

Mrs. Stearns Peabody and Mrs. James T. Terry

George C. Boldt's Castle, Thousand Islands. PHOTO © HALLAM & VESTY

Mrs. Oliver C. Macy and Mrs. J. Cuper Lord

Notes of the Social World

Newport Society Turns Out En Masse to Aid Charity

Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice, Following Lecture for Benefit of Nina Lynette Home for Aged, Entertains 200 of Colony at Supper and Dance

Special Dispatch to The Tribune. NEWPORT, R. I., July 31.—Society turned out en masse in the Casino Theater on Friday evening to hear Dr. Alexander Hamilton Rice tell of his discoveries of unexplored lands and new peoples at the headwaters of the Amazon, a trip which he closed with Mrs. Rice last spring. This lecture, given for the benefit of the Nina Lynette Home for the Aged of Newport, was illustrated by photographs taken by Dr. Rice and shown for the first time in a public gathering. It was not really a public gathering, though, for the limited number of tickets were taken by the patronesses and none was on public sale.

The patronesses for the lecture were Mrs. R. Livingston Beckman, Mrs. E. J. Berwind, Mrs. Joseph A. Blake, Mrs. Royal Phelps Carroll, Mrs. Henry Clews, Mrs. Martina Codman, Mrs. H. C. Hiram, Mrs. William A. Douglas, Mrs. John R. Drexel, Mrs. Stuart Duncan, Mrs. Paul Fitzsimons, Mrs. Frank W. Frueauf, Mrs. Richard Gambrell, Mrs. Lawrence L. Gillespie, Mrs. Grosvenor, Mrs. Alexander Hamilton Rice, Mrs. T. Sufferin Tailer, Mrs. Roderick Terry, Mrs. Alfred Tuckerman, Mrs. Twombly, Mrs. M. Van Buren, Mrs. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Hamilton Webster, Miss Edith Wetmore, Mrs. George D. Widener, Mrs. William F. Whitehouse and Mrs. John J. Wycog.

Miss Grant Gives Recital. Society gathered at the studio of Howard Hillier for the recital given by Miss Amy Grant, of New York, on Thursday afternoon for the benefit of the Big Brothers Summer Camps. It was an impetuous interest was manifested because of the recent visit of Maeterlinck to this country and the fact that many had been unable to witness the performances of the opera in New York last winter. Many of the patronesses for the Rice lecture noted in the same capacity for this affair, and the list was headed by Mrs. William Grosvenor, Mrs. Robert Verner, Mrs. Frederick Pearson, Mrs. John R. Drexel and the Misses Stevens.

Shawnee-on-the-Delaware Lures J. D. Rockefeller

George W. Gallinger Jr. has joined his mother, Mrs. George Gallinger, of New York, who is at Paul Smith's for the season. James Shevlin, Arthur C. Shevlin and party, of New York, arrived at Paul Smith's on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. John W. O'Neill, Miss Beatrice O'Neill and Miss Margaret Horan, of New York, are in the Smith cottage at the hotel, while preparing their camp on the lower St. Regis. Dr. and Mrs. George W. Sherer, who occupy the Fletcher cottage at the hotel, are entertaining Miss Maude Baile, of Jersey City. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Brennan and family, of New York, have apartments in the Casino.

Horsewomen Ride In a Paper Chase At Paul Smith's

Many New Yorkers Among Sojourners Returning to Summer Camps in Region of the St. Regis Lakes

Special Dispatch to The Tribune. PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., July 31.—The paper chase on Tuesday arranged by Walter Weir, of New York, riding master at Paul Smith's, proved one of the delightful innovations of the season now approaching its climax here. Among the accomplished horsewomen taking part in the early morning rides are Miss Beatrice O'Neill, of Kew Gardens, N. Y., here with her mother, Mrs. John W. O'Neill, for the season; Mrs. Henry Beaumont Herts, Miss A. M. Heller, Miss Sally M. Brody, Miss Nancy Simmers, Miss Joan M. Seeley and Mrs. Hayden B. Harris, all of New York. Mr. Harris, Mr. Herts and Mrs. Hayden B. Harris also spend much time in the saddle.

