

Kelly Hits 7th Homer and Giants Win - Ruth Gets 10 - Dodgers Lose - Dodgers Triumph Again

McGraw's Maulers Cinch Game With Four Tallies at the Start Long George's Drive Into Left Field Bleachers Scores Frisch Ahead and Sews Up Contest; Barnes Beats the Braves by 8 to 1 Score

By R. J. Kelly Long George Kelly, first baseman of the Giants and rival of "Babe" Ruth for home run glory, blazed out his seventh circuit clout of this young and promising season at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon and thereby retained his lead in his slugging duel with the Battering Bambino.

George Burns started the batting solve for the seats with a three-run homer, and Bancroft drew a base on balls. Frisch followed with another triple to right center, sending both runners across. Young went out on a bouncer to Holke, and then Kelly's homer, scoring Frisch ahead.

This flock of wallpops gave the Giants a four-run lead, and they had little difficulty in retaining it for the remainder of the afternoon.

Rises to Hero in Year It might be interesting to recall that just a year ago this same George Kelly was the laughing stock of the Giants.

The New York fans treated him inconsiderately, and every time he made an error, no matter how excusable, he was subjected to a tirade of uncomplimentary and insulting remarks.

Kelly refused to quit under fire and gamely stuck to his task. As a result he is now a hero in the eyes of all who follow the fortunes of the Giants.

He has developed a new attitude, and he has come to the point where he is being universally recognized as a genuine star. Long George has rounded into a really great player, in the eyes of the well as in the eyes of the fans.

Opposing pitchers have learned to fear Kelly as one of the hardest hitting players in the game, and outfielders are afraid to move toward the fences when Long George steps to the bat.

On his second trip to the plate yesterday Kelly smashed out another terrific wallpop, but this time the ball hit the fence in left center on the first bounce and went for two bases. In the fifth inning Long George went out on a roller to the box, and in the seventh he reached first on a fielder's choice.

Barnes Turns Back Braves Jess Barnes pitched good ball for the Giants, allowing six scattered hits. No two of these came in one inning. The only extra base rap was a three-bagger by Powell in the fifth inning, which, combined with an infield out, gave the visitors their only run.

Scott took over the pitching burden for the Braves in the second inning after Watson had been given the axe and the newcomer lingered on the scene until the eighth, when he was removed in favor of a pinch hitter. Cooney, a left-hander, occupied the mound during the last inning.

Aided by a rare stunt on the part of Barnabe, the Boston shortstop, the Giants increased their lead in the second by scoring two more runs. After Smith had pitched the first, Barnes shot a single to center. Burns hit one past Barnabe, who removed his glove and threw it at the ball. The glove hit the ball and deflected its course. Under the rules, Barnes was permitted to score and Burns was sent to third base. Bancroft went out on a grounder to Barnabe, but Burns bunted to Scott and converted into a "third out."

With one out in the third inning Kelly popped out his two-bagger and then to third on a single. Frisch bunted to Barnabe. Rapp dropped one in right field, and when Southworth loafed in fielding the ball Rapp raced all the way to second. Smith popped to Ford for the third out.

Score Again in Seventh The Giants then went scoreless until the seventh, when three successive singles and an infield out gave them their final run. Burns led off with his single, a single to center by Frisch, Kelly followed with another to left, putting Burns on second. Frisch rolled

How to Start the Day Wrong

FIRST YOU WAKE UP IN THE MORNING AND SQUEAL WITH DELIGHT AT BEING ALIVE THEN YOUR MA BRINGS YOU YOUR BOTTLE OF MILK FOR BREAKFAST THEN YOU GIGGLE AT YOUR PA IN HIS MORNING BATH

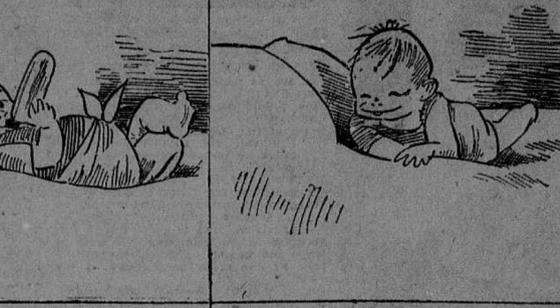

THEN MOTHER PUTS YOU ON THE BIG DAVENPORT WITH A NICE NEWSPAPER TO CHEW WHILE SHE GETS BREAKFAST THEN YOU REACH FOR A RATTLE AND SLIDE OFF AND BANG YOUR HEAD ON THE FLOOR AND THUS THE DAY IS COMPLETELY RUINED!

Kelly Far Ahead Of Ruth's Record

THE race for home run honors between George Kelly and Babe Ruth is overshadowing anything else in the baseball world right now. The attenuated first baseman of the Giants still holds the lead by a margin of one, as he banged out his seventh four-bagger of the season yesterday while the Bambino patted his sixth circuit clout up in Boston.

Kelly is way ahead of Ruth's record of last year. The Babe got his seventh homer in 1926 on May 25, Leonard of Detroit being the victim. Here are the 1921 home run records of Kelly and Ruth:

Single by Billings Overthrows Tigers After 13 Sessions

DETROIT, May 2.—St. Louis won the last game of the series from Detroit today, 7 to 6, after thirteen innings of see-saw baseball. Lee's walk, Lamb's sacrifice and Josh Billings' only hit of the game, a single to left center, scored the winning run in the thirteenth. Thirteen Detroiters were given bases on balls, but the visitors played well in the pinches, twenty-one Tigers being left on the bases.
