

Two Weddings Draw Society Throngs To-day

Miss Louise McA. Jongers and Miss Sibyl P. Hall To Be Brides in St. Thomas's Church Chantry

Miss Ruxton Is Married

Invitations Are Issued for Nuptials of Daughter of Former Senator Marshall

Two weddings of interest to society will take place in the city to-day, both of them in the chantry of St. Thomas's Church, Miss Louise McAllister Jongers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Jongers, will become the bride of Thomas Ashley Dent jr., of Syracuse. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, and a reception will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jongers, 200 West Fifty-seventh Street.

The other wedding will be that of Miss Sibyl Peaslee Hall, daughter of Mrs. Charles Mason Hall, to Lieutenant Don Pardee Moon, U. S. N., of the United States ship Arizona. Dr. Stires will officiate, and the ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Hotel Plaza. Mrs. Allan Hamilton Smith will be her sister's matron of honor, and her children, Eva and George Smith, will act as flower girl and page. All the bridegroom's attendants will be navy officers.

Miss Constance Quimby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Quimby, who is to marry Lieutenant Lowell Cooper, U. S. N., in St. Andrew's Church, Brewster, N. Y., October 9, will have Miss Elizabeth Gunn for her maid of honor and only attendant. Roy Williams will be Lieutenant Cooper's best man.

Mrs. Thomas H. Howard and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stuyvesant
