The Fruit of the Walk-Out

The railroad walk-out was a perverse and fantastic instance of the misuse of industrial power by a reckless minority. The men who waltzingly tried to tie up transportation couldn't hope to achieve their purpose.

The Mexican Caldron

The Sonora revolutionists have captured Culiacan, the capital of Sinaloa, the Gulf of California state adjoining Sonora on the south.

Carranza thus faces the hostility of the chief elements which contributed to the success of his revolt against Huerta.

Josephus and the War College

In view of the sort of management the navy is shown to have suffered, it may come as a surprise to many to learn that the Naval War College, at Newport, whose highly trained graduates Josephus passed by, is not only one of the best institutions of the kind in the world.

Founded at the instance of Admiral Luce, the college went forward under Admiral Mahan, whose writings marked an epoch in the world-wide appreciation of sea power.

Why the Secretary chose the captain of a navy yard for the chief officer of the navy seems unexplainable except on the theory that he feared to put in the position of Chief of Naval Operations a man at once strong and able.

How Henry Did It

The Tribune has been reproached for having a warm place in its heart for the senior member of the firm of "Henry and Me".

Not the American Way

Under the Italian Constitution members of the Senate are chosen by the King from among high officials or those famous in science, literature or any other pursuit tending to the benefit of the nation.

The Conning Tower

The Brave Days of Old By Harriette Underhill Sir: I just can't stand it any longer! I had a wheel that weighed only 17 1/2 pounds stripped.

Gotham Gleanings

—News are scarce this wk. —Rev. Straton preached yesterday. —Harry Persons Taber is in town from Washington for a few days.

Books

A new edition of "Love and Mr. Lewisham," by H. G. Wells, has just been brought out by the George H. Doran Company.

Loans on Liberty Bonds

Government Should Make Them to Original Holders To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: We advocate legislation effective for the relief of those original purchasers of Liberty bonds who are forced by circumstances to dispose of them.

A Correction

To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Please allow me to congratulate you on the splendid account, in Thursday's issue of your paper, of the indignation meeting held by the teachers at the Washington Irving High School on Wednesday afternoon.

Think the Public Wants

Think the Public Wants (1) "Ruddigore," might have been produced by any manager who cared to negotiate for the American rights, at any time before the war.

Shakespeare Was Right

Shakespeare Was Right (From The Cincinnati Enquirer) King Christian probably is beginning to have his suspicions that something really is rotten in Denmark.

Quite Enough

Quite Enough (From The Boston Evening Transcript) "We need another war," says "The Chicago Tribune." What is the matter with this one?

Hoover's Labor Views

Neither Radical Nor Reactionary, It Is Declared To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: I have heard a number of social workers and others interested in labor conditions say recently that Hoover is not fit to be President because he is "a reactionary" toward labor.

What the Public Thinks the Managers

What the Public Thinks the Managers (1) "Ruddigore," might have been produced by any manager who cared to negotiate for the American rights, at any time before the war.

Two Building Bills

To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: In order to prevent misunderstanding, the tenement house committee of the Charity Organization Society desires to state that the Black bill which it opposes is Senate bill, No. 1531, conferring unlimited discretion on the Tenement House Commissioner in relation to existing buildings.

The Universal Grab

The Universal Grab (From The Boston Globe) Japanese seize Vladivostok—French seize Rhine cities—German troops capture Essen—great day yesterday for the exercise of the freedom of the seas!

Unhorsed

Unhorsed (From The Los Angeles Times) Ebert, the saddler, did not enjoy a long rein.
