Record Fashion Parade

Atlantic City Preparing For Largest Sunday Displays In Its History

White Sulphur Springs, Hot Springs, Lakewood, Atlantic City and other spring resorts report the largest crowds and the gayest times since the world war began. It is almost impossible to secure accommodations at any of these places.

The practical close of the season at the southern resorts, where only the smaller hotels and cottages now remain open, has benefited the more northern gathering places. Many of those who spent February and March in Florida are stopping on the way home at White Sulphur and Hot Springs, where golf and horseback riding are enjoyed during the day, followed by dinners and dances in the evening. The Princeton Glee Club will visit Hot Springs Saturday and the week end promises to be particularly lively. The concert will be followed by dancing. The two golf courses there are crowded all day long and riding is as popular as ever.

At Atlantic City to-day the Palm Sunday parade, second only in interest to the Easter one, will bring thousands to the boardwalk. Easter Sunday, which is the biggest day of the year at this resort, is expected to attract the largest crowd in the history of the place.

At Lakewood all the hotels and cottages are filled. Golf is in full swing. The annual three-day tournament begins this week and already a number of prominent golfers are at the resort practicing for the event.

Briarcliff Lodge, at Briarcliff Manor, will open on Saturday, April 19, and from reservations already made a big season is expected. The new golf course is in readiness and will be used for the first time on the opening of the house.

Memorial Grove for War Heroes Is Plan Of Lakewood Society

LAKWOOD, April 12.—Evidence that spring is here was apparent on every side this week when warm, bright days followed the cold spell of last week. Golfing, saddle riding and other out-of-door sports claimed most attention. The last three days of next week will be given over to the three-day golf tournament of the Lakewood Country Club and there have been a great many players here during the week practicing for the events. It was announced that an added feature will be a play for senior golfers over fifty-five years of age, Wednesday, April 23. This contest is for the Stanley Memorial Cup, which before the war formed one of the principal yearly golf features here.

Saddle riding through the woods and countryside continues popular. Among the new members of the Laurel in the Pines Riding Club out with mounts almost daily this week included Fred S. Chase, Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, Miss T. Palmer, Charles S. Thorne, E. H. Heyne, Mr. and Mrs. George Flynn and Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyer.

A movement was started this week to make a "Heroes' Grove," in honor of the Lakewood boys who gave their lives in the world conflict. For each man who died in the cause there will be a tree planted along the banks of Lake Carasajo. Mrs. Tunis G. Bergen, of Lakewood and Brooklyn, who is well known in horticultural circles in this country, is a prime mover in the Plan to form this permanent memorial to Lakewood's heroes.

For the benefit of the Paul Kimball Hospital there is being held this evening at the Laurel in the Pines a dance and entertainment, in which most of the visitors here have joined hands. Mrs. George Fales Baker and Mrs. W. W. Wilcox have the arrangements in hand. A cherry blossom party was held last Saturday evening at the Laurel House for the benefit of the same institution.

Last Wednesday marked the tenth birthday of Teddy Potts, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Potts, of Madison Avenue. Peace Prospects and Spring Combine to Give Resorters Cheer

THE GREENBRIER, WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Va., April 12.—One of the effects of coming peace is in the renewed activity of the spring resorts, following a winter of unparalleled gaiety in the South, and in vivid contrast to the serious undercurrent of the last four years. The most popular place at the Greenbrier is the Casino, where accommodations are taxed daily to provide for the large number of persons breakfasting and lunching there, while the afternoon tea dances have never been so popular and people, who play golf and tennis in the morning spend, oftentimes, the entire day there. Another feature of the spring season is the large number of cottages rented to families who enjoy the privacy thus afforded, but use the Casino and hotel as social centers.

Sunday evening more than eighty Greenbrier guests went to the new Kate's Mountain Club where dinners were served.

Mrs. John Clinton Gray, of Newport, who is at Hot Springs, following a winter's sojourn at Palm Beach, spent a couple of days at the Greenbrier with friends this week.

Albert Morris Bagby, of the Waldorf, is spending six weeks at the Greenbrier. Mrs. John Henry Lanchester, of New York and the North Shore, has come to join her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. U. Collett, who have lately arrived here from Rome.

Mrs. Michael M. Van Reuren has been rejoined by Mr. Van Reuren, who has just returned from Red Cross service in France, and Mrs. Kinney have arrived and joined Mrs. Kinney's sister, Mrs. M. S. Waite, and Miss Waite, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen S. Mannes and Miss Edith Mannes, of New York, are now here, and George E. Fahys, of Loudon Valley, Long Island, is also at the Greenbrier, where the Andrew Fletcherers have arrived from Glen Cove for their customary three weeks' stay.

John North Willys, who is still in the New York, expects to come here soon to join Mrs. Willys and Miss Virginia Willys.

Late arrivals from New York at the Greenbrier include Dr. Courney L. Taylor, who joined his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Starr, Mr. Robert Graves and her two children; Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. A. Barton Hepburn, Miss Natalie Mayer, who is with Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Davis, and George Blagden.

Mrs. Stephen Blaine Elkins, of Elkins, Va., and Washington, is at the Greenbrier with her two sons, Senator Davis Elkins, of West Virginia, and Stephen B. Elkins, of New York, also Dr. Davis, of Elkins, Va. Mr. Miss Josephine S. Harriott, Major Elton Huntington Hooker, who came here from the Everglades Club at Palm Beach; A. G. Fish, Captain and Mrs.

New Yorkers Flock To Hot Springs for The Spring Season

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE
HOT SPRINGS, Va., April 12.—Never has a more joyous spring season been known in the Virginia hills, and there is more gaiety than has been known since the war began. Riding has always been the popular sport at Virginia Hot Springs, but this year there is a strong rival in golf, and every one, old and young, wants to play, and the two courses are crowded to capacity.

Sir Mortimer and Lady Davis, who arrived to-day from Montreal, were accompanied by Mrs. Andrew A. Allan, also of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Dilworth, of New York, are here for a fortnight. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Delameter, who are here from New York, will remain until April 20.

The annual event toward which the young people are looking is the visit of the Princeton Glee Club on Saturday evening of next week, following its visit to White Sulphur on Good Friday. It will give its concert as usual in the ballroom, to be followed by a dance. The Princeton boys, in order to secure their private car last season, had to give the series of concerts for the benefit of a war charity, but this
