

BEAUTIES FROM THE NEW ZIEGFELD FOLLIES

Above—BLANCHE PARKS, another last year's girl, whose beauty will the scene enrobe. This season—mark the address well—Blanche parks her beauty at the Globe.

Left—From the City of Brotherly Loves comes this maid to the Broadway of lights. "I love your dear city," says SYBIL STOKES pretty, "but how do you keep awake nights?"

Above—PHOEBE LEE is Gotham's child of piquancy and grace. Ye Ziegfeld fans of season past will recognize her face.

Above—AVONNE TAYLOR, beauty's daughter, hails from Cleveland, O. 'Tis two years since she shook its dust and signed up here with "Flo."

Right—A WORTHING from the Blue Grass State is beautiful HELEN LEE; A. G. V. Follies peach last year, so Flo is bursting with glee.

Left—From vaudeville she comes to us; let's drink to her in bevo; the three a day no more will know the charming FRANCES REVEAU.

KATHLEEN ARDELLE, a chic brunette, with long and lustrous curls. Her beauty casts a spell divine as 'cross the stage she whirls.

Left—Beauty's eyes and youthful charm have CLARA BERASBACK. From Brooklyn mld. "Zieg" brought this child; he knew the house she'd pack.

Fair EVELYN CAMPBELL made her bow on Follies' stage last season; She's back again, this Boston girl, on Broadway. There's a reason.

Right—This dancing sprite of beauty blond, sweet AD-DIE ROLF, of Norway; You must be fleet of foot to dodge stage Johnnies at the doorway.

Right—"BEE" MILNER has Old England sent to grace the summer Follies; To sing away our thirsty thoughts and razz our melancholies.
