

5,600 Soldiers Reach N. Y.; 9,400 Overdue

Three Transports, of 15 Expected, Bring Back Boys From French Battlefields

Aviation "Ace" Arrives

40 Wounded of "O'Ryan's Roughnecks" Home as Climax to Big Adventure

Three more transports came into port yesterday and landed 5,600 more American fighting men from overseas.

Destroyer Wilkes Saved 150 Lives And Sank U-Boat

Member of "Sims's Deep Sea Circus," Now in Drydock, Cruised 90,000 Miles in Hunt for Foe Submarines

In drydock, with the Roman, Allen, Sampson and Davis, fellow-members of "Sims's Deep Sea Circus" moored nearby.

Four Hundred Aviators Return

Stories of fighting American naval aviators stationed at Porto Corsini, in Italy, who made fifteen raids on Austrian naval bases, were told by the 400 naval passengers on the Verdi, which tied up at Pier C, at the foot of York Street, Jersey City.

While it was more than average day for the number of men landed back into the United States, the number did not come up to expectations.

Lieutenant Erwin, a concert pianist in civil life out in Chicago, where he lives, but a wildcat in the air in France, was one of the first men to dash down the gangplank of the George Washington into the cheering throngs on the pier in Hoboken.

The distinguished service cross was presented to him, the citation says, for having "by a long period of faithful and heroic operations, set an inspiring example of courage and devotion to duty to his entire squadron."

Got Poo on Birthday The Chicago flier is young and assuming almost to the point of bashfulness.

O'Ryan's Heroes of 27th Division Are Starting for Home

2d New York Field Artillery, reinforced by a part of the 14th, 12th, 106th, under Lieutenant Colonel John D. Howland, comprising the old 3d Infantry and parts of the old 1st, 71st and 74th.

General Pershing Cables to War Department That the New Yorkers Have Started Embarking Preparations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—New York's National Guard division, commanded by Major General John F. O'Ryan, who recently was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for meritorious service, will soon be home.

General Pershing to-day cabled the War Department that all organizations of the 27th Division have been instructed to prepare for embarkation.

Similar orders have been issued for the 30th and 33rd divisions, National Guard troops from Tennessee, the Carolinas, Ohio and the District of Columbia.

Bauquet of Lieut. Owens On Return From France

Police Inspectors Dwyer, Gray, Underhill and Henry, assisted by a number of subordinate officials, are arranging a reception and banquet for Lieutenant Martin S. Owens as soon as the former victor celebration committee returns from France.

Women Are Assured Industrial Rights By British Premier

LONDON, Dec. 30 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—No discrimination is to be made against women in British industry, Premier Lloyd George declares in a letter addressed to the Women's Industrial League, who had submitted to him a memorial setting forth the claims of women to freedom of employment.

Lloyd George Declares No Discrimination Will Be Made Against Sex in the Economic Readjustment

After the pledges made by the government to the trade unions have been fulfilled, wrote Mr. Lloyd George in his reply, women will find ample scope in peace pursuits. He supports the principle of "equal pay for equal output," and promises full opportunity for women in training and education.

"Millions" Check Malaria

A very small fish, known to the natives as "millions," is said to keep the island of Panchos free from malaria by eating the fever carrying mosquito in the early stages of its development.

Arizona Farmers Raise Crops in the Mountains

BLUHAHA, Ariz., Jan. 20.—Just back of the San Francisco peaks in Coconino County, Ariz., there is a productive little farming community known as Kendrick Park.

Columbia Abandons All Hockey Plans For 1919 Season

Columbia's athletic authorities reached several important decisions yesterday with reference to the conduct of minor indoor sports during the present season.

It was seen at once that these farmers were by no means "backwoodsmen," although they lived in a timber district on farms surrounded by tall pines and twenty miles from town.

It was seen at once that these farmers were by no means "backwoodsmen," although they lived in a timber district on farms surrounded by tall pines and twenty miles from town.

"Flu" Attacks Hogs

A new disease has attacked hogs in Missouri which has many points of similarity to the influenza that has been epidemic among humans throughout the country.

Ford "Eagle" Boat Declared Unsafe, Then Clever Idea

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charges of Ex-Employee of Detroit Plant Are Contradicted by Experts Before Senate Naval Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charles C. West, general manager of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding Company, who temporarily retired from that position to act as inspector of the Eagle construction for the Navy Department, and also as adviser and instructor to the Ford's in shipbuilding, told how excellent they are.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

General Pershing Cables to War Department That the New Yorkers Have Started Embarking Preparations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—New York's National Guard division, commanded by Major General John F. O'Ryan, who recently was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for meritorious service, will soon be home.

Bauquet of Lieut. Owens On Return From France

Police Inspectors Dwyer, Gray, Underhill and Henry, assisted by a number of subordinate officials, are arranging a reception and banquet for Lieutenant Martin S. Owens as soon as the former victor celebration committee returns from France.

