Novel Costumes To Be Seen at Blue Bird Ball

Society Will Be Out in Force at Brilliant Affair Friday Night at the Waldorf-Astoria to Raise Fund for the Happiness Campaign in New York City

The blue bird ball at the Waldorf-Astoria Friday evening will be one of the most picturesque affairs of the season and a most novel prelude to "L'Oiseau Bleu," which will have its première at the Metropolitan Opera House on Saturday night.

A newly planned dance that promises to be one of the most attractive of the year and will have the title of Mid-Winter Ball, for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary of Union Settlement, is just announced.

The boxholders include Mrs. Davison, Mrs. W. E. Griswold, Mrs. John Henry Hammond, Mrs. Edward S. Harkness, Mrs. Walter James, Mrs. Walter Jennings and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee.

A Christmas party will be given at the Free Industrial School for Crippled Children, 47 West Fifty-seventh Street, on Christmas Eve, Colonel Walter Scott is president.

The special committee of the Blue Bird Campaign for Happiness, which will take an active part in the arrangements for the ball and the opera, includes the Hon. Mrs. Alfred Anderson, Mrs. Henry Clews, Mrs. Harry H. Duryea, Mrs. James W. Gerard, Mrs. Ogden Goeltz, Mrs. Work Hewitt, Mrs. M. Lawrence Keene, Mrs. Reginald Koven, Mrs. Pierre Mail, Mrs. Walter E. Vanderbilt jr. at the ball, where, among the many attractions, will be the bird costumes at the ball. Tickets are on sale at the Waldorf-Astoria and at the Carry-on Tea Room, 587 Fifth Avenue, where a bureau of information for the Blue Bird Campaign has been established.

A concert has been arranged for early in the New Year in aid of Stony Wood Sanitarium. It will be given Sunday evening, and, like the concert given for its benefit last year, when Galli-Curci sang, there will be a brilliant array of stars, including Mischa Elman, John Charles Thomas, tenor, and a new symphony orchestra under the direction of Bodansky.

This affair will be as notable in a social way as from a musical standpoint, and in order to interest her friends in it Mrs. Philip Jenkins gave a tea at her home, 27 West Fifteenth Street, last Wednesday.
