

YOU MAY SEE THEM ALL AT THE MATINEE

By W. E. Hill

MEMBER OF THE ORCHESTRA LISTENING TO THE JOKES IN A MUSICAL SHOW FOR THE ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEENTH TIME

"WE GET ALL THE GOOD SHOWS OUT IN DES MOINES— WHY LOTS OF PEOPLE PREFER THE COMPANIES WE GET TO THE NEW YORK ONES!"

A PAIR FROM PREP SCHOOL, SITTING WAY BACK ON THE SIDE, ARE SURE THEY ARE GETTING THE CHORUS AWFULLY FUSSED.

LADY IN A DOLLAR BALCONY SNEAKING DOWN TO GRAB A TWO DOLLAR SEAT AFTER THE SHOW STARTS.

"EVERY ONE OF HER UPPER FILLINGS HAS TO COME OUT!"

HAZEL'S BIRTHDAY BOX PARTY.

LADY WHO ATE LUNCH IN A HURRY WISHING SHE HADN'T TAKEN THAT SECOND DEVILED CRAB.

"(AND WHO, I SAY, ARE YOU, THAT YOU SHOULD COME INTO THIS DRESSING ROOM AND TELL ME TO SHUT UP!"

COMEDIAN WATCHING TO SEE HOW A NEW GAG IS GOING.
