Athletes Get Extra Week for Big War Games

Metropolitan District Unable to Hold Contests in Allotted Time

A very elaborate programme of amateur athletic activities has been mapped out for the Metropolitan district by Frederick W. Rubien, who is in charge of the amateur athletic end of the United War Work Campaign. So many requests have been received from the local athletic organizations that it would be impossible to stage all of the activities during the week of the drive. Therefore, the General Sports Committee of the United War Work Campaign has given Mr. Rubien permission to stage the overflow of activities the week following the drive. The following is a complete list of the amateur athletic activities definitely decided upon up to date:

- November 11—Amateur boxing tournament at Madison Square Garden.
- November 12—Amateur boxing tournament at Madison Square Garden.
- November 13—Amateur boxing tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Monmouth County Horse Show Draws Two Hundred Entries

RED BANK, N. J., Oct. 28.—Over 200 entries have already been received for the first exhibition of the Monmouth County Horse Show Association, to be held at Wingate Farm, Shrewsbury, next Saturday. The show is given for war relief charities and for the encouragement of horse breeding, which latter is now being strongly recommended by the government. The expenses are being put up by the association and the gross proceeds will go to war relief.

Boxing Notes

By Fred Hawthorne

The flame of a new poetic genius burns with a white glow this morning, casting a halo over the world, and the flame is named and copyrighted by Gus Troxler, one of New Jersey's most up-to-date boxing promoters. Gus guarantees the flame to burn evenly and without renewal of the batteries, and those who are not satisfied may get their money back if they want it. Mr. Troxler, in order to show the world away from the side door, conducts boxing shows in the home of the most famous poet in the world, at Camp Merritt for the benefit of the soldiers there. It was while staging one of these affairs recently that Mr. Troxler was suddenly and uncontrollably seized in the deadly grip of a poetic movement, and when he recovered consciousness, it was to find that he had given something to the world, in the shape of our first poet, called "America's Task."

"America's Task" consists of some dozen stanzas of verse, dedicated to "All America," and in it we find we feel that it is dedicated to all readers of this column. We were about to say that all loyal Americans are readers of this column, and get all back, but city leads us to make it "all readers of this column are loyal Americans."

Hence, by easy stages, Aunt Eleanor Ann, it becomes a simple task to dedicate "America's Task" to you, "than whom" of all loyal Americans. We are only going to quote one verse of Mr. Troxler's poem to-day, but that will be sufficient, we firmly believe, to give you an idea of the rest of it. Here it is:

"Shame! thrice shame! that we should have in our midst American idealists. They still have a chance from evil to refrain, For 'twill be death to those who traitors remain."

These who know Mr. Troxler say Gus puts on a fine boxing show.

Jack Dempsey, the most sued heavyweight in the history of the ring, declared yesterday that if the Milwaukee judge who tried "Barber" John Retzlaff's suit against Jack for $100,000 for breach of contract decides against him (Jack) he will retire from the ring.

If anybody sued US for $100,000 we should immediately sign up for forty weeks of service, added, at it brings money.

TRAINING NOTE. Jess Willard, world's heavyweight champion, put in a strenuous day's work to-day. He leaned over until he caught a glimpse of his feet, the first time he has accomplished this stunt since the battle with Jack Johnson at Havana, in 1915.
