

Best Sunday Of Season at Southampton

Many of Colony Folk After Church Services Go to Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Woodhouse Give Musical

Mrs. Crimmins Jennings Visiting Aunt, Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien; Week-End Guests

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., July 24.—Many of the colony folk, after services at St. Andrew's Church, went to the beach with their guests, where they enjoyed one of the finest Sundays yet seen here.

Mrs. Crimmins Jennings, who came here from her summer home in Noroton, Conn., is with her aunt, Mrs. Morgan J. O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Read and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Froelich are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. André de Coppet.

Major Francis Colby, who is stationed at Montauk, is with Mr. and Mrs. George T. Maxwell. Miss Kate Judge is also visiting here.

Mrs. George Leary's guests for over the week end are Count Casa Egua, Miss Abby Putnam Morrison and Dr. Edward Gilmore. Dr. Gilmore is a cousin of Mrs. Leary; he has been passing some time in China and Japan and will soon depart for England.

Princess De Braganza, who was visiting in Newport, returned to her villa here.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brokaw are playing at the Meadow Club. Victor Onatavia is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James C. Barry at the Duer cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Dittman have as their guests Andrew J. Dittman and Albert J. Dittman jr., the doctor's father and brother.

Other guests here for over the week end are Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, visiting with Prince and Princess Francesco Rospigliosi; Harry V. Day, with his sister, Miss Laura V. Day, at Meadow Beach; Charles H. Marshall, with T. Gaillard Thomas 2d; Mrs. L. Stuart Wing, with Mrs. Alvin W. French; Mrs. Philip Boyer and Harry Gushing jr. are with Mrs. William K. Washburn.

Mrs. George T. Maxwell will give a dinner on next Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Chadbourne on their arrival here on August 1, will go to Mrs. Chadbourne's mother's summer home, Hampton Court, near the shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairfax S. Landstreet jr. and Miss Davis Landstreet on their arrival from Huntington, W. Va., on August 1, will visit Thomas B. Davis, at the home of Mrs. Davis in New Orleans and went to the Corwith cottage for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dieckes have taken Mrs. W. Lowe Rice's home on Lake Agassaw for the summer.

The Misses Cornelia and Jane Anderson, sisters of Mrs. Arthur B. Claffin, are at Irving House.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mellon are at Seamarque for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. George Leary will give a dinner for Mrs. Edward McKenna on next Wednesday. Another dinner will be given on this night by Mrs. Henry A. Coster.

Mrs. William A. Kissam gave a luncheon at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club today.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Burrall Hoffman are giving a dinner on Tuesday.

On the Way to the Beach

Mrs. James Lenox Banks One of Newport's summer colonists, with her daughter, Cynthia.

Miss Onderdonk Married

Wedding to Lieut. Souza Took Place in Garden City

GARDEN CITY, L. I., July 24.—The Cathedral of the Incarnation, yesterday afternoon, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Katherine Onderdonk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Onderdonk, was married to Lieutenant William Bettinpoint Souza, of New Bedford, Mass. Lieutenant Souza is connected with the air service and is on duty at Langley Field. He met his bride while she was stationed at Mitchell Field.

Revolutionary Churchyard To Be Restored at Once

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., July 25.—Officers of the Eastchester Village Green Association, which has recently been incorporated, announced today that work will begin at once to restore the famous old St. Paul's Churchyard at Eastchester, on the outskirts of Mount Vernon.

New York Women Honored

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Eight New York women have qualified as founders of the National Woman's party by making donations of from $100 to $51,500 for the cause, Miss Elsie Hill, chairman of the organization disclosed today in making public the names of twenty-seven women similarly honored.

Going On Today

American Museum of Natural History, admission free. Metropolitan Museum of Art, admission free. New York Historical Society, 170 Central Park West, admission free. Zoological Park, admission free.

10 LECTURES ON THE New Practice Act and Rules

By HARRY B. BRADBURY, ESQ., of the New York Bar, Author of "Rules of Pleading" and various other Practice Books

At Rooms of Fordham University School of Law, in Woodworth Building, beginning Tuesday, July 26th, and continuing Tuesdays and Thursdays, 2:15 to 3:15 P. M.

These ten intensive lectures will completely cover all the changes in pleading and practice with which every practicing lawyer will have to deal by October 1, 1921, and will obviate the necessity of several weeks' hard reading. There will be a thorough explanation of the new forms of actions which are authorized by the Civil Practice Act and Rules of Civil Procedure, as well as of the radical changes which have been made in the rules, the forms and the method of determining the sufficiency of pleadings. Suggestive forms with notes will be distributed.

