Methot True Economy At Its Best

Ostrich feathers are more susceptible to re-modeling and re-dyeing than any other part of woman's attire. The METHOT WAY of reconstructing discarded feathers restores them to their original beauty and usefulness.

It is the pleasant way to TRUE ECONOMY. It is amazing what METHOT produces from discarded feathers—things that years ago were thought impossible.

Ostrich Fans, Fancies and Dress Trimmings, made from our OLD feathers at a great saving. Prompt Mail Service.

Miss Rachel Littleton's Engagement Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Littleton, of Plandome, L. I., and this city, yesterday formally announced the engagement of Mr. Littleton's half-sister, Miss Rachel Littleton, to Cornelius Vanderbilt jr., son of Brigadier General and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. That Miss Littleton and Mr. Vanderbilt were engaged has been known for nearly a month, but no announcement from the family was made until yesterday. The wedding will take place in the spring. Miss Littleton is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Littleton, of Chattanooga, Tenn. Since the death of her parents she has lived most of the time with Mr. and Mrs. Littleton at Plandome and in New York. She is a graduate of the Finch School in this city.

Mr. Vanderbilt was in the war as a private, preferring to serve in this capacity, although he had every opportunity to enter an officers' training school. He went overseas in 1918 and was attached to the headquarters detachment. After receiving his discharge from the army he joined the staff of "The New York Herald." He

 WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Nov. 8.—When Halloween pranks rang down the curtain upon October gaieties at White Sulphur Springs still another active month was started, as November has come to rank with May as a favorite month with society in the "mi-saison" between the closing of the summer house and the opening of the horse and opera show, when every one takes a little time to repair the ravages of a busy summer and store up energy for the winter.

November finds an important colony at White Sulphur Springs of society folk who have migrated here from Newport and other resorts. Mrs. Vanderbilt is here and will remain until late in the month. Mrs. James Brown Potter will spend a month here. Mrs. Campbell Stewart of Goshen, and her daughter, Miss Katharine Stewart, arrived to be here a few days with Mrs. Stewart's brother, Governor R. Livingston Beekman of Rhode Island, before his departure for Providence with Mrs. Beekman, November 2.
