HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St. Surface Cars at Door

Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

The watchword of the BELLECLAIRE is PREPAREDNESS—keeping everything up to the minute, always ready to give guests the best service.

No matter how much praise we receive from guests for giving them fine rooms, good food, and an all-around satisfactory service, nevertheless, it is our desire TO DO MORE FOR THEM.

Consequently we prepare to do better by them than they expect or demand—i. e., the rooms are kept in the pink of condition all of the time, and money is liberally expended for this purpose.

In the kitchen, methods and equipment are improved constantly, for, after all is said and done, it is THERE the foundation of a good hotel is built—particularly a real home hotel as the BELLECLAIRE is.

There are some suites yet to be rented for the season or by the year. The regular rate prevails for six months and only a slight discount is allowed for a year's lease. This custom prevails at the BELLECLAIRE because of the conviction that all guests are entitled to receive equal privileges at equal prices.

Equality in granting leases, making large reductions in some instances and forcing higher prices in other instances—in other words, running a lease bargain counter—is not a part of the BELLECLAIRE system.

The BELLECLAIRE plan is to fix prices on an equitable, just basis, all along the line, so that the yearly returns, by keeping the Hotel running to capacity, will give us a reasonable net profit.

If you want to live in a hotel where care is taken as to who shall be its guests—where prices are uniform—then come and find out for yourself just how fairly this business is operated and how complete is its service.