Applications for registration accompanied by the fee will be accepted the order in which they are received and should be sent to MARION L. SHAW, Room 1614, 40 Broadway, New York.

Fee for the course, $25. The registration will necessarily be limited.

SECOND FLOOR

Fifth Avenue 34th and 33d Streets

Reg. Trade Mark

Lenox Costume Ball Lasts Until Break of Dawn

Many Guests Play Tennis and Take Dip in Pool Before Going Home From Liveliest Event of Season

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE LENOX, Mass., July 24.—Mrs. Raymond T. Baker's costume ball lasted until dawn and a number of the guests enjoyed tennis, followed by a dip in the Holmwood Swimming Pool, before starting home. All agreed it was the liveliest event in the Berkshires since pre-war days.

For further entertainment of her guests Mrs. Baker gave a large picnic luncheon at the Lake Mahkeenac Boat Club this afternoon, nearly every one being up in time. The negro singing orchestra that came on for the ball also played this afternoon on the boatclub veranda. Canoe races and swimming matches were enjoyed. To-day's festivities closed with a tea given by Mrs. Charles Astor Bristol at Lakeside.

A ten o'clock reception was given this afternoon by Miss Gertrude R. Smith and Miss Miriam Oliver complimentary to the Stockbridge Grange in their log cabin at the Dugway in Stockbridge.

Richard Henry Dan of Cambridge, Mass., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Chester French in Stockbridge. Mrs. Delancey A. Kane, of New York, arrived at the Curtis Hotel, Mrs. Richard Deland, of New York, at the Hamilton Inn at Stockbridge for Bar Harbor, Me.

Mrs. Paul Morton has her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, as a guest at thirty feet back at the other end of the line of children. The "Fresh Air Kids" had the right instinct and followed it.

Four thousand "Fresh Air Kids" have been sent to the country this summer. This entire class of the Tribune could be filled up with the good things folks who have entertained them and watched them have had a sample of the comment they excite among their country hosts. It is the estimate of an Episcopal clergyman:

"We are returning the little New York boys and girls to their homes to your instructions, and I think, all in good order, filled with pure air and hope, with pleasant memories of their visit here."

Two of the little girls have been brought more closely to my notice than the others, for the reason that one of them was our guest, while the other was not. She could visit our home from time to time. The others, I have seen but little, but hear nothing but good reports from them. The people are very much pleased with them.

"But, you know, I never hope to see two better behaved or sweeter little girls than the two we have had in the neighborhood. Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, of Boston, and how they'd long for their Italian food, but don't ever let any one tell you they are 'daggers.' How I hate that term applied to our foreign guests! The Tribune's 'Fresh Air Fund,' The Tribune, New York City.

Arrivals at the Profile House include Mr. and Mrs. Lynnford, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mann and W. H. Dewey, of Quechee, Vt.; Mrs. Hugo K. Larson, of New Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Barker, Burns Barker and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett, of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeCham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kerr, P. Kerr, of Detroit, are at Upland Terrace.

Wallis Suggested as Mayoralty Candidate

Banking on the known sentiment in the steering committee of the Republicans and Coalitionists in favor of having a leading Democrat on the city ticket, friends of Immigration Commissioner F. A. Wallis yesterday sent a letter to Henry W. Taft, chairman of the fusion coalition, calling attention to Mr. Wallis's availability. The letter was signed by A. E. Campbell, Alexander Cummings, J. A. Daventport, Stuart Gibboney and Michael Kley, and read as follows:

The rank and file of the Republican voters are in a quandary as to what Democratic vote the fusion ticket must be headed by a Democrat that can lead and inspire an able, vigorous and relentless campaign.

Going On Today

American Museum of Natural History, admission free. Metropolitan Museum of Art, admission free. New York Historical Society, 170 Central Park West, admission free. Zoological Park, admission free.

Exchange Rates Increase Gifts

"In addition to the $3,000,000 already appropriated, the 'Foundation' has received $2,000,000 for Canadian medical education. The interest on this sum, pending the distribution of the principal, will be devoted to annual subsidies, fellowships and other forms of aid. It is perhaps worth noting that the Dominion appropriations are being paid in United States currency, which in terms of Canadian money adds about 10 per cent to the gifts."

Elizabeth Jordan Recovering

Elizabeth Jordan, author of 36 emergency books, and underwent a major operation at Presbyterian Hospital a week ago, was reported by her attending physician last night to be out of danger. She will leave the hospital, it was said, in about a month.

