

U. S. Sentiment Is With Greece in Its Claims, Metaxa Says

Ex-Governor of Salonica Declares His Nation Asks Only Territory Due Under Self-Determination Rule

"Most favorable indeed," is the attitude of American public sentiment toward the case of Greece, according to Dr. John N. Metaxa, former Governor of Salonica, who last night, on the eve of his departure for abroad, made public certain portions of a report dealing with the results of his mission to this country.

the union of their race, because the American citizen is essentially democratic in thought and action and has never lost sight of the fact that it was the Greek people who first established in the world the principles of democracy, which they have never ceased to uphold and defend throughout their long, unbroken history.

"In my interviews or in correspondence with such leaders of American thought as President Lowell, of Harvard; President Schurman, of Cornell; President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia; Frank A. Vanderlip, Madison Grant, Charles R. Miller, Emerson M. Ellin, Eihu Root, Cleveland H. Dodge, William Howard Taft and many others, I have been very deeply touched by their great generosity and their heartfelt sympathy in fact their love—for Greece, who, they feel, deserves a better fate, after all she has done for humanity, than having 50 per cent of her children serve in bondage under the heel of semi-barbarous races. The kindness and sympathy of American scholars and the gracious hospitality extended to me at university centers, in this country, have been memories which will ever be one of the most cherished memories of my life.

"Among the staunchest American friends of Greece may be mentioned men like Colonel Harvey and Frank Simonds, who, with profound comprehension of the political and moral issues, have expressed their appreciation of the Greek cause and their close adherence to its principles in articles of exceptional lucidity and brilliance.

"My report would be incomplete if I failed to mention the women of America, who, both in New York and in many other cities as I had the pleasure of visiting, received me in their homes with such kind and charming hospitality that I am indeed overwhelmed with gratitude.

"There are two other classes of American citizens whose great interest in the just cause of Greece and their opportunity of appreciating the numerous class of American philanthropists, whose pleasure is to study the needs of the oppressed and to promote their welfare, and who are now filled with dismay at the thought that the Greek people, after so many centuries of unjust suffering, should still continue living under the brutal oppression of a race which has never accomplished anything for the progress or the happiness of humanity. The second class includes those who are now filled with dismay at the thought that all the Near Eastern populations the Greeks have ever shown the greatest commercial initiative and ability, as opposed to the Turks, whose only achievement is to have devastated and rendered as 'No Man's Land' of some of the richest and most fertile territories in the world.

"With the claims of Greece the American public is now becoming familiar.

"Epirus—including Himara, Korymba, Kastoria, including Xanthi, Dedagach, Adrianople.

"Constantinople—either in full possession, with due guarantees for the neutralization of the straits, or with Greece as mandatory of the powers.

"Asia Minor—Smyrna and the contiguous territories, inhabited by nearly 2,000,000 Greeks.

"The islands of the Dodecanese, including Rhodes, which is inhabited exclusively by Greeks.

"If the peace conference fails to render complete justice to Greece I am sure we may still count upon leaders of American thought to retain their interest and continue their efforts on behalf of a people whose only desire is to see the liberation and unity of their race."
