

Lakewood Farm Inn

ROSCOE, N. Y.

Built and maintained with one dominating thought:—"The utmost in service for the health and pleasure seeker."

The coolest summer resort in New York State, magnificently situated in a section unequalled in the Eastern United States for its scenery—only one hundred and twenty miles from the Metropolis.

The altitude of twenty-seven hundred feet is just right for comfort and insures complete freedom from Black Flies and Mosquitoes.

The INN offers every convenience and facility for a healthful and highly enjoyable vacation—Seventy suites with private bath, steam heat, electric light and running water in each room.

Until June 15th address all correspondence, 1180 Broadway, N. Y. C. (Telephone: Madison Square 4748.)

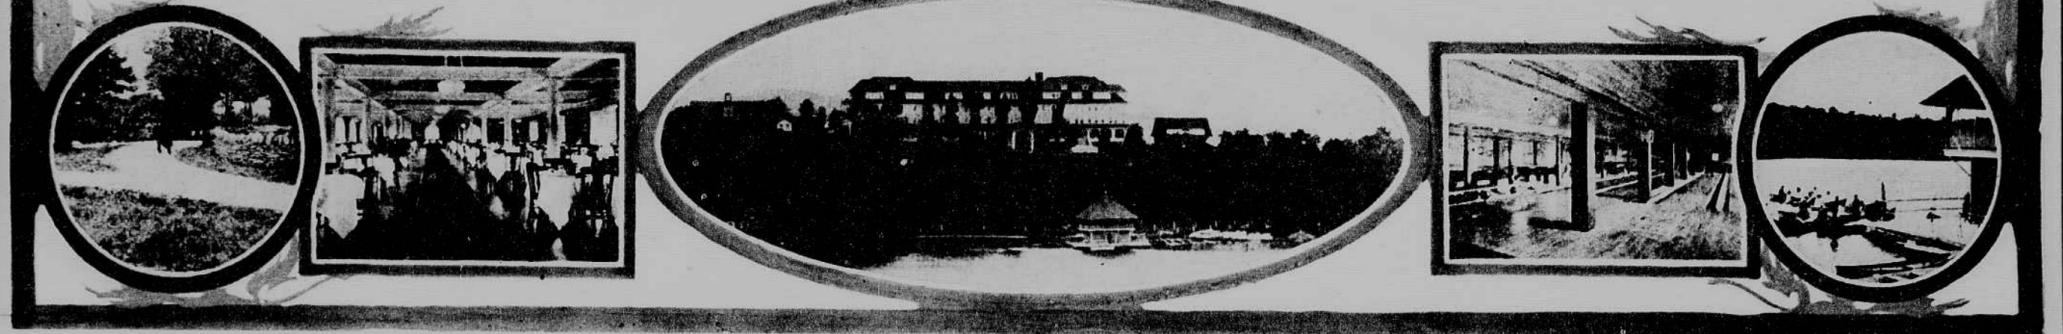

A large forest preserve—a private lake and many famous trout streams—good roads for cars or saddle horses and innumerable trails for the hiker.

Water sports—saddle horses—garage—orchestra—dancing—tennis—roque—billiards—bowling—play room—library and many other interesting features.

Resident physician—Doctor B. F. Hawley, formerly Medical Director of the Hotel Chamberlain, Fortress Monroe, Virginia.

H. A. BASSETT, Manager

Give Yourself a Complete Change this Year!

THROUGHOUT the year, you live at sea level in a climate that is heavy and damp. You are rarely or never up in the mountains breathing the clear, dry, invigorating, health-giving air.

Your opportunity for a "change" comes with vacation time—and you should take advantage of it.

Go up into the mountains of Sullivan, Ulster, Orange or Delaware Counties, New York!

The wonderfully bracing air will bring renewed health—and you'll enjoy every minute of your stay.
