Valor Captures Handicap; Syosset First in Chase

Martin's Five-Year-Old Horse, Cleverly Ridden by Callahan, Wins Hanover From Thunderstorm; Mrs. Whitney's Jumper Takes Bayside Event

By W. J. Macbeth
William Martin's Valor, cleverly ridden by Jockey J. Callahan, won the Hanover Handicap, the feature event of the flat racing at Aqueduct yesterday afternoon.

Valor sprinted the mile in 1:37.5, remarkable time, in view of the fact that he had to face a stiff breeze throughout the long stretch.

Valor and Thunderstorm, which commanded the play in this event, broke first, though Ensore, with Thunderstorm, was quickest to get under full way and in the first fifty yards pulled out to a lead of almost a length.

Around the bend Valor began to draw away and, taking the rail, gained an advantage of several lengths.

Callahan picked the best footing for his mount and held the race safely all the way in. Thunderstorm, which dropped back a bit at the stretch turn, had a fight on his hands for a time with African Arrow, but raced this one into the mud and saved the place in commanding fashion.

Mrs. Payne Whitney's Syosset, the favorite, won the Bayside Sling Steeplechase, with 1:30 added. Powers laid off the early pace for the first turn of the field. He made his move on the far side of the field and stepped out to a lead of several lengths.

J. E. Widener's Skibbereen, which had ten pounds off because Hanna, his rider, had never handled a winner, might have won with a stronger ride, but he finished out resolutely enough. Reddest bolted across the course just before the next to last jump and lost a good chance for the place.

The Kentucky Stable's Right Angle was the very best of good things for the six furlongs opener. Because of a bad start it had to be fifty yards behind at the start. Fator took a chance on coming through the bunch and got away with it.

Jockey E. Sande, who was suspended for sixty days for rough riding in Kentucky, is here in the East, and in strict training for the day when he will be again eligible to ride.

Iry was about fifty pounds better than anything else in the fifth, but little Vida rode him in by way of J. J. Martin, and was lucky to finish in the middle. The stall was cut loose and beat the heavily plucked Ting-a-Ling for the big money.

Prince Aspe, of Denmark, the guest of Andrew Miller during the fifth race, acted as honorary steward in the fifth race.

The Young Cavalier, belonging to H. T. Zarnad, felled forty coup in the morning and this one was very heavily backed, there was also a very strong play on Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons' Leading Star, which had been showing to great advantage in morning workouts but which ran indifferently in real competition.

Leading Star threatened for a time to make a runaway through the mile, but the Young Cavalier followed the pace grimly, and succeeded in getting up about the final sixteenth. The favorite outgained Leading Star right at the end and won by a scant head.

Harry U. Homan, for many years clerk of the scales and one of the best officials of the metropolitan turf, died yesterday morning from a stroke of paralysis.

Dartmouth Retains Tresreau
HANOVER, N. H., June 25.—Melville H. Merritt, of Middleton, Mass., left Hanover and picked up the captaincy of the Dartmouth baseball team today. The signing of Jeff Tresreau as baseball coach for a two-year period was announced.

Jay Anderson Meets Defeat on the Courts

Her, After Playing Indoor Champion to Standstill, Defaults; Taylor a Victor

FOR years the Aqueduct racetrack has been the most popular of all the metropolitan courses for turf enthusiasts of New York. And with good reason, one may take from the result of the competitions the first three days of the current summer meeting.

The only upset of the day occurred in the fifth event, at a mile and a sixteenth, when Ballast, at 12 to 1, beat Loftus and the favorite, Ting-a-Ling, though the latter barely lasted to make good an advantageous start and an early commanding lead.

Griffin Defeated in English Tennis; Washburn Victor

WIMBLEDON, England, June 25.—Clarence J. Griffin, the California tennis star, was defeated by R. V. Thomas, of England, in the continuation of the championship matches on the courts here to-day. The score was 6-7, 6-4, 7-5, 7-5. Lieutenant Griffin, of the United States, and Smith Bingham, of England, 6-2, 6-4, 6-1.

Willis Davis, California, defeated Teal, England, 6-0, 6-7, 6-4, 6-0; W. M. Washburn, United States, won from Aitken, South Africa, 8-6, 6-8, 6-0, 6-0; and Cannon, United States, beat Henry, England, 7-5, 6-1, 1-6, 6-1. C. Garland, United States, had a bye.

In the doubles A. W. Gore and R. Barrett, of England, beat A. M. Lovibond and an Amateur, of the United States, 6-8, 8-6, 6-1, 6-3.

In the other doubles match Garland and Cannon, United States, beat White and Oakley, England, 8-6, 6-0, 10-8, 6-3.

Boxing Show at Camp Upton
Brigadier General Nicholson and his entire staff, with four thousand others stationed at Camp Upton, last night enjoyed a boxing carnival in the K. O. Club building. A dozen four-round bouts and a wrestling match made up the programme.