The Tribune Fresh Air Fund

"Fresh Air Kids" Call them no in pity if you like, but not in scorn. Think of them compassionately as boys and girls denied the comforts and pleasures of life, but not contemptuously as human riff-raff devoid of the better instincts.

Sometimes they lack superficial polish, but inside the pure gold assays as high to the ounce as in the children of the well to do.

Last Friday The Tribune Fund was sending a group of twenty-seven kiddies to Greene, N. Y., for vacations. They had crossed the Barclay Street ferry and were passing through the concourse of the Lackawanna Railroad terminal in Hoboken. At the head of the two-by-two procession scampered four lads nine years old.

At the same moment down the concourse from another direction, borne on the shoulders of four doughboys, came the flag-draped coffin of one of their buddies homeward bound from the poppy fields of Flanders. The two processions met in the mid-concourse.

The boys didn't see what was approaching until they were within a few feet of the coffin. Then the roving eye of one lad saw:

"Stop!" he shouted to his companions. And as he gave the order one of the boys stepped forward and the other three were only a second behind him.

And while the funeral cortege marched past the four stood frozen at attention.

It came from their own hearts. The attendant in charge of the party was thirty feet back at the other end of the line of children. The "Fresh Air Kids" had the right instinct and followed it.

Four thousand "Fresh Air Kids" have been sent to the country this summer. This entire class of the Tribune could be filled up with the good things folks who have entertained them and watched them have had a sample of the comment they excite among their country hosts.

Arrivals at the Profile House include Mr. and Mrs. Lynnford, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Mann and W. H. Dewey, of Quechee, Vt.; Mrs. Hugo K. Larson, of New Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Barker, Burns Barker and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Garrett, of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. DeCham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kerr, P. Kerr, of Detroit, are at Upland Terrace.

Wallis Suggested as Mayoralty Candidate

Banking on the known sentiment in the steering committee of the Republicans and Coalitionists in favor of having a leading Democrat on the city ticket, friends of Immigration Commissioner F. A. Wallis yesterday sent a letter to Henry W. Taft, chairman of the fusion coalition, calling attention to Mr. Wallis's availability.

The rank and file of the Republican voters are in a quandary as to what Democratic vote the fusion ticket must be headed by a Democrat that can lead and inspire an able, vigorous and relentless campaign.

Going On Today

American Museum of Natural History, admission free. Metropolitan Museum of Art, admission free. New York Historical Society, 170 Central Park West, admission free. Zoological Park, admission free.

Exchange Rates Increase Gifts

"In addition to the $3,000,000 already appropriated, the 'Foundation' has received $2,000,000 for Canadian medical education. The interest on this sum, pending the distribution of the principal, will be devoted to annual subsidies, fellowships and other forms of aid. It is perhaps worth noting that the Dominion appropriations are being paid in United States currency, which in terms of Canadian money adds about 10 per cent to the gifts."

Elizabeth Jordan Recovering

Elizabeth Jordan, author of 36 emergency books, and underwent a major operation at Presbyterian Hospital a week ago, was reported by her attending physician last night to be out of danger. She will leave the hospital, it was said, in about a month.

Fusion Names Lockwood or Curran To-day

Has the best chance of accomplishing that end, for the following reasons: "Eight years of experience in the actual work of the city government."

"Two years in the army, including service in the A. E. F. with the 77th Division."

"Has administered a difficult department during the last two years. For 1921 this department will cost the taxpayers $500,000 less than in 1920, based on the 1920 rate of expenditures."

Points to Contented Employees "Since he started in public life Mr. Curran has always stood for fair treatment of city employees."

"He is not content simply to oppose a proposition unless able and willing to make constructive criticism, as evidenced by his town hall speech and his letter to Senator Knight entitled 'Home Rule and a 5-Cent Fare.'"

Consistently Against Hyland "A consistent opponent of Mayor Hyland, he has shown unusual poise and ability in his difficult position as a member of the present Board of Estimate and Apportionment."

Has demonstrated a vote-getting record in his campaign of 1916 for President of the Board of Aldermen, when he ran against the late Frank L. Demarest. He carried Brooklyn by over 6,000 plurality, while Charles E. Hughes, Republican candidate for President, lost the same borough by nearly 4,000. He was elected to his present office in 1919 without the aid of fusion by a plurality of over 8,000.

"He understands our city and its people, and they know and like him. He has grown stronger with each office he has held. His record cannot be attacked from any angle."

