A boy and a quarter every minute! The Fresh Air Fund's office hours August 2 extend from 12:01 a. m. to 9 p. m.—twenty-one hours.

For every minute of those twenty-one hours the Fund will send out to the country to be fresh air for a vacation boy, or a girl, and a quarter.

Five children every four minutes. A total of 1,675 for the day. The next day ever for the Fund's children.

To reach their vacation places the youngsters will travel approximately 172,444 miles.

Just about fifteen times around the world! And such vacation places—in the Green Mountains, along the shores of Lake Champlain and the beautiful Finger Lakes of central New York...

The railroad ticket for the trip of all of the vacation trips cost The Tribune Fund yesterday approximately $7,000, or a rate of about $4.44 a child.

Think that it to pay for railroad fares, do you? But remember that the fare represents the total cost to the Fund of each two weeks' vacation. You wouldn't say that $4.44 is too much to pay to buy a week's vacation for a child?

Some of these fares, won't you? The railroad bill is a heavy contribution to the Fund to help along the work of these pitiful lads and the terrible tenements.

The first of the "Fresh Airs" to arrive in their vacation homes will be a group of parties who left New York last night on the Erie Railroad for Addison, Woodhull, Canisteo, Alfred Canaseraga and Castile, N. Y.

They will reach their destinations between 6:30 and 11:30 this morning. This morning will be a party of 150 boys, going to the Fund's Fresh Air camp at Ardsley, N. Y.

Next in line will be the great party of 330 children, who set out in a special train on the Lackawanna Railroad at 11:00 a. m. They will begin to drop off the train at 4:20 p. m. when the train reaches Binghamton.

From there 606 of them will continue on to Cortland, N. Y., where the Rotary Club has had a special train to meet them at the surrounding country.

Toward nightfall 205 boys and girls bound for Burlington, Vt., and points near there, will begin to meet their vacation homes.

Then a party of seventeen youngsters will arrive in Cohasset, N. Y.

Finally, a party of 109 children will leave Great Central for the coast at 9 o'clock for Penn Yan, on Lake Keuka, N. Y. These will arrive at a

Yacht Barrymore Returns To Palace for a Week

Ethel Barrymore, happy because her holiday is in sight, began last week of her vaudeville tour with a return engagement at the Palace Theater yesterday.

Her popularity in the music hall is bounded only by the fire laws. Barrie's "The Twelve Pound Look" is the width of the artistic world away from the usual run of vaudeville sketches.

Her vaudeville act, which she plays in the music hall with the same artistry that she gives to drama at the Empire. She received ovations at both the afternoon and night performances.
