AUGUST

BY EUPHEMIA HEMANS SIMPSON
O August is an elegant month In regard to Mother Nature
The trees and flowers, so timid once, Now bloom in every feature.

The countryside so pretty is In deepest shades of green
And the Hudson River at sunset Is like some very nice dream.

It is often warm in the daytime
As a general rule
But almost everywhere in the entire state
The nights are always cool.

The advanced price of milk will give many of our soda water dispensers and restaurateurs an excuse to make ice cream with Grade Z milk.

Perhaps the price of frosted sarsaparilla, as the only possible kind is made of Grade A milk, will advance. We don't mind. We shall continue to call for it if it costs 20c a glass.

Consider Our Verses Cancelled

Ah! waste no thought on pensive Thomas Gray,
And burdens that you think he might have carried;
He had a right to linger and delay—
The wily Mr. Gray was never married.

What the milk companies have not considered, in their public statements, is the number of finger-nails we have broken opening those wire-surcungled bottles.

FAMILIAR MISQUOTATIONS

"Far from the maddening crowd."

And, as seven contris point out, most people say "Water, water, everywhere, and not a drop to drink." And some go farther astray with "Water, water, all around."

ECCE MONOCLONUS.

[The monoclonus discovered by Barnum Brown will soon be ready for exhibition in Dinosaur Hall of the American Museum of Natural History. The prehistoric animal was found among the rocks of Belly River—News note.]

On the banks of Belly River they unearthed the dinosaur, He'd been buried there, 'tis said, three million years;
There was nothing that was missing from that ancient beast of power.

He was perfect from his tail-tip to his ears.
Of his teeth, all double rooted, every tooth was in its place.
There were horns above his eyes and on his nose;
While a beak much like a parrot's gave expression to his face.
And he had no less than thirty hoofed toes.

He was seven feet by twenty, standing six-and-over tall,
And he weighed, his finder claims, some several tons;
He was armored like a cruiser; ay, his hide was like a wall;
He was proof against the biggest Skoda guns.
Yet he lusted not for meaty foods, he lusted not for blood,
He was dainty, as an eater, so they say;
For his breakfast he would take a bit of Belly River mud,
For his lunch a wisp of Belly River hay.

From his rocky mausoleum on the Belly River shore
They exhumed him, and they shipped him off to town—
Where they put him in a curio-hall, for people to adore—Butcher, baker, doctor, lawyer, judge and clown.
Hundreds daily go to view him in a scientific way,
They peruse the card that's on him, then exclaim—Peradventure some will whisper it, but every one will say,
"Belly River!—Isn't that a funny name!"

HERSITES.

The writers of cigarette advertising copy are making a tremendous effort to tie the rhapsodies of the gentlemen who try to tell the excellences of automobile tires.

DOUBLE RATES

Answer me this question, chieftain,
And complete mine earthly bliss:
If you paid for contributions
How much would you give for this?

Gotham Gleanings

- Looks like rain some time today.
- Dud Conley is busy these days tending to the sick.
- Mrs. Brock Pemberton is back in Gotham after a vacation.
- Al. Wilkie who used to work in Chicago is in town from abroad.
- Geo. Middleton and Geo. Creel took in the ball game Thurs. also Irv Cobb and Bayard Veiller.
- Geo. Plank the w. k. artist is back from abroad and is contemplating a visit to Gotham ere long.
- Mr. Beck the genial druggist says he is getting a lot of calls for frosted sarsaparilla these warm evenings.
- Louis Glackens the popular artist is trout fishing up in Maine, far from the m. c.'s. s.
- Boz Hawley writes from Hartford that he is having a busy summer of it, working on the Times of that place.
- Izzy Kaplan who allowed last week to pass by without giving us a single seegar has been taking photographs from the bridges on the East River.
- Win Merritt the enterprising motorcycle policeman is making a lot of arrests these days. It is almost a pleasure to be arrested by Win, he is so courteous.
- Jane Holt Perry, whose father is Old Reg Perry and whose mother Mrs. Reginald Perry Hilda Hedley that was, was born Thursday at 12:03 a. m. Jane, Hilda and Reg are doing finely.

Botwin, whom Mr. Smith asserted was the head of a so-called Vice Trust, continued his revelations.—The treasured Times.

The Retort Uxorious

[From the Bennington (Vt.) Banner and Reformer.]

Posting Notice

I hereby warn all persons not to harbor or trust my wife, Mrs. Rose Dennis on my account as I shall pay no bills of her contracting after this date. O. T. Dennis.

Bennington, Vt., July 24, 1916.

