Lively Season for Newport Is Assured As Leaders Arrive

ASTORS, FITZ SIMONSES and Goelets Among Those Who Will Open Places; Tailors Are at Their Villa

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE. NEWPORT, June 11.—The Newport season continues to grow in its prospects, which were given an impressive impetus during the week by word that such families as the Vincent Astors, the Robert W. Goelets and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons, the latter formerly Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt, were coming here for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Astor will be among the early arrivals this year, having no such plans for a prolonged spring season in Europe as usual. Their villa is already opened. Robert Walton Goelet will open his place on the Cliffs for the month of August and for part of the autumn. He married Miss Anne Guesier, of Bordeaux, recently, and his coming here with his bride will make for much unexpected social activity among his many friends.

Every one in Newport is glad to learn that Mrs. Paul Fitz Simons is to return. She left here almost a year ago with her husband, Lieutenant Paul Fitz Simons, for Peru, where he was sent on a naval mission. Mrs. Fitz Simons will open her residence here and have with her for the summer her son, William K. Vanderbilt. She is expected the latter part of the month.

Mrs. Vanderbilt has opened The Breakers for the summer. She will arrive early next week for the season and remain late. Another of the prominent older summer residents, Mrs. J. W. Wyson, of New York, has arrived. Her mother was visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Cassatt, of Philadelphia, was a Newport visitor during the week, stopping at the Muenchinger-King. Mrs. Dudley Davis, Mr. and Mrs. F. Simonson, of New York, are week-end guests at the Muenchinger-King. Mrs. Pitt Scott, of New York, visited Mrs. Dudley Davis during the week. Mrs. J. Russel Pope was visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles W. Dustin, of New York, were at the Muenchinger-King.

Arrivals of summer residents for the season during the past week include Mrs. A. L. Douglas, who will be with her daughter, Mrs. William F. Whitehouse; Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Eustice, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Biddle, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Pembroke Jones, Mrs. Hugh D. Many Week-End Weddings Take Place in the Country

Miss Mary Sloan Colt Is Married to Louis Curtis Jr. at Garrison; Other Brides Include Miss Marion F. Hodenpnyl, Angela Moore and Lucy Upham

AT THIS time of the year Saturday is the most popular day of the week with the brides, owing to the fact that the majority of the weddings take place in the country, where the surroundings are picturesque and delightful and the week-end makes it easier for the guests to get out of town. Yesterday several marriages of note were celebrated, one of the largest being that of Miss Mary Sloan Colt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Colt, of this city, to Louis Curtis Jr., of Boston, in the quaint little Church of St. Philip's in the Highlands, Garrison, N. Y. Two special trains took the guests from the city, one leaving soon after 12 o'clock, standard time, for the ceremony, and the other shortly before 1 o'clock for the reception which followed at Curry Farm, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Colt, at Garrison. As the church is small, only relatives and a few intimate friends were present, but the reception was large and was attended by many from New York.

Bride is Granddaughter of Samuel Sloan, Philanthropist. The bride, who is a granddaughter of Samuel Sloan, railroad builder and philanthropist, was given away by her father. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Dickey, as matron of honor; Mrs. S. Sloan Colt, her sister-in-law; Miss Elizabeth St. John Whitney, of Boston; Miss Mary Hurd, Miss Helen Hoadley, Miss Eleanor Babbitt and Miss Jeannette Gourd. There were three flower girls, Frances Auchincloss, Elizabeth and Marguerite Rogers, cousins of the bride.

Lawrence Curtis served as his brother's best man, and the ushers were Leverett Saltonstall, of Boston; Alexander Hadden Tomes, Richard Duane, Junius S. Morgan Jr., John K. Hodges, Paul G. Pennoyer, Charles D. Dickey Jr. and S. Sloan Colt, brother of the bride.

The marriage of Miss Marion Fahys Hodenpnyl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hodenpnyl, of 37 East Sixty-third Street, to Preston Lees Sutphen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Sutphen, of 201 West Fifty-seventh Street, took place yesterday at Sag Harbor, L. I. Miss Gertha Barclay was the maid of honor and Mrs. Howard B. Dean the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Lucy Bulkley, Miss Josephine Barclay, Miss Margaret Barton, Miss Julia Quintance, Miss Marie Leary and Mrs. Basil B. Elmer.

Henry R. Sutphen Jr. served as his brother's best man, and the ushers were George C. Comstock Jr., David A. Uebelacker, Francis P. White, Henry G. Rau, Donald F. Carse, E. Ritzema, Warren B. Shipway and Harry Cook. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Fahys, at Northaven, Sag Harbor.

A wedding in the city yesterday was that of Miss Angela T. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bassett Moore, to Hermann G. Place, in St. Bartholomew's Church. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Leighton Parks, assisted by the Rev. Harry Ransome, uncle of the bride. A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moore, 267 West Seventy-third Street. Miss Anne Moore was her sister's maid of honor and the other attendants were Mrs. Robert Hartshorne, Miss Martha Kasp, Miss Katherine Biggs, Miss Juliet Ransome and Miss Georgia Reid, of Norfolk, Va. Willard Place served as his brother's best man and the ushers were William Malcolm Mather, Harvey Stevenson, Donald Campbell, Howard Sherwood, Cornelius Murray and Edward Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Place will live at 543 East Eighty-sixth Street. Florence Huntman Bride of Edwin Dresser at Plainfield. Rose was the color scheme effectively carried out both in gowns of the attendants and the decoration at the wedding last night of Miss Florence Fitz Randolph Huntman and Edwin Dresser, which took place at her home in Plainfield, N. J. Miss Huntsman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitz Randolph Huntsman, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Dresser, of Brookline, Mass. The

THE marriage of Miss Dorothy Pinckney Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown, of Englewood, N. Y., to Dwight S. Beebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford D. Beebe, of Syracuse, N. Y., will take place Saturday in St. Paul's Church, Englewood. The bride will be attended by Miss Josephine H. Perfect as maid of honor, and Miss Alice Hannah, of Brooklyn. David C. Beebe will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Harry Chater, of Englewood; Arnold C. Saunders, of Cleveland; Warren C. Smith, of Paterson; William Clark, of New York; J. New York Fresh Air Fund Breakfast Set for To-morrow. The club season of New York would not be complete without the breakfast of the New York Fresh Air Fund for Adults and Elderly People, Mrs. Alexander J. Schwartz, president, which will be held at Hotel Shelburne to-morrow at 12 o'clock and will be followed by cards. Through the efforts of Mrs. Angelique V. Orr everything has been done to make the day most enjoyable for the guests. Those wishing to attend may make reservations through the chairman, Mrs. Angelique V. Orr, 141 East Forty-fourth Street.

Only the relatives and few intimate friends attended the wedding of Miss Catherine F. Canfield, daughter of Mrs. Harry Canfield, of 53 West Eighty-seventh Street, to Leighton Elliott, of Toronto, Canada, yesterday, at the Hotel Gotham. It was originally planned to have a large wedding, but owing to the recent illness of Mrs. Canfield the arrangements had to be changed and only a few guests were present at the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Palmer, of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. A small reception and breakfast followed. Miss Canfield was attended by Miss Frances Duncan and Miss Riette Water.