Among those returning to camp on the St. Regis lakes are Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. James, of Cold Spring Harbor, L. I.; Wildair, on the Upper St. Regis Lake, who has been ready for Mrs. Whiteley Reid, who will be joined there early in August by Mr. and Mrs. George Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, Miss Barbara Whitney and Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney are expected soon from Westbury to pass August at their camp on Raquette Lake.

Mrs. E. T. Carter has joined the party at Point Rush, Upper St. Regis camp of Mrs. Robert Hoe.

The Carretton camp, on the Lower St. Regis Lake, has been leased for the remainder of the season by Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Newman, of New York and Texas. With Mrs. William G. Rockefeller at Bay Point are Miss Almira Rockefeller, Miss Polly Lander and J. S. Rockefeller. A Narragansett season, took place, preceded by many dinner parties, both at the Casino restaurant and in the villas.

Narragansett Pier Crowded As Polo Tournament Opens

Midsummer Charity Ball at Casino, for Benefit of South County Cottage Hospital, Ushers in Series of Brilliant Entertainments at the Noted Resort

Special Dispatch to The Tribune. NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., July 31.—Narragansett Pier is now crowded with visitors, many of whom arrived during the last few days for the polo tournament which opens at the Point Judith Polo Club tomorrow. It will be the stimulus for much entertaining in the next three weeks or more, and, indeed, the round of entertainments has already begun, the brilliant charity ball of Friday night ushering in a series of events.

Augustus F. Goodwin, polo player, of Boston, is at the Massasoit. Robert Gould Shaw and his son, of Boston, are at the Pier for the polo season and are registered at the Casino.

J. G. Amory, polo player, of Boston, has rented Willow Cottage, on Central Street, for the polo season and is there with his family.

Arthur D. Cooley, of New York, one of the chief promoters of the polo tournament at the Pier, is at the Massasoit, as is Mrs. Cooley.

All roads in the Narragansett Rhode Island, led to the Casino on Friday night, where the annual midsummer charity ball, the event par excellence of a Narragansett season, took place, preceded by many dinner parties, both at the Casino restaurant and in the villas. The ball was given as a benefit of the South County Cottage Hospital, in the Narragansett region, of which Miss Caroline Hazard, of Pease Dale, formerly president of Wellesley College, is the head. The patronesses of the ball were Miss Caroline Hazard, Mrs. Rowland Hazard, Mrs. Robert H. L. Goddard, Mrs. Frank E. Richmond, Mrs. Henry De Coppel, Mrs. S. Hinman Bird, Mrs. David S. Baker jr., Mrs. James G. Blaine jr., Mrs. Alfred E. Norris, Mrs. Isaac E. Robinson, Mrs. Frank Samuel, Mrs. George Pouliffe, Mrs. Francis Robinson, Mrs. John C. Norris, Mrs. William T. Wright, Mrs. Thomas H. Dougherty jr., Mrs. John L. Welsh, Mrs. Benjamin Chew, Mrs. W. Plunkett Stewart, Mrs. Frank Samuel, Mrs. William T. Wright, Mrs. Archibald G. Thomson, Mrs. Isaac E. Emerson, Mrs. J. C. Rathborne, Mrs. Irving H. Chase, Mrs. Charles P. Taft 2d, Mrs. Howard Richmond, Mrs. Frank E. Richmond, Mrs. John O. Ames, Mrs. William M. Mauran, Mrs. Byron S. Watson and Mrs. John B. Lewis.

