

Mrs. Wightman Defeats Miss Goss in a Thrilling Match on Courts at Philadelphia

Better Generalship Brings Victory to Boston Woman

Miss Bjurstedt, Title Holder, Wins Way Into Fourth Round by Triumph Over Mrs. Wainwright

By Fred Hawthorne PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—In a desperately contested three-set match that had a gallery of five hundred thrilled until the last point had been won, Mrs. George W. Wightman, of Boston, former national champion, defeated Miss Eleanor Goss, of the West Side Tennis Club, by a score of 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, in the third round of the singles in the women's national lawn tennis championship tournament on the turf courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Miss Goss was great in defeat to-day, conquered by superior court generalship and by one or two heart-breaking pieces of ill fortune. In the last few minutes of the struggle she gave convincing proof that she has arrived among the chosen few who were destined sooner or later to wear the laurels of a national champion. So far as execution of strokes, speed in court covering and tremendous pace were concerned, she proved herself the equal of any of our feminine stars.

Taxes Strength of Both It was only in the little niceties of judgment during the stress of battle that Mrs. Wightman shone supreme, and this must always be so, it seems, when youth faces experience. But the picture would be only half complete without telling how Mrs. Wightman rose to the next when danger threatened in the first and last sets, and of how, by sheer, steady skill she held her brilliant young opponent off, finally to win a match that taxed the strength of both to the limit. During these crises Mrs. Wightman foiled her rival with all that wizardry of court generalship that has marked her game in the past.

With Miss Goss leading at 3-1 on games in the final set and rushing through with inspiring speed to what seemed certain victory, the former national champion suddenly switched from her hard "stroking" game to a cruelly deceptive softness of stroke, that was bewildering in its effect upon the tall West Side girl. Miss Goss temporarily lost control of her terrific ground strokes, and before she could steady down again the damage had been done and victory was Mrs. Wightman's.

There is no room here to describe in detail how the points were won and lost, but I am trying to give in a general way an outline of how and why Mrs. Wightman won to-day in a match that is worthy to take its place with other classics of the courts in lawn tennis history.

At the winners in the singles to-day went into the round before the semi-final. The eight survivors will clash to-morrow represent the strength of the draw and have won their places strictly on form. These eight and the order in which they will meet are as follows:

Mrs. Wightman and Miss Anne Townsend, Mrs. Gilbert Harvey and Miss Louise Brancoff, Miss Mollie Bjurstedt and Miss Marie Wagner, and Miss Clara Cassel and Mrs. Marion Zinderstein.

A Rump for Champion Miss Bjurstedt romped through her match with Mrs. Clement Wainwright, by a score of 6-0, 6-1, content to drive out her victory from deep court, for the never found it necessary to go for the net position to finish off the shots. The playing through champion has not been forced to show her hand and so it is difficult to say just how far from her best she is to-day.

It is noticeable, however, that she is not hitting the ball as cleanly, either of the ground or overhead, as of yore and her whole game lacks the wonderful fire and dash that made it famous in former years from coast to coast. To-morrow morning, when she faces Miss Wagner, her real weakness may be unmasked, for Miss Wagner is playing at her best right now.

Miss Zinderstein simply swept her way through to triumph against Miss Eleanor Sears, winning at 6-1, 6-1. Her brilliant strokes were being reeled off beautifully and her volleying game was nothing less than impressive. Miss Cassel, who faces Miss Zinderstein to-morrow, added another victim to her list to-day by taking the measure of Miss Molly Thayer, at 6-1, 6-3.

American and French Leaders to Witness Inter-Allied Sports

PARIS, June 18.—President Wilson, General John J. Pershing, President Poincaré and Premier Clemenceau will participate in the ceremonies incident to the opening of the Inter-Allied games in the Pershing Stadium, near here, on June 22. The programme for the games shows that the athletic events will extend over two weeks. The events to be held outside of the stadium are rugby football games at Colombes Field, north of Paris; golf at La Boullie links, Versailles, and swimming in Lake St. James, Bois de Boulogne.

There will be seven events in the swimming programme. At his own request Lieutenant Norman Ross, who holds the world's championship at several distances, will be entered in all swimming events. This Pacific Coast swimmer has just arrived from America.