Doughboy Hero of Cantigny Is Buried With High Honors

Escort of 500 Follows Caisson Bearing Body of Fred H. Meyer, Whose Gallantry Gen. Pershing Praised

Private Fred H. Meyer, D. S. C., the manner of whose death at Cantigny earned him mention from General Pershing as "one of the greatest heroes of the war," was yesterday given one of the largest military funerals ever held for an enlisted man. More than 500 veterans escorted the caisson, and the crowd seeking admission to St. Rose of Lima's Church on 156th Street, where the service was held, overflowed into the street and filled the block between St. Nicholas and Amsterdam avenues.

The majority of the escort were members of Fred H. Meyer Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, which was named in his honor. They were led by John P. IX, commander of the post; R. W. Elton, adjutant general of the organization, and Colonel Henry B. Fairbanks, chairman of its council for New York County. With them marched more than a hundred members of other posts, representatives of the Spanish War and French, British, Scotch and Canadian veterans. A guard of honor was given by the 22nd Engineers, N. G. N. Y.

Meyer gained his distinction and his death by uttering his body as a living wall from behind which a comrade armed with an automatic rifle, was able to keep up a steady fire upon a German machine gunner. He was a plucky fellow with the American troops. His body was riddled with bullets, but his sacrifice enabled his comrade to silence the enemy's fire.

He had previously taken part in the battles of Arracourt, Les Jumbelles, Toul, Montdidier, and Noyon as a soldier in the 26th Infantry, and as a volunteer. He enlisted March 17, 1916, at the age of seventeen and saw service on the Mexican border. His home was at 2145 Amsterdam Avenue.

The funeral service was conducted by Father Joseph McCaffrey, an overseas veteran who is post and state adjutant of the 26th Infantry. Four soldiers, two marines, and two sailors were pall bearers. In front of the caisson walked a private bearing the posthumous decorations which Meyer received.

After the ceremony the cortege, headed by a police escort and B. F. Elton, adjutant general, marched up Broadway and St. Nicholas Avenue and across 180th Street and Washington Bridge to University Avenue, where a hearse was waiting to take the body to St. Raymond's Cemetery. Automobiles were also on hand to carry the members of Fred H. Meyer Post to the cemetery.

Captain William H. Harries Dies Suddenly at Oswego

PASADENA, Cal., July 24.—Judge Septimus Hanna, former pastor and first reader of the Mother Church of the Christian Scientists at Boston, died here to-day. He was seventy-seven years old. Judge Hanna succeeded Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy as president of the Massachusetts Metaphysical College, regarded by Christian Scientists as the cradle of their faith.

Police Hero's Funeral To-day

Funeral services will be held to-day for Charles Potter, Queensboro traffic policeman, who gave his life last Friday to rescue his eleven-year-old daughter from drowning at Babylon, L. I. The body will be escorted by a platoon of his comrades from his late residence at 490 West 131st Street to the Church of the Annunciation, on Convent Avenue, where a requiem mass will be sung by policemen vocalists at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery.

Lieut. Oscar H. Cowan Buried

STAMFORD, Conn., July 24.—A military funeral was held here at 10 o'clock this afternoon for Lieutenant

Oscar H. Cowan, who was killed in action on August 21, 1918, near Mont Notre Dame, France.

Lieutenant Cowan commanded a section of Battery D, 66th Coast Artillery. He was hit by a fragment from a high explosive shell. Cowan was twenty-three years old at the time his death occurred. He was survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cowan, of North Stamford, and by three sisters. The body arrived here a few days ago from France, it having been buried in a churchyard at Mareuil on Dole.

Birth, Engagement, Marriage, Death and Memorial Notices may be telephoned to The Tribune any time up to midnight for insertion in the next day's paper.

Telephone Beckman 3000.

DEATHS

BERGEN—Jeanne McEue, widow of the late James C. Bergen, suddenly at Atlantic City, Friday, July 23. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning at Church of St. Jean Baptiste, corner Lexington and 7th sts.

BUCKINGHAM—At New Vernon, N. J., July 24, Mary A., wife of Gen. A. Buckleham, of Tappan, N. Y. Funeral notice later.

BURGESS—At South Orange, N. J., July 23, 1921, Frances, daughter of the late Caleb A. and Harriet Procter Burgess. Funeral services at her late residence, 173 Ralston av., on Monday, July 25, at 1:30 p. m.

CHEMANN—At Ballston Spa, N. Y., July 23, 1921, Allice Jones, wife of the late Benjamin Fields Chemann 2d. Services Monday 3 p. m. at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Lawrence St., New Amsterdam, N. Y., and 12th st., New York City. Interment private.

