would not uphold it in his campaign speeches and, if elected, he would oppose its enactment into a law.

His ideas on the tariff and reciprocity were that there is a safe middle ground between the advocates of the two extremes on the question. He said he favored woman suffrage.

THIRD MISHAP KILLS BOY

Brooklyn Lad Hurt in Two Accidents, Dying from Another.

A week ago he tumbled down two flights of stairs and broke his arm. Two days later he was knocked down by a horse, sustaining concussion of the brain and contusions, and yesterday, while his little body was struggling for a breath of fresh air, he pitched from his third floor tenement home and was crushed on the stone courtyard twenty feet beneath.

That is why nine-year-old Jacob Hiscoff, of 207 Hopkins Street, Brooklyn, is dying in St. John's Hospital. And it is why his parents, despite their efforts to be brave, are saying that some fate stronger than human power has pursued the little son they hoped to raise to manhood.

Advertisement for LAWYERS MORTGAGE CO. featuring text: "Our 4 1/2% GUARANTEED MORTGAGES undergo the most rigid scrutiny by our experts before being offered to clients. Clients in turn may make their own examination of properties before purchasing." Includes name RICHARD M. HURD, President and address 19 Liberty St., N. Y.

HUGHES OVATION CHEERS LEADERS

Predict G. O. P. Sentiment Will Sweep U. S.—See Maine Victory.

Workers at Republican National Headquarters found great encouragement yesterday in the enthusiastic reports of the reception to Charles E. Hughes on his Western trip.

Herbert Parsons, National Committeeman from this state, and temporarily in charge of Hughes headquarters in the absence of Chairman William R. Willcox, said that the enthusiasm aroused by the nominee in Detroit would spread spontaneously throughout the country.

"Unless I miss my guess," said Mr. Parsons, "Mr. Hughes will make a campaign that will give Chairman Vance McCormick, in Democratic headquarters, a great deal to think about. The people wanted Hughes, and they are proving it."

F. H. Estabrook, National Committeeman from New Hampshire, visited headquarters yesterday after a trip in New England, and said that "Maine would go Republican by 12,000. 'I have been up there a week,' said Mr. Estabrook, "and have talked with all sorts of people. Factions are disappearing. A few Progressives, of course, will vote for Mr. Wilson, but still convince any one that it is safely Republican already."

Reports of huge crowds which surround the Hughes train at stops led the local managers yesterday to send Frank H. Tye, President Roosevelt's bodyguard, to the White House and later United States Marshal in West Virginia, to join the party.

HERRICK HOLDS LEAD IN OHIO PRIMARIES

Expected to Be Republican Nominee for U. S. Senate.

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 8.—Early returns from to-day's Ohio primary election indicated that both the Republican and Democratic state slates, headed by Governor Frank B. Willis and ex-Governor James M. Cox, respectively, had carried practically without a break.

First returns indicated that ex-Governor Myron T. Herrick had received the Republican nomination for Senator over Harry M. Daugherty. The renomination of Senator Atlee Pomeroy by the Democrats was virtually conceded.

Large advertisement for W. & J. SLOANE featuring text: "Entire Stock of SUMMER RUGS At 20% Reduction. All perfect goods from our regular lines of high-grade Floor Coverings at the following specially reduced prices: Imported Oval Rush Rugs, Imported Heavy Oval Rush Rugs, Famous 'Willow' Grass Rugs, Rag Rugs in Novel Effects, Seamless Wool Art Rugs." Includes various rug sizes and prices.