It is to perpetuate these vigorous aims of better citizenship, which found expression in the life of Theodore Roosevelt, that the Roosevelt Military Academy is committed.

The relation of trustees and officers to the school comprises a unique advantage. Every year these men, leaders in government, in commerce and in industry, visit the academy, inspect its activities and address the cadets. Contact with such men bridges the gap which ordinarily exists between school life and practical affairs.

23 acres in campus, drill ground, rifle range, athletic field, 3 modern sunny buildings, QUENTIN HALL, now dormitory with swimming pool, gymnasium, club rooms.