CORNWALL—Janet Abbie Cornwall, daughter of the late James and Charlotte Abbie and widow of Charles Roberts Cornwall, on July 23, at Englewood, aged 82. Funeral from the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Tuesday, 11 a. m.

HASSETT—Timothy B. Hassett, on July 23, survived by wife, daughter, but no sons. Funeral from his late residence, 2312 Madison St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m., thence to the Church of All Saints, Interment Calvary Cemetery.

HAYCOCK—At Montclair, N. J., Saturday, July 23, 1921, Sarah Kilday, widow of her 29th year. Services will be held in the Funeral Home, Arthur K. Brown, 58 Park St., Montclair, Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

HENSON—Suddenly on July 23, 1921, Christopher Joseph Henson, beloved husband of Sarah A. Henson (nee Elin). Burial at St. Ann's Church, New York City.

HURLEY—Margaret E. (nee Hickey), late wife of Bartholomew J. Hurley, of father of Bartholomew jr., Alagar and Catherine, Mary, John and Joseph, after a long illness, at her residence, 580 W. 156th St., on Friday, July 23, 1921. Funeral Monday at 10 o'clock from the Church of St. Ann, 156th St., near Amsterdam av. Requiem mass at 9 a. m.

JONES—On July 24, 1921, Emma Lamport Jones, widow of John Jones, of the Chapel of the Home, Amsterdam av. and 125th St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m. Interment private.

LESTER—Asbury, the Funeral Home (Campbell Building), Broadway, 66th St., Tuesday, 11 a. m.

LOEW—On July 23, 1921, Emma Lamport Jones, widow of John Jones, of the Chapel of the Home, Amsterdam av. and 125th St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m. Interment private.

LUBIN—Anna Lubin, widow of Oscar Lubin, of the Funeral Home, Arthur K. Brown, 58 Park St., N. Y., Washington, D. C.

MANNING—On July 23, 1921, Leona C. Manning, wife of the late Henry S. Manning, of the Funeral Home, Arthur K. Brown, 58 Park St., N. Y., Washington, D. C.

O'BRIEN—On July 23, 1921, the late Henry Archer and Florence O'Brien, at her residence, 2241 87th St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m. Interment private.

POTTER—Patrolman Charles, 32 years old, gave his life in a successful attempt to save the lives of his wife and two daughters, Alice, Marie, Alice, and his son, John, from drowning at Babylon, L. I., July 23, 1921. He was a plucky fellow with the American troops. His body was riddled with bullets, but his sacrifice enabled his comrade to silence the enemy's fire.

SKIDMORE—At Summit, N. J., Saturday, July 23, 1921, William B. Skidmore, son of the late William B. and Harriet B. Skidmore, of his late residence, 15 Hillside av., Summit, N. J., on Monday, July 25, at 10 o'clock. Interment private.

STEWART—Private William Thomas Stewart, Company 10th Infantry, 29th Division, killed in action November 1918. Burial at the Calvary Cemetery, 110th St., Brooklyn, on Saturday, July 23. Funeral from the home of the late Mrs. Stewart, 110th St., Brooklyn, on Sunday, July 24, at 10 a. m. Interment Calvary Cemetery.

SWINEHEAR—George Knowles, M. D., 44 East 107th St., Saturday, July 23. Notice of funeral hereafter.

TIEMANN—At Ballston Spa, N. Y., Friday, July 23, 1921, George, son of the late George J. and Catherine L. Schmitt, of the Church of St. Ann, 156th St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m. Interment private. Kindly inform the Funeral Home, Arthur K. Brown, 58 Park St., N. Y., Washington, D. C.

WINSLOW—Suddenly at White Plains, N. Y., July 23, 1921, Emma R., beloved wife of the late Charles Winslow. Funeral services at her summer home, 1500 Prospect Road, Prospect Park, White Plains, N. Y., on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

WOODHAVEN—Frank, aged 35, deceased at the Fifth Avenue Memorial, 40 West 22d St., on Monday, July 25, at 10 a. m. Interment at Calvary.

Anywhere "Campbell Service" Call "Columbus 8200" FRANK E. CAMPBELL, "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Inc. (Non-Sectarian) 1970 Broadway at 86th St. Downtown Office, 234 St. 8.

At the Hour of Death Call Circle 1-500 Fifth Avenue Memorial (Non-Sectarian) Largest and Finest Funeral Establishment in New York City 110 West 42d St. 40 West 57th St.

John W. Lyon 49 E. 125th, 1933 Haddon, N.Y. Telephone, 1-5000.

THE WOODLAW CEMETERY, Lots of small size for sale.