Notice

My husband O. T. Dennis having published in yesterday's Banner forbidding any person to trust me on his account I wish to say that I do not believe any one would trust me on his account as I have been compelled to support myself as my friends well know. Mr. Dennis has no home and never had one that he provided.

Mrs. O. T. (Rose) Dennis.

you might say, all over the Germans.

The American song writer's is the only profession directly concerned in the acquisition of the Danish West Indies. We give the song writer, as May Sinclair would say, about three years.

Look what he did to poor Hawaii!

Bar Harbor's Pageant "Terpsichore" Given for Benefit of Amer- ican Ambulance Corps in France.

Bar Harbor, Me., Aug. 19.—The last week was by far the busiest of the season, with the pageant "Terpsichore," for the benefit of the American Ambulance Corps in France; the Vanity Fair ball, with its fashion pageant, and the annual aquatic sports at the Swimming Club. About seventy young people took part in "Terpsichore." Miss Enid Howland, the eldest daughter of Lady Speyer, read the prologue, written by John Kendrick Bangs, and George Harris sang the interludes.
Among those taking part in the dances were Miss Josephine Gibson, Miss Mildred Rice, Miss Anita Sturgis, Miss Susan B. Sturgis, Miss Frances Sullivan, Miss Katherine Force, Miss Laura Wurts and Miss Enid Harlow.

The aquatic sports Tuesday morning were preceded by a luncheon party of seventy, at which Miss Helen Draper was hostess. The Vanity Fair ball was held in the evening. Miss Anita Sturgis impersonated Madame Vogue, and had as retinue the Misses Frances Bradley, Louise Delano, Frances Sullivan, K. B. Price Collier, S. R. Price Collier, Mildred Dennis, Laura Wurts and Lela Sullivan.

Mrs. Leonard Thomas and Walter Phelps are the principals in a photo-melodrama being filmed by Alessandro Fabbri, to be presented for the benefit of the Bar Harbor Hospital on the evening of August 30. Others in the cast include Miss Theresa Fabbri, Whitney Wright, Watson Emmett, Henry Taylor, Paul Draper and Charles Cushing.

J. Pierpont Morgan arrived on the yacht Corsair this week to visit his mother, Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan. Mrs.
William Pierson Hamilton and Miss Hamilton are also guests at the Morgan cottage.

Quentin Roosevelt is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto Fabbri at their cottage.

Mrs. G. Gordon King and Miss King, of Newport, are visitors at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. McGary.

Mrs. Francis Burton Harrison, who arrived here early in the season from the Philippines to occupy her cottage, Greenway Court, will leave the first week in September for Paris to place her two daughters in school. Her cottage will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs.
Warner Miffin Leeds, who at present are in one of the Vanderbilt cottages.

In the Berkshires.

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 19.—Mrs. John E. Alexandre's sale for the benefit of women in the devastated regions of France, the finals in a woman's golf tournament at Pittsfield this afternoon and the annual golf tournament at the Wyantuck Country Club, of Great Barrington, were the outstanding society events of the Berkshires this week.

Cool weather lent impetus to all kinds of sports. Tennis was popular at Heaton Hall, Stockbridge, where, in the finals for the cups, Miss Isabel M.
Gregory and Miss Edith Burtis defeated Miss Edna Hoe and Mrs.
Charles R. Gay, 6-4, 8-6, 8-6. At Dalton the Mount Day Tennis Club defeated the Greenock Country Club in a series of men's singles and doubles. Beginning next Monday, the third annual tournament will be played at the Hotel Aspinwall and tennis players from all of the country clubs are entered. E. S. Chase, of Pittsfield, will referee the tournament.

Mrs. William A. Gavin, of London, is at the Hotel Aspinwall. She is one of the best English women golfers, and in this country has distinguished herself by being the runner-up in the open women's championship in 1915 and winning the Eastern Women's Golf Association championship this year. She will play at Belmont Springs, Mass., in the open championship this year.

Mrs. John S. Scully, of Washington, formally presented to the United States government the Hartsville trout hatchery at New Marlboro this week. A. H. Dinsmore, of the Bureau of Fisheries, received the gift of 158 acres. The hatchery will be known as the John S. Scully government hatchery.

Mrs. William Marshall Bullitt, who has offered a cup for the best selected golf score by women at Stockbridge, has gone to Louisville. She will return to present the cup in September.

Mrs. James R. Walker, Mrs. Loyall
Allen Osborne, Mrs. Lawrence B.
Stoddard, Mrs. Beverly C. Duer, Mrs.
Carl A. de Gersdorff and Mrs. Alexander Sedgwick were patronesses for the Casino dance in Stockbridge this week.

