

Whitman Attacked When Republicans Meet in Brooklyn

Governor Denounced as "Fifty-fifty" Party Man for Supporting Mitchell

Conference Fails County Committee Rejects Motion to Uphold Call for State Session

The Kings County Republican Committee, which met last night in the Johnston Building, Brooklyn, hoping to adjourn without any reference to the state situation, listened to a bitter attack on Governor Whitman, State Controller Travis and other Republicans who supported Mayor Mitchell in the municipal campaign last fall.

The attack was made by Charles Conroy, a delegate from the 16th Assembly District, who characterized the Governor as a fifty-fifty Republican. It followed an unsuccessful effort by Charles S. Aaronson to have the organization support a call for a conference in two weeks before Primary Day to enunciate principles, write a platform and suggest candidates for state officers.

But the moneybunch bought up these men," continued Mr. Conroy. "No more of this kind of ticket who was a fifty-fifty Republican at the last election. If Mr. Whitman is nominated he will be badly beaten."

"You meet Republicans on the street who say this and then they say: 'But you have got to beat him in the primaries.'"

"We have lots of good men. We have James C. Croysey, we have Secretary of the State, we have the late States Senator Wardsworth, and Attorney General Lewis."

"Governor Whitman was not a loyal Republican in the past. He was fifty-fifty. If Al Smith is nominated by the Democrats and the Governor happens to be re-nominated, because Al Smith was loyal to the Republican party."

When Mr. Conroy finished he received a standing ovation. The taxi introduced Secretary Charles F. Murphy, who addressed the committee on the accomplishments of the Brooklyn Republican legislators in the last session.

Pay as You Go Policy To Be Abandoned

ALBANY, May 14.—Announcement was made by Governor Whitman today that he had signed the Wagner bill relieving New York City of the necessity of adhering to the pay-as-you-go policy of financing public improvements during the war.

Under the terms of the Wagner bill New York is authorized to issue each year for the war and for one year after its termination $1,000,000 in corporate stock and serial bonds to finance non-revenue producing improvements, such as schools and hospitals. The measure was advocated by New York authorities.

Governor Whitman's omnibus veto, the death of seventy-nine bills passed during the 1918 session of the Legislature, which characterized the end of the thirty-day period which terminated last night, was made public today.

Two of the most important measures which met death were the Martin bill to provide for an investigation of the rural school problem, and the Meyer bill to require non-English speaking pupils between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one to attend some public or private day or night school.

In a memorandum the Governor said that the bills which met death in the veto were either "duplicates or unnecessary, or defectively drawn, or embraced in or are in conflict with bills already signed, or are unconstitutional, or for purposes which can be suitably accomplished under existing general laws."

During the 1918 Legislative session 658 laws were signed, as compared with 800 in 1917.
