

TISZA OPPOSITION LOSING SUPPORT

Demands dwindle as the Premier gains strength.

REITERATE CHARGES OF MILITARY NEGLECT

Minister's Opponents Are Not Likely to Win Coalition.

Vienna, Sept. 16.—While the Opposition still is waging an active parliamentary war against the Tisza Ministry in the Diet, it is becoming plainer every day that its cause is losing support. This is indicated by the means in which it resorts.

For the last few days criticism of the Tisza Ministry has pivoted on a matter which only indirectly concerns the Hungarian Diet and Hungarian politics—namely, the convening of Austrian and Hungarian delegations in bodies which attend to state affairs that Austria and Hungary have in common. Tisza's opponents demand that the delegations be convened for the purpose of attending to certain military and political affairs which, it is charged, are being neglected by the Austrian government. These consist of alleged incompetency in the administration of foreign affairs and inefficiency in the Austro-Hungarian army administration; both of these charges being connected with Rumania's entry into the war.

Accuse Tisza of Failure.
The opposition to Tisza continues to assert that the department of Baron von Burian, the Foreign Minister, and the Tisza government have failed to take the necessary military precautions in Transylvania and that they are guilty of most flagrant failure in not warning the population of Transylvania to leave their homes before the Rumanian advance took place, with the result that the year's crops and much cattle were lost.

Premier Tisza has pointed out that the Opposition was mistaken. In a masterly exposé he showed that the Austro-Hungarian government was fully acquainted with the situation in Bucharest and expected the declaration of war by Rumania, but that the Rumanian government was obliged by the Entente to act precipitately, Rumania being not quite ready, as developments in Dobruja had shown.

Count Tisza declared that Hungary had no right to interfere in the sovereign affairs of Austria and that to do so would be a dangerous precedent because Austria might sometime exercise the same privilege toward Hungary.

Opposition Continues Criticism.
The Opposition still along has charged the Austrian government with a grave breach of good faith toward Hungary because of the failure to convene the Austro-Hungarian Parliament, but as Count Tisza has many times pointed out this matter is wholly beyond the province of the Hungarian Diet.

Meanwhile the demands of the Opposition are dwindling in number and vehemence. At first the Opposition demanded the retirement from power of Tisza and his party. The next demand was for a coalition ministry excluding Tisza, and finally for such a ministry to include him. To-day, the hopes of the Premier's opponents are limited to adding from their own ranks several ministers without portfolios.

The Opposition gained a slight victory yesterday in the retirement of Count Serenyi from the office of Minister of Agriculture and from the Labor party.

It is problematical whether Count Tisza's opponents will be able to obtain even a coalition ministry. It is more probable that the storm in the Diet will subside without changing anything, especially should an offensive against Rumanians in Transylvania be begun soon.

GERMAN GUARDS QUIT DUTCH-BELGIAN LINES

Holland Becomes Refuge for Thousands of Albert's Subjects.

London, Sept. 16.—A dispatch to "The Evening News" from Amsterdam reports that the German guards along the Dutch frontier toward both Belgium and Germany have been withdrawn.

From Belgium, adds the dispatch, numbers of Belgian families, who for months have appealed for permission to enter Holland now are streaming across the line at various points with their belongings piled on every kind of conveyance.

BULGARS' REPRISAL THREAT

Captive Rumanian Officers in Peril if Atrocities Do Not Stop.

Berlin, Friday, Sept. 15 (by wireless).—Premier Radolavoff of Bulgaria, who already has requested the American Charge d'Affaires to visit Dobruja to investigate the atrocities which the Rumanians are charged officially with having committed during their retreat before the invading Bulgarian and German armies, now announces that unless the alleged slaughter of women and children is stopped Bulgaria will inflict reprisals, beginning with 400 captured Rumanian officers.
