Charity Ball Attracts Attention of Society

Lawrence S. Butler Chosen Floor Chairman for Gala February Event; "The Runaway Girl" To Be Reproduced Soon

The time-honored Charity Ball, which since it was first held in 1837, in the old Academy of Music, on Fourteenth Street and Irving Place, for the benefit of "The Nursery for the Children of Poor Women," now known as the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital, seems to have a stronger hold on society as the years go by.

For as these pass, new names, always among the most prominent in the fashionable world, are added to its list of managers and those interested in its success. Mrs. Charles B. Alexander is president of the committee which is arranging the ball for February 3 and which, as usual, will take place at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Mr. Butler is Chairman
Mrs. Alexander has secured the services of Lawrence S. Butler as chairman of the floor committee. Associated with Mrs. Alexander on the committee are Mrs. Frank S. The monthly meeting of the Free Industrial School for Crippled Children, 171 West 125th Street, in the Lulu Thorley Lyons Home, Crippled and Delicate Children, Claverack, N. Y., will be held at the school on Tuesday morning, at 11 o'clock. The president, Colonel Scott, will be unable to be present owing to an important business engagement in the west, but a full attendance of the other officers and members is expected. The school has accomplished wonders during the twenty years of its existence. Funds are needed to complete the improvements and repairs begun in 1918, so that the children can be kept in the country during the early fall as well as through the hot summer months after the city school closes.

Only one or two boxes and a very few seats remain unsold for Stony Wold's big concert at the Hippodrome tonight, when Missa Elton, Mrs. Charles Thomas and the new Symphony Orchestra will appear. The demand to help this well-known charity has exceeded even that of last year. Mrs. James E. Newcomb came from New York yesterday from her mid-winter visit to Stony Wold.

Many attractions are offered at the Carry-On Tea Room, 537 Fifth Avenue for the entertainment of its guests. Mrs. Maurice will appear there to-morrow from 4 until 6 o'clock and will form a feature of the program for an indefinite period. The proceeds will go to the completion of the College Building Fund. The president of the association is Mrs. Nora C. Broonan. Mrs. P. J. Cuskey is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Palm Beach Hotels Fill; Presage Record Season

John D. Rockefeller Jr. Arrives at the Florida Resort for the First Time in Eighteen Years

PALM BEACH, Fla., Jan. 3.—For the first time in its history Palm Beach has been crowded with visitors during the holidays. This was due to the opening of The Breakers a week earlier than is customary. Instead of passing Christmas and New Year's in Gotham, many families have gathered in Palm Beach. Although several inches of snow is considered essential as a setting for the New Year, the welcoming of 1920 amid palms and sunshine caused no regrets here.

Indications point to a record breaking season. All the villas are rented and the hotels are well booked. Such incidents of the season as the annual tennis tournament, which is the occasion of social festivities covering a week, and the annual balls at the Poinciana and Breakers hotels again will be the chief winter events.

John D. Rockefeller jr. joined the early guests at The Breakers for a brief vacation. He arrived here with his young daughter from Ormond, where his father has spent several winters golfing. This is the first time in eighteen years that Mr. Rockefeller has enjoyed Palm Beach life.

Among New Yorkers arranging for an early arrival at The Breakers are Colonel and Mrs. William Boyce Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Delaford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Horace Harding, Miss Lynn Curtis, Eugene O'Neill, John F. Harris, John H. McCullough, P. K. Russell and William C. Van Antwerp.

Dr. G. G. Shelton, of Ridgefield, Conn., for years private physician to Henry M. Flagler, cruised South aboard his palatial yacht, Reite II. He is bound for Fort Myers, on the Gulf Coast, to spend the winter.

Miss Barbara Sheffield has returned to New York, after passing the holidays with Miss Neva Gruber, at West Palm Beach.

George L. Carnegie entertained Harry T. Benedict and Sydney Colgate at The Breakers New Year's Eve. E. L. Arnold, of New York, is registered at The Breakers, after spending several days with George A. Newman, of Freeport, L. I., who has a cottage near the ocean. Mrs. Samuel Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomas are also here.

This week was "Home Week" at The Breakers. The guests here for the holiday and remaining over the week-end at the Laurel-in-the-Pines include Mr. and Mrs. George S. Laird, Mrs. H. I. Kimball, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grant White, E. R. Strong and Miss Strong, Mrs. James Talcott, Mrs. R. Roswell Bates and children, Ingalls Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marsh, Mrs. S. H. Tye Jr., Mrs. Homer Wakefield, Mrs. H. H. Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wade and family, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Irwin, Mrs. H. R. Biguelin, Miss Virginia Biguelin, Miss Nancy Humstone and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, of New York.

