Prize Winners for the Best News Items, Offer of June 8

Five of the ten prize winners agreed on the Boy Scout item appearing in The Tribune for June 8 as the piece of news most interesting to them. This was the story headed "This Is Boy Scout Week, With a Million to Raise." The names of these prize winners are: Romer Terry, Mount Vernon, N. Y.; Joseph T. Pender, Scranton, Penn.; Edna Irish, East Orange, N. J.; Allan Ellis, Crasskill, N. J., and Lucy R. Ferris, Princeton, N. J.

Two very good selections sent in by Julia Wise, Schenectady, N. Y., and Dorothy Van Buskirk, Paterson, N. J., were the news items on a playground as a "Mitchel Memorial," which appeared June 8. Edward S. Guest, Winsted, Conn., and Richard Breithut, New York City, agreed on the item appearing June 8 on "The Tube to France"; and two others, Julius Millar, New York City, and Milton Feist, Mount Vernon, N. Y., sent the item headed "Navy Dirigible May Try Flight Across Pacific."

These contestants are awarded the $1 prize, with the Children's Tribune Button, and to others who sent interesting items the button has been forwarded as honorable mention.