Women Are Assured Industrial Rights By British Premier

LONDON, Dec. 30 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—No discrimination is to be made against women in British industry, Premier Lloyd George declares in a letter addressed to the Women's Industrial League, who had submitted to him a memorial setting forth the claims of women to freedom of employment.

Lloyd George Declares No Discrimination Will Be Made Against Sex in the Economic Readjustment

After the pledges made by the government to the trade unions have been fulfilled, wrote Mr. Lloyd George in his reply, women will find ample scope in peace pursuits. He supports the principle of "equal pay for equal output," and promises full opportunity for women in training and education.

"Millions" Check Malaria

A very small fish, known to the natives as "millions," is said to keep the island of Panchos free from malaria by eating the fever carrying mosquito in the early stages of its development.

Columbia Abandons All Hockey Plans For 1919 Season

Columbia's athletic authorities reached several important decisions yesterday with reference to the conduct of minor indoor sports during the present season.

"Flu" Attacks Hogs

A new disease has attacked hogs in Missouri which has many points of similarity to the influenza that has been epidemic among humans throughout the country.

Ford "Eagle" Boat Declared Unsafe, Then Clever Idea

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charges of Ex-Employee of Detroit Plant Are Contradicted by Experts Before Senate Naval Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charles C. West, general manager of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding Company, who temporarily retired from that position to act as inspector of the Eagle construction for the Navy Department, and also as adviser and instructor to the Ford's in shipbuilding, told how excellent they are.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Arizona Farmers Raise Crops in the Mountains

BLUHAHA, Ariz., Jan. 20.—Just back of the San Francisco peaks in Coconino County, Ariz., there is a productive little farming community known as Kendrick Park.

Columbia Abandons All Hockey Plans For 1919 Season

Columbia's athletic authorities reached several important decisions yesterday with reference to the conduct of minor indoor sports during the present season.

"Flu" Attacks Hogs

A new disease has attacked hogs in Missouri which has many points of similarity to the influenza that has been epidemic among humans throughout the country.

Ford "Eagle" Boat Declared Unsafe, Then Clever Idea

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charges of Ex-Employee of Detroit Plant Are Contradicted by Experts Before Senate Naval Committee

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Harry Leroy, formerly an employee of the "trouble" department of the Ford Eagle shipbuilding plant at River Rouge, Detroit, to-day told the Senate Naval Affairs Sub-Committee, investigating the Eagles, how defective the little destroyers are in his opinion.

Charles C. West, general manager of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding Company, who temporarily retired from that position to act as inspector of the Eagle construction for the Navy Department, and also as adviser and instructor to the Ford's in shipbuilding, told how excellent they are.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

Mr. Leroy also criticized the riveting which, he said, was poor because of the manner of heating the rivets electrically instead of in a furnace.

were unsuitable. It was likewise found impracticable to construct an outdoor rink on South Field, although plans for that had been drawn.

In wrestling there will be no league competitions, and as yet no matches have been arranged with any league teams. One match has been definitely scheduled with the Navy for February 15, and there will also be meets with Brown and Yale. A meet with Princeton is probable, but no definite date has been set.

In swimming there will be home and home matches with the College of the City of New York and single dual meets with Yale, Princeton and Pennsylvania. There will likewise be meets with the Navy and Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Amherst. The Navy meet will be held on February 22, but the dates for the New England matches have not been set. Water polo games will be played at all meets excepting those with M. I. T., Amherst and the Navy.

Hockey activities have been suspended for the year because it was found impossible to make satisfactory arrangements for practice or the playing of games. A committee headed by A. L. Walker investigated the situation and found that it would be impossible to practice either at Iceland or the Brooklyn Ice Palace while the outdoor rinks adjacent to the university

A new disease has attacked hogs in Missouri which has many points of similarity to the influenza that has been epidemic among humans throughout the country. From all parts of the state come reports of herds which are stricken with it and of the death of many hogs.—From The Kansas Times.

Monroe Clothes advertisement featuring a large illustration of a multi-story building and a man in a suit. Text includes 'Monroe Clothes Cost You LESS' and 'This is the day of big affairs. The biggest affair in the clothing world is—Monroe Clothes.'

Large advertisement for 'When you want' featuring the word 'HEED' in large letters and 'WANT AD in the New York Tribune' below it. Includes a phone number '3000' and 'BEEKMAN'.

Advertisement for 'Artistic Furniture' and 'Valuable Oil Paintings' located at 'Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms'. Includes details about the property and contact information.

Advertisement for 'Manhattan' and 'Bronx' clothing stores, featuring 'A Short Flight to Economy' and 'America's Largest Retail Clothiers'. Includes addresses and phone numbers.