Miss Caroline Johnson, of Pittsfield, and Glen Cole, of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loyall A. Osborne at Monastuck Farm, Stockbridge.

Chauncey M. Depew spoke at a meeting of the Park Club in Pittsfield Tuesday evening on "1815-1915," a review of one hundred years of America's growth. Joseph H. Choate was chairman of a meeting and concert at the Lenox Club Friday afternoon, when the negro and Indian pupils of Hampton (Va.) Institute appeared in a programme of songs and characteristic dances.

Miss Margaret Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Livingston Lee, will give a green dance, Miss M. C. Civi-liere and William H. Russell a Mexican dance and Miss Grace Bris-ted the solo in a Polish dance in the annual entertainment for the Red Cross.

Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, with

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Hammond, departed on Monday for Mohawk, N. Y., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Robinson. Mrs. William A. M. Burden, who was Mrs. Sloane's guest, went to Coolidge Point, Magnolia, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Gregory, of New York, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage at Heaton Hall, Stockbridge, last Sunday evening by giving a dinner. The chief table decoration was an illuminated wedding cake. The Misses Bertha, Fanny J. and Isabel M. Gregory, their daughters, were at the anniversary dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Hanna arrived this week at Lake Mahkeencan farm. Mr. Hanna began building stock farms Monday and by the middle of September will have 100 horses and his farm. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna are making plans to pass the winter at their villa, which is being put in repair. Mr. Hanna during the week bought fifty acres of land on the shore of the lake of which he now controls about two miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Cortlandt Field Bishop went to Newport Monday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Drexel for a week.

Paul J. Rainey, who was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Henry W. Rogers, at Hotel Aspinwall, returned to New York.
Mrs. Jabez A. Bostwick and Miss Covington went to New York. Mrs. Bostwick had intended to remain for the autumn, but was affected by the high altitude of the mountains.

Cooperstown.

Cooperstown, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph K. Choate gave a picnic supper Sunday night. Following the picnic, which took place at the Country Club, the guests enjoyed motor boat trips around the lake by moonlight. Others more venturesome went sailing.

Monday was the second of the tennis mornings given in August at Lake-lands, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Bowers. Miss Helen Patterson took the prize in court golf and Miss Cecily McKim in tennis.

The prizes for mixed doubles in the tennis tournament went to Miss Cecily McKim and R. R. Perkins. In the men's doubles William C. Walker and Nelson C. Hyde won, and in the men's singles L. Shumway was the victor.

In the boys' two sailing races this week Frederic Townsend won the first and Frederick Adams Savage, Jr., the second. A ladies' sailing race is taking place to-day around the club course.

Tuesday evening Miss Edith Wellman and James Fenimore Cooper, Jr., gave a unique party at the Country Club. Every one was commanded to appear masked in black and white Pierrot or Pierrette costume, and the disguises were the cause of much merriment.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. G. W.
Graham Bonner and Miss Worthington gave a reception at Worthington Hall in honor of Miss Maudie Alexander.

Miss Florence Wardwell gave a luncheon at Pinehurst on Friday for Mrs. Bilquist, of New York. Her guests included Mrs. William Festus Morgan, Miss Martha Bowers, Miss Grace Carter, Miss Kneese, Mrs. S. S.
Spaulding, Mrs. Gregory Meadows, Mrs. Morris C. Foote and Mrs. William Crain Bowers.

The Misses Wardwell are giving a dinner to-morrow evening for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson Stokes.

At Otsego Hall this week from New York are Mrs. Martha Foote Crowe and Miss Elizabeth L. Foote.

New London.

New London, Conn., Aug. 19.—New London society has spent the week on the water and in the water in its efforts to be on hand when the Bremen arrived. The feminine population of New London were so wrought up over the prospect of its immediate arrival that most of the social life was sustained for several days. But on Wednesday, in despair, every one gave up and rushed away to Narragansett to witness the polo game. By 10 o'clock in the morning the private yachts anchored in the Thames were away for the day at the Pier. Commodore and Mrs. Robert Tod, with a large party on board the Katoursa, set sail before the steam yacht got away.

Commodore John F. Hubbard, of Pittsburgh, who has just sold the Naushon and bought the big Lorena, invited nearly sixty guests from the Griswold to go with him to the polo game.

Philip Corbin, of New Britain, entertained a large party of young people on board the Oneida. Harold Judd, who before his marriage two years ago to Mrs. Charles Gates, of Minnesota, was Mr. Corbin's chum, was the guest of honor. Mr. Judd is at the Griswold, visiting his mother, Mrs. M.
N. Judd, of New Britain. He has bought a camp in the Adirondacks, adjoining Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Brown's property, and also plans to build a home at Hartford or New Britain very soon.

