U. S. and Britain An Invincible Race, Says Lord Mayor

LONDON, June 21.—Charles A. Hanson, Lord Mayor of London, was a guest to-day at the Luncheon Club, and read a letter from Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig in reply to birthday congratulations that had been sent to the British commander in chief. Sir Douglas expressed unbounded confidence in the Allied armies and declared that the British troops were resisting and would continue to resist the utmost efforts of the enemy. The Lord Mayor, who has made thirty-six round trips across the Atlantic, said: "Nothing has so fortified my confidence in the ultimate victory of the Allied cause as the splendid manner in which America has thrown herself into the war. Great Britain and America are going to see this thing through. Together we are an unconquerable race."

Bronx Mother Sure That Son Reported Killed Is in U. S.

Says She Heard From Him At Southern Camp in Last Few Days

Mrs. Thomas J. O'Connell, of 423 East 143d Street, the Bronx, whose son, Thomas J. O'Connell, was reported in yesterday's casualty list as killed in action, believes that a mistake has been made. She has four sons in the army and William and Augustus are in France, but Thomas and Daniel, she is sure, are still in this country. "Only a few days ago," she said, "I received a card from Tom, dated Hattiesburg, Miss."

Her son Augustus, she said, had written to her that there was a Thomas J. O'Connell from Virginia in the regiment to which he belonged and that mistakes had been made in delivering mail. Mrs. O'Connell is confident that the mistake penetrated to the casualty list.

Two of the New York residents in the list are of alien birth, though residents of this country from childhood. One of them, Benjamin Saltzman, of 545 Sackman Street, Brooklyn, who has died from wounds, was born in Austria. His parents believe that the wounds which caused his death were received in an effort to escape from German captors—an effort in which Louis Kantorowitz, a friend and member of the same regiment, was successful and for which he was decorated. Zaimo Luloff, the other foreign-born citizen, is a native of Russia. He is seriously wounded. His father, Herman Luloff, lives at Four Corners, Staten Island. The young man enlisted in the Marine Corps when war was declared. He was twenty years old at the time. Anthony Gerage, of 305 Berriman Street, Brooklyn, another marine who was seriously wounded, is one of three brothers in the United States military forces. A third is a captain in the Italian army. The wounded man is eighteen years old and was beginning the study of architecture in Bushwick High School when he enlisted. Philip L. Abernethy, who was killed in action, enlisted in the Marine Corps last December. He was twenty-seven years old, a graduate of Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, and lived at 887 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn.

Secretary Baker Near When Bomb Explodes

Only 300 Yards From Scene of Double Fatality—Deaths of Two Aviators Recorded

BALTIMORE, June 21.—Sergeant Elmer St. John, of St. Louis, and Corporal James P. Roden, of Brooklyn, were killed and a private soldier named Calderwood was severely injured by the premature explosion of a trench mortar bomb at the army proving grounds at Aberdeen, Md., yesterday. It was learned to-day. Secretary Baker and several ordnance officers were standing less than 300 yards away at the time, but Mr. Baker did not know of the accident until informed some time later. ST. LOUIS, June 21.—Lieutenant James R. Wheeler, of St. Louis, was killed to-day when the machine in which he was flying with John N. Raftoy, fell into the Chesapeake Bay. Raftoy, after whose home is in St. Paul, escaped with only slight injuries. LONDON, June 21.—Lieutenant Vincent Flynn, of New Jersey, attached to the British Royal Air Force, was killed at Cheshire yesterday. His machine collided with another airplane, in which there were two British flyers. These airmen also lost their lives. WASHINGTON, June 21.—Ten deaths resulting from airplane accidents at flying fields in this country were reported to-day by the War Department for the week ended June 20.

He was eighteen years old and enlisted in April, 1917. An elder brother has been in France with the Canadians since 1914 and another brother, Alfred, is in the United States army.

Kaiser's Prize Troops Sent to Fight Americans

Repulse of Americans Announced by Berlin

BERLIN, June 21.—"Local French attacks, southwest of Noyon, and by Americans, northwest of Chateau Thierry, broke down," says the official statement issued here to-day. "The French and Americans suffered heavy losses and some prisoners remained in our hands."

Tells Why Kaiser Sent Prize Troops To Fight Americans

"So far as my health is concerned, I am faring well—and that is the most important thing. We again are in the front line, because the American division opposite us has achieved some success, and we, as a model division, are to make good this loss. At the present moment we are lying in reserve in some wood, where we have made dugouts and furnished them with all sorts of stuff from a nearby inn. Of course, we are getting all sorts of knocks from the enemy artillery, which, especially at night, shoots at us accurately. "Up to now everything has gone pretty well, but I hope to be relieved soon and get some rest. It one has been for more than fourteen days in this mixup, one has had more than sufficient. "For the present I am still in good spirits, and even if one does lose one's head at times, one must pull one's self together again. Better times will come and then all the thousand sorrows that now oppress us will be forgotten. I have heard with joy that no harm came to you through the acts of enemy aviators."

Rainbow Division Is Cited for Glorious Spirit in Battle

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, June 21.—American troops forming the Rainbow Division, on the completion of a hundred days' consecutive service on the front line in Lorraine, received to-day a document which will be kept by them as a valuable souvenir of the war. It is a citation by the French general testifying to the good work of the division. The citation refers a homage to "the fine military qualities which the division has continually exhibited and to