Miss Frothingham Starts New Sport, Flying, at Lenox

Accompanied Only by Pilot, She Produces Thrills, Including Loop-the-Loop, Side Slip and Tail Spin

Special Dispatch to The Tribune. LENOX, July 31.—Miss Helen Frothingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Frothingham, has set the pace for flying, a new sport in Lenox. Accompanied only by a pilot Saturday, she flew over Lenox and Pittsfield, had several thrills, including loop-the-loop, side slip and tail spin, and enjoyed it so much she has urged her young friends in Lenox to do likewise.

A golf putting contest for silver cups as prizes attracted members and visitors this afternoon to the Stockbridge Golf Club. Tea was poured by Mrs. Phillips Blagden. Among those who registered at the club this week were Miss Ellen Jay and Miss Anna M. Jay, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Jay; Edgar Freeman and Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Jessup, all of New York.

Mrs. Robert Winthrop gave a large dinner at her Lenox villa Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Livingston Pyne, who stopped over for a few days' visit with Mrs. Winthrop while en route to Bar Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lowell and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Z. Gray, of New York, arrived at the Lenox Club on Thursday. Mrs. Raymond T. Baker and sons, George W. and Alfred G. Vanderbilt, moved from the club on Monday to their villa, Holmwood.

Mrs. William H. Osgood Field returned to Highland House yesterday from the Ciscia Piedra River, where she was salmon fishing for two weeks. She sent Mr. Field one fish weighing twenty-three pounds, Miss Heloise Meyer and Mrs. Gertrude Parsons, who were with Mrs. Field, sent twenty-pounders to Mrs. John E. Parsons and Mrs. Samuel Frothingham.

Thousand Islands Colony Turns Attention to Sport

Social Life Will Center This Week Around the Golf Tournament at Country Club in Which Many Expert Players Will Strive for the Championship

Special Dispatch to The Tribune. ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July 31.—The climax of the social life of the Thousand Islands will be reached during the coming fortnight, when all the polo players shall have arrived; the golfers will be resting on their laurels, the tennis stars proudly showing their trophies won on yacht club courts, and luncheons, balls, meetings and what-not will be the order of the day. There were, however, plenty of the three last mentioned affairs going on to-day, but sport affairs will soon engage the attention of the cottage colony so exclusively that luncheons and dinners will be a matter of catch-as-catch-can, and guests who have not long been promised will be hard to lure to such prosaic affairs as merely dining, luncheon or tea.

The dinner dance at the Thousand Islands Yacht Club last Saturday evening was largely attended. This occasion brought out the entire dancing contingent of the villa colony, and was the most successful dance of the season. Many dinner parties preceded the dance. Among those who entertained were Commodore and Mrs. James H. Hammond, who had ten guests; Mr. and Mrs. Alvin H. Markle, who had eight; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Taylor, whose guests numbered twelve; Mr. and Mrs. William T. DeWart, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Englis and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Vandegrift.

During the coming week social life in the villa colony will center around the golf tournament, at the Thousand Islands Country Club. The golf links there are in such excellent condition, and it is predicted that the tournament will be the best ever played at the resort. Many expert players are entered for the matches, including the former Ireland Peacock, now Mrs. J. Laroque Anderson, and Mr. Anderson, Grant Allen Peacock, who recently won the Garden City tournament, defeating Hamilton K. Kerr in the final round by 2 and 1 to play; Mrs. George C. Boldt jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Miles, Mrs. Alexander R. Peacock, Roland Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. William Fellows Morgan, J. H. Hammond, Samuel Datzell, John Dalzell, Commodore Gillespie and H. L. Gillespie.

