Danersk Decorative Furniture

A CHOICE and beautiful design is rarely the result of haphazard inspiration. We have found that the most successful themes are evolved through much study and the co-operation of many minds.

Picture the Wittersham bedroom set with body color of golden parchment; the architectural borders of antique Venetian blue, and decorated in the classic honey-suckle design in self tones of soft yellows; each large panel done in a beautifully modelled unit that is formal, yet as full of life and fresh beauty as the flowers themselves.

Call now and see the new themes and our interesting chintzes that have just come from England.