Mrs. C. V. Rich, C. V. Rich, Jr., and Miss Betty Rich came to the Griswold from the mountains last week to meet Mr. Rich, who has just returned from a business trip to Russia.

There have been many dinner parties during the week at Pequot. On Saturday night Edmund C. Johnston entertained at the Casino. His guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. David Banks, Mr. and Mrs.
Lawrence Y. Spear, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, Mr. and Mrs.
Nelson Whitney, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. L. Tracy Sheffield, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Learned, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Mc-Dowell, Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer and Miss Emily Norrie.

The White Mountains.
Bretton Woods, N. H., Aug. 19.—The gayeties of the mountains culminate at Bretton Woods, where there have been many arrivals during the last week. Motor parties have come here from the other resorts to the dancers in the Mount Washington Forest de Danse, suppers and dinners in the European Room. Mrs. J. Stewart White, who gave an auction dinner for fifty guests in the banquet hall, and Mrs.
George Gregory and Mrs. Henry Palmer, of New York, who gave a tea and an auction party last Friday in the European Room, have been among the hostesses of the week.

Among those at the Mount Washington Hotel and the Mount Pleasant are Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin, of New York, for six weeks; Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, who has been joined by Mrs. Richard Gambrell, of Newport; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hunnewell, of Boston and the North Shore; Mrs. John Wanamaker and Mrs. Barclay Warburton, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Conyngham and Miss J. Alice Maxwell, Dr. and Mrs.

E. S. Robinson and Dr. and Mrs. J.
Blake White. The women are working for the Red Cross on Mondays and Thursdays.

I. W. Small, of Boston, will entertain Francis Guimet, golf champion, at the Maplewood next week.
The women of the Maplewood have organized a shooting squad and will begin practice this week. The first dancers of the season is scheduled for August 21 at the Maplewood. The children's masquerade will be given on August 23 and a cotillon on August 25. The annual concert at the Maplewood Casino of the combined orchestras of the Maplewood and the two Bretton Woods hotels took place on Saturday. Miss Olive Marshall, of the Boston Opera, was soloist.
New York arrivals at the Maplewood this week include Mrs. Edwin R. Perkins and Master Eugene Ayers, Miss Beatrice Haight, E. R. Manley, H. F.
Hughes, L. F. Fechtman, Jr., Clarke W.
Harrison, G. H. Rohmann, and James A. Boyd and M. D. Fink, who have come to join their families. Dr. Leo Green is here for the season. Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Haddock and W. C. Haddock, Jr., of New York, are at the Maplewood, and Ward Cheney and Miss Marjorie Cheney, of South Manchester, Conn., are here for the season.
Mrs. Fiske Hammond and Mrs.
Charles Mifflin Frothingham, of Boston and Wayland, are joining Mrs.
Gardiner Greene Hammond at her cottage here this week. Other guests there include Miss Marie Sault and William Sault, of South Manchester, Conn.

Dr. John P. Davin, of New York, has joined his family at Maplewood Inn for the remainder of the season.
William Hendrickson, of Jamaica, L.
I., is at the Inn, and Mr. and Mrs.
Henry Smith, of New York, Mrs.
Anne McCall and John F. McCall, of Lake Placid, are there for a few weeks.

Southampton.

Southampton, L. I., Aug. 19.—The annual costume ball for the benefit of the Southampton Hospital was the event of the week. The charity is a favorite one of local cottage colonists, and, following the dinners of last Friday night—always a feature of weekends here—hostesses took their guests on to the Meadow Club, which on that occasion never looked more attractive.
On the committee of arrangements were Mrs. Joseph Dilworth, Mrs. Cornelius
N. Bliss, Jr., Mrs. Howard Brokaw, Mrs. Scott Cameron, Mrs. Albert Gallia-

Miss Williams's Engage- ment This Week Inter- ests Beverly Farms Colonists—Bretton Woods Gayeties.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 19.—The Myopia, Montserrat and Essex County clubs have been gathering places for those who delight in polo, golf and tennis. Polo matches have been played during the week at Myopia, and three of the runs of the Myopia pony drags, under the direction of Miss Emma Mandell, have brought out good fields.

One of the most interesting engagements announced this week is that of Miss Frances Williams, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Henry R. Williams, of Washington, and a Farms colonist, to John Ballentine Pitney, of Morristown, N. J. Mr. Pitney has been spending the week with the Williamses at their cottage at the Farms. Miss Williams is a sister of Mrs. Joseph Letter, of Washington, who is at her estate, Edgewater, at the Farms, for the season, and of Mrs. William F.
McCombs, of Washington, who is with her parents this year.