Toronto Enters Polo Tournament. The Polo Club of the Thousand Islands received the announcement Thursday of the personnel of the Toronto team that is entered in the polo tournament at Alexandria Bay, which is scheduled for August 14 to September 4. The Toronto players include Brigadier General H. C. Pickford, Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Bell, Lieutenant Colonel K. R. Marston, Major Roy Northmore, Torrance Beardmore, Gordon Beardmore, E. C. Carthy, C. Cowan, J. Phippen, R. E. Torrance, A. Allen Case. A number of these players were in the tournament of last summer. While these players will attend the tournament, it is probable that the team will be made up of Colonel Marston, Major Northmore, General Pickford, Colonel Bell, Gordon Beardmore and Allen Case. The Toronto ponies will come to the bay shortly on one of the Canada Steamship liners and will be housed at the polo stable on Wellesley island. The cups offered follow: Thousand Islands Cup, presented by Commodore J. H. Hammond and Lee M. Rumsey, now held by the Thousand Islands Polo Club; the Hill Cup, presented by Mrs. Lucie Hill, now held by the Dayton Cup, and the Wellesley Island Cup, presented by Mrs. A. Graham Miles.

There will be a masquerade ball in the Peacock Room of the Thousand Islands House on Wednesday evening. Four prizes are offered, two for the best costumes and two for the most eccentric. The tea dances every afternoon, from 4 to 8 in the Peacock Room, are well attended. The St. Lawrence River Anglers' Association will meet at the Thousand Islands House Wednesday. Following the meeting, the members of the association will hold a banquet. Arrivals from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chandler Christy, of New York, arrived at the Thousand Islands House Friday for a three weeks' stay. Other sojourners at the Thousand Islands House from New York are Miss Frances Hallam, Miss Beate Hallam, Miss Loraine Wright, Miss Katherine McSherry, Mr. A. B. Wilbur, L. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. S. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bronson, James E. Caffrey, Miss Annette Caffrey, Miss Eva Berman, Miss Gertrude Brennan, Miss Flora B. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Taylor, Edward Hensberg and Miss May Callahan. Arriving at Alexandria Bay by automobile and stopping at the Thousand Islands House are the Misses R. and G. Stafford, of Newark; Mrs. Sarah N. Purcell, Miss Margaret McCarthy, Miss Ruth Sturtevant and Miss Marion Sturtevant, of Danbury, Conn.; James E. and Mrs. George Sperry, of New York; William McCann, Miss Augusta H. Rogers, L. D. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Finney, Mrs. M. Dorlon, Miss M. W. Widener and M. E. Sarson, of New York. A motor party from Pawtucket, stopping at the Thousand Islands House, included A. A. Jones, L. M. Payne, Miss A. A. Jones and Miss E. D. Ross. Mr. and Mrs. K. Throford, and Miss Y. C. Throford, of Meriden, Conn., arrived Monday and are at the Thousand Islands House. Mrs. G. D. Zahn, Miss Bettina Zahn and Sperry Zahn, of New York, who were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Franer at Neilred Lodge, have returned home. Mrs. E. J. Maben, of Brooklyn, arrived Monday; also Mrs. Grant D. Green, of Syracuse, for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frazer. Later in the season Mr. and Mrs. George Sperry, of New York, will be guests at Neilred Lodge. Mr. Hier is Mrs. Frazer's brother. Dr. S. Hamilton, of Pittsburgh, is the guest of Miss H. E. Shumway, at Linden Cove, Alexandria Bay. Alexander R. Peacock, on Belle Island. T. S. Stephens, W. H. Yawger, J. P. Peters and E. M. Crawford, of Cranford, N. J., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gilbert, on Tar Island. Miss Marjorie Foster, of Rochester, is the guest of Miss H. E. Shumway, at Linden Cove, Alexandria Bay. G. Stuart Browns Entertain Party. Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart Brown, who have leased the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson P. Rose, on Rosette island, are entertaining a large house party, the season's first, at the home of Mrs. Lee, of Chicago; Mrs. Henry L. Cook, of Milwaukee, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Roy McCannell, of Rochester. Rufus T. French, of New York, who was at the Thousand Islands House for the last fortnight, has returned home. Mrs. French and the junior French will remain at the Thousand Islands during August. Miss Margaret Post and Richard Post, of New York, are guests of their uncle, William A. Post, on Scow Island.