

Tennis Week Marks Zenith of Brilliant Palm Beach Season

Cocoanuts' Jungle Ball at Country Club and Bal de Tete at Everglades Among the Leading Social Events

Special Dispatch to The Tribune PALM BEACH, Fla., March 12.—This week marked the zenith of the Palm Beach season, as Tennis Week always does, and record throngs crowded the Poiana porch and the side lanes when the championship matches were played. More than 1,000 persons watched the singles finals, won by R. Norris Williams, and an equally large gallery was out Saturday to witness the doubles matches between Ogden Phipps, of Westbury, L. I., the child wonder, and Norris Williams, who played L. Kumagae and Edwin Fuller Torrey, the latter team winning after a hard struggle.

The annual Jungle Ball of the Cocoanuts took place Tuesday at the Country Club, which was transformed into a real jungle of emilax and palms, and the 1921 Cocoanuts greeted their guests, all in costume. It was one of the most exclusive affairs of the season.

The Cocoanuts of 1921 are Caleb Bragg, Lawrence Waterbury, Addison Mizner and James R. Hyde, of New York, and Aurell Widener and Leonard M. Thomas, of Philadelphia.

The annual Bal de Tete was held Thursday at the Everglades Club. It was the largest and smartest affair of the season, with the guests wearing every variety of headdress from mandarin caps and pirate's kerchiefs to the elaborate jeweled headresses of Cleopatra and Catherine of Russia. Supper was served in the great tapestry-hung dining hall and dancing took place in the salon, while the Court of Orange and the galleries were filled with little groups sitting out at the tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Munn gave a dinner dance at the Country Club Sunday for which Florenz Ziegfeld sent down Dabney's Orchestra from the Midway Frolic in New York. Also giving a dinner dance were the Joshua S. Codens, who have returned from their fittings to Havana and New York. At the Gurnee Munn villa, where they are living, they are entertaining Mrs. Rosalie Cameron, Gordon Douglas, Russell Hull and Lytle Hull, of New York.

Among the cottagers who will remain at Palm Beach well into April or until May I are Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. William Laurence Green, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Stotesbury, Mr. and Mrs. James H. R. Cromwell, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lorillard Harbony, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Faria Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Symington, Mr. and Mrs. Horace H. Work, Mrs. E. C. Humbert and Miss Rachel Dieckes.

In New York's exclusive colony are the Payne Whiteheys, who came in a private car and are living at the Poiana, and with them Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hay, George Wrenn and Courtland D. Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Townsend Burden, of New York, and Mrs. M. Horace H. Work, of New York, are at the Poiana, as are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rodenbaugh, Mrs. H. Cass Gilbert and Frank Schoonmaker.

Mr. Sylvanus D. Schoonmaker, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dilworth, Mrs. Frederick Martin Davies and Eugene M. O'Neill are at the Breakers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Replogle gave a large dinner at the Beach Club last Sunday.

The Everglades Club has a large colony of New Yorkers, including Mrs. J. Norman de R. Whitehouse, Mrs. Edward Van Ingen, Mrs. M. Horace H. Work, Mrs. Van Ingen, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo E. Woodhouse, Miss Marjorie Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hutton, Mrs. Louis J. Treadwell, Maxwell N. Work, and Francis C. Work.

The Everglades Club will continue the Sunday and Thursday evening dinner dances until the end of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Zimmermann are at Bon Air cottage, Sunset Avenue.

Cornelius N. Fox gave a beach party Sunday, having a buffet luncheon for a number of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hutton, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Symington, H. H. Work, Miss Rachel Dieckes, Miss Betty Pierson and Miss Constance Peabody.

Dr. and Mrs. Preston Pope Satterwhite entertained this week at a large dinner at the Beach Club.

Mrs. Lynard B. C. Brady, of Rochester, N. Y., are at the Princess Hotel.

Miss Delight Weston, who has been staying at the Chimneys with Mrs. Weston, sailed for New York last Monday.

A recital was given in the Cathedral Monday by A. M. Purcell, organist, assisted by Miss Ruby Gerard, violinist, and Miss Ryan. Miss Gerard gave a farewell concert at St. George's Hotel Tuesday.

R. M. Appleton gave a luncheon party at which the Governor of Bermuda was guest of honor. Others present were Colonel F. L. Payson, and Winthrop Burr.

Miss Dorothy M. Brough

HER engagement to John I. Brush, of Brooklyn, was announced a week ago. She is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank I. Brough, of 150 East 127th Street.

Majority of Miami Yachtsmen Start on Fishing Excursions

Lure of Tarpon and Week of Sports at Havana Take Many of the Winter Colonists From the Resort

Special Dispatch to The Tribune MIAMI, Fla., March 12.—Fish are biting downcast, rising so hungrily to the bait that three-fourths of the yachts and cruisers tied up in Biscayne Bay for the season have put off on excursions for the tarpon, grouper, kingfish and the fighting shark. This with the American-Cuban week of sports at Havana, took many of Miami's winter colonists away from the resort this week, but many new arrivals filled the ranks and the outdoors still has the call.

The Cuban sportsmen are to have a permanent headquarters in Miami through the gift of Carl G. Fisher, of land valued at $100,000 for a clubhouse site. Colonel Eugene Silva, of the Cuban army, has accepted the gift, and it is announced that the clubhouse and stable will be constructed by Cuban sportsmen in time for the visit of the Havana athletes next season.