Kumagai Continues To Win in Brooklyn Twilight Tourney

In the moonlight tennis tournament at the Terrace Club in Flatbush, which is not being handled like a championship tournament, several matches were played long after dusk yesterday. The man who finally survives all these matches, according to the announcement sent out, will be awarded the Brooklyn championship title.

In yesterday's play Kumagai, Voshell and Anderson, three of the leaders, won their matches. Further news of the play is hard to get, as the players can hardly be distinguished while playing and the officials don't seem to know who the winners are until the next day.

The summary: Brooklyn championship, men's singles (second round)—Paul Kravay defeated J. E. Ackland, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Peter Ball, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Burroughs defeated Paul J. Martin, 6-2, 6-0, 6-1.

Third round—G. A. L. Dionne defeated Augustin Healy, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. B. Lewis defeated Hammett Norton, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Edward Collins defeated Arthur Little, 6-1, 6-0. Frederick C. Anderson defeated H. Oakley, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Dr. H. Morganthal defeated Peter, 6-1, 6-0, 6-2. Harry Sachs defeated H. R. Burroughs, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0.

Fourth round—John Kumagai defeated G. A. L. Dionne, 6-3, 6-0, 6-0. Howard Voshell defeated Allen H. Vehr, 6-2, 6-1, 6-0. Second round—Miss Zinderstein defeated Miss Hull and Kenneth Webb, 6-1, 6-1.

Dean Mathey, American Tennis Expert, Defeated

LONDON, June 18.—Dean Mathey, the American player, was put out of the running to-day in the tennis tournament now in progress at the Queen's Club. Mathey was beaten by O'Hara Wood, the crack Australian player, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-2.

In an earlier match Wood defeated another American, Cannon, by 6-1, 6-1, 6-3.

Miss Ryan, of California, defeated Miss Palmer, of England, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1, and Lieutenant Louis Graves, American, defeated Fuller of England, also in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 6-4.

20 to 1 Shot Wins Third

Little Davies put over another long shot in the third when he scored with the Gully Stable's Peasant at the luscious odds of 20 to 1. Title threatened to lose the others for five of the six furlongs, but blew up. Prece lost a lot of ground at the stretch turn, taking up Applejack II, then closed strong enough, but too late.

Enors was guilty of a particularly weak ride with Alors, the favorite. There was another in this race that will bear watching next time. This was Billy B. Hamilton never once allowed him to run a lick.

Haynes's ride on Star Realm, the odds-on favorite of the mile and seventy yards fifth, was anything but edifying. The Star Shoot, colt never was able to work up a decent exercise gallop. Either he is no racehorse or Haynes was a terrible impediment. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons saddled the winner of this race in Comme Ci. Rice had the mount and he foiled a coup d'Etatman by outriding Ambrose through the final sixteenth.

Motors and Motorists

Nearly 5,000 orphan children will enjoy an outing to-day at the Bronx Amusement Park, given by the Orphans' Day Automobile Association. This picnic idea, which was started years ago in this city, at the suggestion of W. J. Morgan, has been carried on uninterruptedly ever since, to the great delight of the children, for many of whom it is the one big day of the year. The cars and trucks in which the children will be taken to the park will assemble early this morning in Central Park and will parade through a section of Automobile Row under direction of C. H. Larson as marshal.

William S. Silver, who is in charge of the outing, despaired of getting cars enough until the Ambulance and Motor Corps of the Red Cross came to the rescue. The Red Cross will carry about 1,000 children. Several hundred will be carried by the Women's Motor Corps.

At the park Frank G. Carrie, president of the association, has arranged a big programme of amusements. The Mirror Candy Company has given ice cream and the Velvona-Marchionni and Consolidated Wafer concerns the cones. Borden's donated the milk and the Mono-Service Company the drinking cups. The City Municipal Band will furnish music.

There will be a meeting at noon to-day at the Automobile Dealers' Association, 1845 Broadway, at which the dealers will vote on the membership classifications into which the association is to be divided. Since the opening of the new quarters there have been so many applications for membership that the association is growing very rapidly. There will be classifications for dealers in automobiles, accessories, men, salesmen, service men and others allied with the industry.

Harry T. Gardner, the new secretary, has completed more than a month in charge of the association, with decidedly satisfactory results.