At the Virginia—Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Rose, Miss John Stone and Mrs. Harriet Eaton, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Florence-in-the-Pines—Mr. and Mrs. Irving Fisher and Mrs. P. Harrison.

At the Monterey—Arthur Freund, Miss E. Freund, Miss Rose Tisch, Miss Ruth Smith and Miss E. Rogers, of New York.

At the Manhattan—Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hyland and Dr. A. J. Neulinger, of New York.

Big Ice Carnival At Lakewood Waits On Cold Weather

Winter Colony Is All Ready for Program of Outdoor Sports; Double Holiday Ends With Formal Balls

LAKEWOOD, Jan. 3.—Dances this evening at the Laurel-in-the-Pines and Laurel House are the final numbers on the resort's holiday entertainment program. The last week has been a notable one. Never was there such a crowd of Christmas and New Year sojourners as this winter. If anything, the crowd for New Year's was larger than that for Christmas. A New Year's Eve ball at the Laurel House and a New Year's Day ball at the Laurel-in-the-Pines were social features, and a handicap at the country club and a New Year's special trap shooting tournament at the traps of the Laurel House Gun Club were sporting features.

A continuation of the cool weather has started plans for a big ice carnival for the middle of this month. The lakes already have been illuminated with powerful arc lamps, and all that remains to be had is real winter weather for the coming two weeks.

The new moon has given impetus to the ice sports. Every night the lake is filled with skaters. Last evening Mrs. Laurel-in-the-Pines Skating Club held a moonlight skating party, in which was invited a number of friends for New Year's. Guests included Mrs. Henry Hatch, Henry Hatch Jr., Miss Millicent Hatch, Major Leslie Snow and Lieutenant H. A. E. Labrock.

Supreme Court Judge Eugene Phillips, of New York, is at the Laurel House. John Phillips came for New Year's, but is lengthening his sojourn for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Riedel and daughter, of New York, and Carlos Austin, of Mexico City, are at the Laurel-in-the-Pines, as is Commissioner Grover C. Whitely, of New York. Miss Fifi Widener, of Philadelphia, arrived this week to spend the rest of the winter at the Laurel-in-the-Pines. Mr. and Mrs. George Widener expect to spend the week ends here with their daughter.

One of the New Year's parties at the Laurel-in-the-Pines was that formed by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison K. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Henschel and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Kerr, of New York.

At the Lakewood Hotels
Others here for the holiday and remaining over the week-end at the Laurel-in-the-Pines include Mr. and Mrs. George S. Laird, Mrs. H. I. Kimball, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Grant White, E. R. Strong and Miss Strong, Mrs. James Talcott, Mrs. R. Roswell Bates and children, Ingalls Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marsh, Mrs. S. H. Tye Jr., Mrs. Homer Wakefield, Mrs. H. H. Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wade and family, Mr. and Mrs. John V. Irwin, Mrs. H. R. Biguelin, Miss Virginia Biguelin, Miss Nancy Humstone and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, of New York.

At the Virginia—Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Rose, Miss John Stone and Mrs. Harriet Eaton, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Florence-in-the-Pines—Mr. and Mrs. Irving Fisher and Mrs. P. Harrison.

At the Monterey—Arthur Freund, Miss E. Freund, Miss Rose Tisch, Miss Ruth Smith and Miss E. Rogers, of New York.

At the Manhattan—Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hyland and Dr. A. J. Neulinger, of New York.

Week of Skating Enjoyed by Guests At White Sulphur

New Year Is Ushered in by Crisp Cold Weather and Visitors Revel in Outdoor Sports

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Jan. 3.—The skating has attracted numbers of sport lovers from the Greenbrier every afternoon this week. A hockey game was enjoyed by many of the guests.

Among the parties and other celebrations that took place here for New Year's the one that radiated true holiday spirit was that given by the White Sulphur Springs Company, Inc. for the negro employees in their dining room in the Greenbrier. It was given New Year's evening. An orchestra from Charleston, W. Va., was engaged for the occasion and the real jazz tunes attracted all on the floor to join in the dancing. In the adjoining room, where the refreshments were served, was a large lighted Christmas tree. Long tables were spread with delicious Virginia ham, sandwiches of all descriptions, salads and coffee and ice cream. After supper the dancing was resumed and lasted well into the night.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Smith, of Jersey City, who arrived to spend the holidays here, entertained at a Christmas party at their suite at the Greenbrier. The good old fashion was observed, and every guest received a stocking filled with candy and many other Christmas sweets. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schermerhorn and Miss Natalie Young Smith, who were here for the holidays, were among the guests.