American Qualify for Finals of Inter-Allied Track Events

PERSHING STADIUM, Jolietville-Point, Paris, June 24.—American athletes here today held their own in the preliminary heats of the 100-metre and 1,500-metre runs in the inter-Allied track and field championships here today.

American wrestlers lost their first two bouts in the four-man bouts. American was thrown by Daly, New Zealand, 20 seconds. Polk, American, wrestled Coles, of Belgium, to a standstill, and a counter period of time was stopped, and an extra period ordered by the referee. Coles then threw Polk with a rolling fall.

Bobby Jones Forced To Play Shot From Shoe in Wheelbarrow

NEW ORLEANS, June 25.—Bobby Jones, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., Southern golf champion, executed what was regarded as perhaps the most peculiar shot in golf, history after he teed off with J. C. Lyons, of New Orleans, in the first round of match play in the Southern Golf Association tournament here to-day.

Jones' ball landed in a shoe which had been left in a wheelbarrow by a workman, forcing the champion to use a "niblick" to hole out and halve the hole in four.

Medallist Has Easy Time for "Met" Laurels

Peter Harmon, the Scottish-American representative, who won the qualifying medal on the first day, captured the junior championship title of the Metropolitan Golf Association over the Sivanoy links yesterday.

Harmon, who gets a long ball, was marked in his match with Bomann. An instance of this was at the first, where his drive stopped at the edge of the hole, just short of the green. They halved that hole in 4, and the next Harmon again hit a "screamer" and won in 4 to 5. He sliced his tee shot at the eighth hole, but managed to get a half there when Bomann missed a short putt. Three putts at the fourth cost Harmon a 6, but despite that he won the hole after his opponent got trapped and took 7.

Beekman Beats State Champion in Tennis Tilt

THROCKMORTON GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT AT 6-4, 9-7; BENNETT LOSES TO KASHIO

By Fred Hawthorne
The great surprise of the Middle States championship lawn tennis tournament on the turf courts of the Orangetown Club, at Mountain Station, N. J., yesterday evening was the defeat of Harold A. Throckmorton, New Jersey State champion, by Leonard Beekman, of Princeton University, with a score of 6-4, 9-7, in the fourth round of the men's singles.

It is a peculiar thing about Throckmorton that, although he has generally been rated above Beekman in the ranking lists and has consistently defeated men who have, in turn, taken the measure of Beekman, the latter in almost every meeting has defeated Throckmorton.

The other feature was the advancement of Seichiro Kashio, the steady-driving Japanese, into the semi-final round, through his defeat of Robert P. Bennett, the club champion, by a score of 6-3, 6-2.

Kashio, placing his soft drives and still softer volleying shots with astonishing accuracy, scored against Bennett without a great deal of trouble.

The women's championship singles were started in the afternoon, with Miss Mary Wagner, New York State champion, defeating Miss Ingo Hartman and Mrs. David C. Mills, the club champion.

Wagner eliminated Mrs. K. Brunson at 6-1, 6-0, and then defeated Mrs. Miller at 6-1, 6-3. Mrs. Mills overcame Mrs. Edward Oehler at 6-1, 6-0, and then defeated Mrs. Bailey at 6-3, 6-1. Mrs. Hartman defeated Miss Jessie Gott at 7-5, 4-0, 6-0, and obtained a defeat from Miss Bessie Holden in the second round.

The summer tennis season at the Middle States championship men's singles (third round)—Edward Oehler defeated Hartman, 6-3, 6-1, 6-4.

Fourth round—Dr. William Rosenberg defeated Dr. Oehler, 7-5, 6-1. Leonard Beekman defeated Harold A. Throckmorton, 6-4, 9-7. Robert P. Bennett defeated Auguste Roche, 6-3, 6-2.

Fifth round—Seichiro Kashio defeated Robert P. Bennett, 6-3, 6-2. Kashio defeated G. S. Groves, 6-3, 6-2. Kashio defeated G. S. Groves, 6-3, 6-2. Kashio defeated G. S. Groves, 6-3, 6-2.

Cocchi Accusation of Wife Causes Halt in Trial Until Fall

BOLOGNA, June 25.—The trial of Alfred Cocchi, charged with the murder of Ruth Cruger in New York in 1917, has been interrupted for an indefinite period to enable the court to examine the evidence given by Mrs. Cocchi to the American authorities.

There was a spirited exchange between Signor Bagnoli, president of the court, and Cocchi yesterday over the latter's change of attitude toward the crime, in which the court spoke vehemently in favor of the body and in the evening incidents narrated apparently in fiction made by Cocchi and the findings of American tribunals.

