Leaders at the Atlantic City Convention Decide on General Conference

ATLANTIC CITY, June 15.—At a special meeting of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor, held to-night to consider the threatened strike of Canadian railway men, it was decided to call the strike committee in session in Montreal to this city for a general conference before any strike orders are issued. Meanwhile, the committee is requested to withhold approval of any strike.

A. O. Wharton, president of the department, presided at the session, and the telegram requesting attendance of the strike committee here was signed by Mr. Wharton, representing the machinists; Martin Ryan, international president of the United Railway Carriers of America; James Kline, of the blacksmiths; James P. Noonan, of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers; Louis Weyant, of the Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders,

Other Unions Plan to Join New Movement to Combine With Employers to Reduce the Strike Hazard

ATLANTIC CITY, June 15.—The heads of the several unions here are very much opposed to their members joining in the Canadian strike movement. So also is Robert Manion, of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, who is expected to join in the movement to keep Canada's trains moving. Strong language marked the conference yesterday between the committee representing the American Federation of Labor and Postmaster Burleson on the matter of the electrical workers' grievances, according to members of the committee returning here to-day.

CAMEL Cigarettes. CAMELS are as delightful to your taste as they are new. And, so satisfying that they meet every cigarette desire you ever have had. Camels are unusual; in fact, they're unlike any cigarette you ever smoked. That's because they're an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos, producing a quality that meets your taste as no other cigarette ever did. Camels expert blend gives that mellow-mild-body and frees the cigarettes from any unpleasant cigarettey aftertaste or any unpleasant cigarettey odor. You can smoke Camels as liberally as you like without tiring your taste. You have only to get personally acquainted with the expert Camel blend to know that you prefer it to either kind of tobacco smoked straight! For your own satisfaction compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price! R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO., Winston-Salem, N. C.

Local officials of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union have been in touch with groups of telephone girls here during the last week. Percy Thomas, deputy international president of the union, said yesterday. Says Sentiment Is Strong. Mr. Thomas said a strong sentiment in favor of organizing exists among the girls, and he added that it was the hope of the striking keymen that the operators might be organized here in time to make possible their use in the local strike situation, should conditions warrant. "I am going to the American Federation of Labor convention at Atlantic City early this week and lay this matter before them in order that they may determine some method of calling the case of the telegraphers to the attention of President Wilson. It seems that powerful interests are determined that the wire workers shall not organize. We believe the leading interests fighting us are the copper and steel trusts and Wall Street. They fear that the thorough organization of the wire workers would be an inspiration to all branches of labor, organized and unorganized." Mr. Thomas assured the strikers that the number of telegraphers deserting the Western Union and Postal is growing hourly. Hold Out and Have Faith. "If we hold out and have faith we need have no fear for ultimate success," he said. "The Wall Street operators should take special interest in Mr. Carlton's announcement that he is ready to supply Morse operators to all brokers and other users of leased wires. Ordinary commercial operators would be worthless on financial wires, for it takes months of experience to equip a man to operate such lines. Miss Matthews addressed a rally of striking telegraphers in Peoples' House, 7 East Fifteenth Street, yesterday afternoon. Commenting on Postmaster General Burleson's action last Saturday in giving electrical workers the right to organize and bargain collectively, Miss Matthews told the telegraphers that if the Postmaster General did not give similar recognition to them, the telephone operators would "stand shoulder to shoulder and make a fight with you people."

PARIS, June 15.—Dispatches from Rome indicate continued disturbances in the labor world in various parts of Italy. The advances state that a general strike has been begun in Milan and that there has been a similar cessation of work in Turin. The postoffice employees are demanding ameliorated conditions, and it was announced that 12,000 postoffices will be closed on June 20 in backing up the demand.

PARIS, June 15.—The printers on the large Berlin daily newspapers have gone on strike, messages from the German capital state. The men are demanding a raise in pay.

LONDON, June 15.—Riots in Liverpool and Cardiff, resulting in several deaths among whites and negroes in conflict, have continued over the week-end, and there is no indication that bitterness toward the blacks has abated. The negroes are mostly sailors who came to England in considerable numbers during the war. The anger of the people has been aroused by the fact that they try to consort with white women.

The rioting in Liverpool assumed such proportions that it was necessary for the authorities to collect all negroes in internment camps. Soldiers participated in pitched battles fought in the streets of Cardiff. The negroes were hunted like animals, their boarding houses being demolished. The negroes have come from all parts of the world, except the United States, but mainly from the British colonies in the West Indies.