Former Secretary of State and Mrs.
Knox have returned to Pittsburgh after a stay with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Frick, of New York, at Eagle Rock, their estate at the Farms.

Mrs. Reginald de Keven, of New York, was one of the leaders in making plans for the motion picture lecture given at Swift-Moor, the summer home of Mrs. A. C. P. Wichfeld, for the benefit of the fund for the wounded French soldiers. The money netted by the affair, which has been swelled by several contributions from colonstists unable to attend, is to be presented to Ambassador Jules Jusserand at Washington.

Arthur F. Luke, whose 40-footer Kathrine flies the colors of the New York Yacht Club, has matched his fast craft against the Squaw, a yacht of the same type, owned by John S. Lawrence, for a series of five races off Marblehead. Mr. Luke keeps his yacht off West Beach.

James W. Appleton, of New York, master of the Myopia hounds, has offered a handsome silver cup, known as the master's challenge cup, in which some of the entrants were Edward Van Ingen, Lawrence Van Ingen, T. Morris Carnegie, Whitney Shepherdson, Lay Martin, Charles Sabin, Jr.; Elton Hooker, Louis Preston, Franklin Horn, Everett Colby and Louis Dupont Irving, and the luncheon at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club house, given by Mr. Albert H. Ely to the members of the volunteer squadron organized by Stuart Davis. Some of the men guests were Orson D. Munn, Frederic Humphreys, Landon Humphreys, John M. L. Rutherford and John Williams, Jr.

As usual with the waning of summer, there is much shifting about among the cottage dwellers. Mrs.
Henry Sanford, who has been here for nearly a month with her parents, the Newbold Edgars, and her sister, Mrs.
Stuart Davis, has gone to the Adirondacks, and later on will go to the Canadian woods with Mr. Sanford. The Allen Appleton Robinsons, who have been here for a fortnight, are about to go on to Newport; the Henry C. Phipps have closed their Fair Lee place and taken their children for a yachting trip; the James Cooper Lords, who have been visiting the Henry Graf Trevors, have returned to New York, and the Joseph Davises have taken a cottage on the Shinnecock Hills.

Irving Hotel patrons are Senator G.
M. Hitchcock and Mrs. Hitchcock, Miss Ruth Hitchcock, Omaha; Hon. Wayne Parker, Mrs. Parker, Miss Parker and Cortlandt Parker, Orange, N. J.; M. E.
Carter, Jr., Memphis; Marshall C. Le-ferts, Dr. Peter J. Gibbons, Austin Flint Gibbons, New York; Mrs. George W. Kinney, Cleveland; Miss M. C.
Turnbull, Washington, D. C.; O. B.
Wickham, Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs.
George S. Vail, Cleveland; Miss Audrey Osborne, Miss Vouletti Proctor, Miss A. G. Davis, Dr. N. F. Shields, New York; Mrs. H. H. Pease, Philadelphia; C. B. Alker, W. J. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Ehrst.

Yachting parties have been popular here recently, and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, of Philadelphia, sailed across the bay from Newport on board their yacht "Dorothea." They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Belmont, of New York, and Miss Hannah Randolph, a daughter of P. S. P. Randolph, of Philadelphia.
All visited the Casino, and afterward
went for a motor trip along Ocean Road toward Point Judith. Mr. and Mrs. Belmont have been frequent visitors to the pier during the polo season
here.

Mrs. Henry W. Bond, of St. Louis, announced recently the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marion Bond, to William de Forest Crowell, of St.
Louis. Miss Bond's father is Judge Henry W. Bond, of the Supreme Court of Missouri. The wedding will take place early in October in St.
Louis. Miss Bond and her mother are spending the summer at the Imperial.
Mr. Crowell is also here.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., Aug. 19.— Yachting, the conclusion of the National Polo Tournament on the fields of Point Judith, and golfing and tennis tournaments at the Point Judith Country Club have been the chief diversions in the open during the past week at Narragansett. The finals in the series for the Atlantic Cups, presented by W. A. Hazard, of New York, brought the Point Judith Polo Tournament to a close, although some of the poloists with their mounts will remain here through the month for practice games on the polo fields, preceding September tourneys elsewhere.

Yachting parties have been popular
here recently, and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John R. Fell, of Philadelphia,
sailed across the bay from Newport
on board their yacht "Dorothea." They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Belmont, of New York,
and Miss Hannah Randolph, a daughter of P. S. P. Randolph, of Philadelphia.
All visited the Casino, and afterward
went for a motor trip along Ocean
Road toward Point Judith. Mr. and Mrs. Belmont have been frequent vis-
here.