Cocchi told of having saved the body of Miss Cruger so that he might hide it. Then he broke down, crying in a broken voice, "I took the body and hid it to conceal it in the cellar, but the door was not large enough and I saw the body in two. The girl was dead."

The trial was a discussion between Signor Bagnoli as to whether the girl was dead or not before her body was dismembered. The whole courtroom was agitated at the prisoner's narration.

Signor Venturini, attorney for Cocchi, said he had received a letter from J. J. Lynch, Municipal Building, New York, containing sensational allegations concerning the death of Miss Cruger. The attorney said he would present the letter in evidence.

Judge Bagnoli, the president of the court, gave this explanation of the postponement of the trial: "We were afraid the trial would be prejudiced by Cocchi and his charges against his wife had influenced the jury, which would be somewhat affected by this development. We will wait a transcript of the evidence in the wife's case. We expect to continue the trial before October at the latest."

May Go to Italy to Refute Cocchi Story
Assistant District Attorney Alfred J. Talley, of this city, may go to Bologna, Italy, in an effort to disprove the latest statements of Alfred Cocchi, on trial here for the murder of Ruth Cruger in 1917. Cocchi now declares that his wife killed the girl. Mrs. Cocchi is said to be living in New York City, although whether the police nor the District Attorney's office know her exact whereabouts.

Cocchi's recent statements charging that his wife killed Ruth Cruger and that she confessed to the murder in order to shield her are ridiculous and preposterous, said Mr. Talley.

Cocchi's guilt has been established without the shadow of a doubt and if we are definitely informed that the adjournment of his trial was due to an error placed by the Italian officials in his latest story, it is probable that I will go to Italy to refute the charges. The authorities the evidence we have disproving this yarn. I'll probably go as a witness, if in no other way.

Motors and Motorists
The first round to decide the golf championship of the Automobile Dealers' Association will be played at the Metropolitan Golf Club, at Mountain Station, N. J., on Sunday. After the first round next Tuesday individual matches may be played on any course the contestants may choose.

One of the features of the recent inter-city match between the New York Athletic Club and the Chicago Athletic Association, held over the mountains of New England, was the performance of the Biddle car, piloted by Walter H. Nowell, of the Biddle Sales Corporation, at 200 West Fifty-fifth Street. The Biddle car was offered to F. J. Wagner to use as official car on the run. The car used was a Rosemont model, carrying four people, including Mr. Wagner, the official starter, and James C. Nichols, chief checker.

The Biddle was the last car to leave the control, ten minutes after the last contestant had checked out, and was compelled to pass all contestants in order to arrive at the next control station in time to check in all contestants. The Biddle had no trouble in maintaining an average of thirty-three miles an hour for 209 miles the first day and 239 miles the second day, with a perfect score, averaging 19.5 miles a gallon, and no tire trouble.

John Lurie, a figure on New York's automobile row ever since the accession of himself to the position of chief control, ten minutes after the last contestant had checked out, and was compelled to pass all contestants in order to arrive at the next control station in time to check in all contestants. The Biddle had no trouble in maintaining an average of thirty-three miles an hour for 209 miles the first day and 239 miles the second day, with a perfect score, averaging 19.5 miles a gallon, and no tire trouble.

It is a general sporting goods and hardware business, with automobile accessories, especially clothing, featured. The combination of sporting goods, automobile accessories and hardware makes a line appropriate to be carried in the one shop. I believe there are accomplices to the crime here in this country now. Williams and Tilden Among Net Survivors
WILMINGTON, Del., June 25.—Eight players, including all the favorites, remained in the men's singles of the lawn tennis tournament, held on the clay courts of his club, at 238th Street and Broadway. The youth reached the semi-final round by winning two matches during the day and is now favored to win the trophy.

In the fourth round Le Gros vanquished Tom Moore at 6-3, 6-7, 5-7, after a terrific uphill struggle, with Moore leading at 4-0 on games and needing only one point, at 5-3, for the match. Le Gros staged a great comeback, however, and won the last four games in a row. In the fifth round he had another stirring struggle with M. Adelman, winning at 8-6, 9-7, in a match in which he pitted his spectacular net game against the steadfast play on the part of Adelman.

Jerry Lange defeated B. Andau at 6-0, 6-4, and N. Dawson eliminated A. V. Caywood at 6-3, 6-1, in other fourth round matches.

Princeton Golfers Win; Best Score by Walker
PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—The Princeton University squad won the team golf championship of the Intercollegiate Association to-day over the course of the Merion Cricket Club, with a score of 1,355 for the seventy-two holes of medal play. Harvard and Yale tied for second place, each with a total of 1,386 to 1,387 for Yale. Penn was fourth with 1,410, Columbia fifth with 1,489, and Williams last with 1,512.

A. L. Walker, Jr., of Columbia University, runner-up in the recent Metropolitan championship, had the low score for the seventy-two holes with a total of 320.