Saw Dario Resta yesterday and asked him just what was the "mystery car" he drove at Sheephead Bay last Saturday. Resta explained it was an automobile made entirely by his own design and assembled by him at his home in Pelham. He intended to build the Resta car for the American market, but conditions didn't point favorably. So now he has given up the idea for the time being and has taken on the American representation of the Sunbeam car, a British marque. He expects to have some cars over here next month.

Incidentally, Resta, currently supposed to be an Italian, isn't. At least he speaks English with a true British accent. His greatest racing performance were made in England on the Brooklands track and he knows Sunbeam cars through and through. C. E. T. S.

Harvard First Crew Extended By Cub Eight

RED TOP, Conn., June 18.—All the Harvard crews were on the river this forenoon under the close attention of Coach Haines. He first took the second varsity eight and coached it in starts. Then he had the freshman and varsity boats together for one minute rows with attention to the blade work of different men.

Haines wound up this drill with a half-mile brush, in which the varsity beat the freshmen by a few feet. The time was 2:42. Later the coach gave additional attention to the freshman eight. The shortened course will be four miles, less 150 feet.

Yearling Rowers Lose Half-mile Brush on Thames by Margin of a Few Feet

GRADUATE RACE TO-DAY GALES FERRY, Conn., June 18.—A group of former Yale oarsmen in the launch with Coach Abbott this afternoon watched the Yale varsity crew row a half-mile on the Thames. A thirty-two stroke was used, and the time was 2:24. The coach and his guests warmly praised the rowing form displayed by the crew.

The second varsity and the freshmen raced from the culvert to the start of the course, the first-year men losing by a quarter length. It was announced that a graduate gentlemen's eight-oared race will be staged late to-morrow between Yale and Harvard over a half-mile course. The Yale shell will be boated as follows:

Bow, W. A. Harriman, 1913; No. 2, H. L. Whitney, 1905; No. 3, Cord Meyer, 1917; No. 4, Jim Sheldon, 1917; No. 5, Warren Oakes, 1916; No. 6, John Fitzpatrick, 1917; No. 7, Seth Low, 1916; stroke, A. R. Hyatt, 1918; coxswain, B. F. Oliver.

New York Cricketers Win

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—The cricket team representing New York won its second straight game in the championship Halifax Cup series against the Frankford Cricket Club at Haverford to-day by a margin of 44 runs. The score was 178 to 134.

New York will play the Merion Cricket Club to-morrow.

Fox Hills Tourney Starts

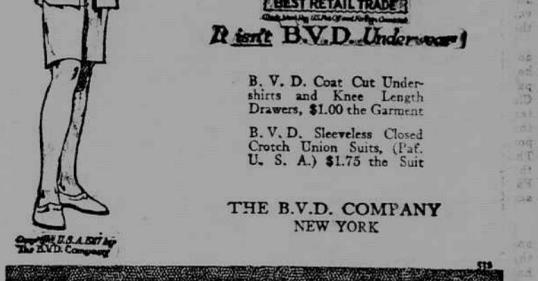

An old-time field will be on hand for the Fox Hills Golf Club invitation tournament, which begins with a qualifying round to-day, close to 100 entries having been received. A. F. Kammer, the Baltusrol player who won the Fox Hills tournament the last time it was decided in 1916, will be on hand, as well as A. L. Walker, jr., winner of the medal in the qualifying round three years ago.

Your Troubles Never Happen in a Hot Spot Chalmers

A STRANGER wrote the other day he had taken his Hot Spot Chalmers to a garage for the first time since he bought it—and he had run it 22,121 miles! "It didn't need a thing except one three-minute adjustment," he added.

We get many letters like this; and we assign the lack of trouble in a Chalmers largely to Hot Spot and Ram's-horn.

Hot Spot "cracks up" the raw gas, converts it into a fine vapor that offers excellent combustion qualities.

Ram's-horn rushes it with a rapidity that is lightning-like to the cylinders, and when the spark plugs perform their function—you get power results beyond belief.

Not only power, but an amazing freedom from engine knocks, overheated engine, nerve-wracking vibration, uncomfortable friction.

Many cars of today, still equipped with old-fashioned engines, permit raw gas to descend past the pistons into the crank case; and then follows trouble in more ways than one.

In this heavy-fuel-burning Chalmers of today your troubles never happen.

Come see this Chalmers which so many persons now credit with being one of the few great cars of the world.