Joining the honeymoon colony last week were Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Anderson, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Francis, of Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Christie, of Paris are spending some time here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Budd, of New York, are at the Greenbrier for a visit of a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Huey and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Windrim, of Philadelphia, are among the week's arrivals.

Mrs. A. T. Simonds and her sons, Robert and Daniel, of Wheelburg, Mass., arrived to spend the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Marshall and their little son, of New York, are at the Greenbrier. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Dismukes, of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Hines, of Fort Monroe, Va.; Major and Mrs. William Wilson Jr., of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickey are among those who arrived here last week.

Contributing his views on the labor question to a Japanese women's magazine, Mrs. Tanaka says that if such a system were inaugurated the laborer would not ignore human instincts and feelings should be established throughout the world, in the opinion of Mrs. Ko-Ko Tanaka, woman adviser to the Japanese labor delegation in the international labor conference at Washington.

Mrs. Tanaka believes that union recognition should be granted by the Japanese government and that the union idea should, in due course, be extended to woman labor in Japan.

Japanese Woman Urges Labor and Capital Unite

Mrs. Ko-Ko Tanaka Says Plant Co-operation Should Extend Around the World

TOKIO, Dec. 8.—A cooperative organization of capital and labor which would not ignore human instincts and feelings should be established throughout the world, in the opinion of Mrs. Ko-Ko Tanaka, woman adviser to the Japanese labor delegation in the international labor conference at Washington.

Mrs. Tanaka believes that union recognition should be granted by the Japanese government and that the union idea should, in due course, be extended to woman labor in Japan.

Atlantic City Starts New Year Gayly, but Dry

Pocket Flasks Are Only Relief to Thirsts as Boardwalk Is Thronged for Annual Holiday; New Rolling Chair War Opened in Jersey Resort

ATLANTIC CITY, Jan. 3.—Dancing in great demand throughout Atlantic City when the big holiday crowd started to celebrate the arrival of the New Year. All the pier ballrooms were crowded with masked reviewers at the semi-public functions, and scores of hotel hops and balls attracted throngs from the hotel and cottage colonies. Before midnight the crowds of dancers had overflowed the usual dancing quarters, and at the Shelburne, the Alamac, the Breakers, the Ambassador, the Traymore and other smart beach-front houses the dining rooms and assembly halls were cleared to make way for the added crowds. Musical concerts at the Marlborough-Blenheim and other hotels also attracted audiences of the other folk, and the Boardwalk theaters and other amusement places had capacity audiences early in the evening.

Much to the surprise of the managers of the smarter restaurants and beach-front cafes the absence of wine and fancy drinks failed to cut down the size of their crowds. Was satiated cards bearing the question, "Do We Get It or Do We Bring It?" and flashed them on headwaiters, but, according to report, there was little vending of wet goods from sequestered stocks.

1920 Parade Is Gay
The Boardwalk parade of New Year's Day was a feature of the holiday occasion and furnished a fine showing of winter styles. Among those who joined the promenade were hundreds of attractive school teachers from North Jersey here to attend the meeting of the New Jersey State Teachers' Association held to consider questions of increase in pay for educators and the means of procuring more young men and women for teaching staffs.

Announcement was made this week that Catholic congregations of this resort churches have decided to build a parochial high school in the Inlet District to furnish higher grade instruction to children of Catholic families here.

Another merry war between rolling-chair magnates is presaged by an order from city rulers this week, barring a new and attractive form of chair from the Boardwalk because of failure to conform with rules governing construction of the vehicles. Heads of the new syndicate, which has invaded the highly profitable rolling-chair field, claim discrimination is being used to drive them out of business and threaten court proceedings.

Many Affairs for Charity
Prominent women of the seashore social colony have invited Miss Anne Morgan to come to the Ambassador with the film picture "Heritage of France," to be shown in aid of the American Commission for Devastated France. Mrs. Maud Ballington Booth will appear at the Breakers Sunday evening before the Council of Jewish Women for the National Prison Reform Association. Shore society attended a benefit card and dance function at the Hospital. A quartet of grand opera stars appeared in concert at the Marlborough-Blenheim before a large audience.
