

Field Day at Belmont Park On September 1

Autumn Meeting of United Hunts Racing Association Will Be Followed by Long Island Horse Shows

Plan Many Entertainments

Miss Emily Pierson Is a Guest of Mrs. James C. Barr at Southampton

Long Island will have a gray autumn season, judging from the number of sporting affairs already arranged for September and October. The first event will be a field day at Belmont Park...

The racing at Belmont Park will follow this, and then will come the Horse Show at Mineola, September 28, 29 and 30, and the annual Horse Show of the Spring Rock Club, at Locust Valley, on October 7 and 8.

Other horse shows of the early fall will be the Morris town exhibition, on September 15, 16 and 17, and the Morris County Horse Fair, at Morris town, on September 22, 23 and 24. The Greenwich Horse Show will be held on September 24.

Miss Emily Pierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Reynold, has returned from Europe, and is at her home in Morris town, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Fahys and Miss Constance E. Fahys, who returned recently from a stay of several months in Europe, are at their country place at Locust Valley, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. D. Schiefelbin and their son, George Schiefelbin, have returned from Europe, and are at their home in Morris town, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Ives Plumb, who returned from Europe a few days ago after a year's absence abroad, are at their country place, Shadowbrook, Islip, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Aldrich have sailed from Europe for New York, and are due here in the next few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lancashire, of 7 East Broadway, who has been in Europe for several months, will sail for New York on the Olympic on August 24. On her arrival here she will join Dr. Lancashire and Miss Lancashire at Cratonswood, Manchester, Mass.

Miss Leta Robinson is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence T. Paul, in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Bennett have arrived in the city from Washington, and are at the Ambassador Hotel.

"Will rank among the masterpieces of its kind."

Tennis Set Guests At Southampton Attend Leary Ball

Big Gallery Sees Tourney Go Into Semi-Final Round by Play at Intervals in Afternoon of Showers

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., Aug. 18.—One of the most important entertainments of tennis week took place last night at Hawthorne House, where Mrs. George Leary gave a supper dance for her son, George Leary Jr.

For the last few days he has been able to see Fresh Air vacations, not in the abstract, but actually in progress. Here is the way he feels about it.

"Reveille Hall, East Northfield, has received a baptism to a new service. A Fresh Air unit is now quartered within its walls of running water, the ample lawn of the softest and greenest grass that God ever made."

"They came on time and were delivered over to us by their devoted attendants, the boys and girls of that company of girls from the city."

"They were a delight to see, and I was glad to see them. They were a delight to see, and I was glad to see them."

"They were a delight to see, and I was glad to see them. They were a delight to see, and I was glad to see them."

Newport Society to Stage Charity Ball Game To-morrow

Summer Residents Will Play City Officials, and Big Crowds Are Expected

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 18.—The attention of society now is focused on the baseball game to be played Saturday afternoon between the summer residents and the city officials for the benefit of three charities. It is estimated that both teams are practicing secretly for the event.

Neither side is publishing the names of its players, the only two who are certainly appearing being Summer George, captain of the summer residents, and Mayor Mahoney, who will lead the city officials. It is expected that the field will be packed to capacity for the game, the advance sale of tickets being very encouraging.

The Wednesday afternoon dance on the Horshoe veranda at the Casino was held to-day. Conrad's Orchestra played. The Wednesday morning coffee, on Bellevue Avenue, and dancing will be held after the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener was hostess at the Clambake Club this evening. The affair was primarily for the entertainment of Mrs. Widener's house party guests.

Mrs. Arthur Curtis James entertained a dinner this evening. Mrs. John Nicholas Brown also gave a dinner to-night.

Mrs. Lewis G. Morris gave a children's party for her daughter, Miss Leta Morris, today.

Miss Anna Sands entertained at luncheon this afternoon. Mrs. William Farnestock will give a dance on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Sick.

Mrs. Stuart Duncan gave a dinner at Bonnetree.

The boys' tournament at the Casino was not held to-day, as the courts were wet. The tournament will be resumed to-morrow, and Saturday should see the finish of the tourney.

To-morrow the three days' golf tournament will start at the Newport Country Club, the principal prizes at stake being the Di Turin Cup and the cups offered by Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Astor. The prizes will be awarded to the best 36-hole score in the three days' play.

Mrs. Robert Denison gave a dinner at the Lafayette cottage this evening. Mrs. John Nicholas Browne entertained at Harbor Court.

Mrs. Lawrence T. Paul has gone to Philadelphia.

Lucien M. Adkins, Veteran N.Y. Newspaperman, Dies

Editor of Three a Week, World War Correspondent, Dies in Porto Rico

NEW CANAAN, Conn., Aug. 18.—Lucien M. Adkins, editor of the Thrice-a-Week World and a member of the staff of the New York World for twenty-three years, died this morning at Porto Rico, where he was on duty.

Mr. Adkins was fifty-eight years old. He was born in Covington, Ky. The Louisville Courier-Journal was the first newspaper for which he worked. While employed by that newspaper he covered a yellow fever epidemic in the South, contracting the disease, but recovering completely.

About thirty years ago he went to New York, joining the staff of the New York Recorder. For several years there and brief connection with the Morning Journal he joined the staff of the World.

One of the World's correspondents in the Spanish-American War he accompanied the expedition of General Miles through the Porto Rico campaign. He covered the shooting of Governor Goebel in Frankfort and remained in the Kentucky capital through all the excitement that followed. As one of the political staff of the World he reported several national conventions. More recently he was night editor of the morning edition of the World. About two years ago he was made editor of the Thrice-a-Week World.

Mr. Adkins married Miss Bettie Lawrence, daughter of Major Lawrence, of Louisville. She survives him. He was a member of the Southern Society of New York.

MARtha BARBARO PATERSON, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Martha Barbara, the seven-year-old daughter of George P. and Alice Barbara, of Morris Plains, died of infantile paralysis to-day at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. May A. Bamford, 111 Cliff Street, this city.

This is the first death from infantile paralysis reported since the epidemic was stamped out two years ago. There are now four cases of the disease in Paterson.

WARREN J. CHENEY CORNING, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Warren J. Cheney, county judge of Steuben, died in an Ogdenburg, N. Y., hospital this morning of pneumonia, with which he had been seized while on a vacation trip in the Adirondack mountains.

JUDGE JOHN H. CRADNEY WATERTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Judge John H. Cradney, seventy-six years old, for twenty years municipal court judge in Rochester, died last night at the Thousand Island summer home of his daughter Mrs. Alexander Ely. He was born in Ballston Spa, N. Y., and his entire legal career was passed in Rochester. Two daughters and a son survive him.

GEORGE STANFIELD COOKE George Stanfield Cooke, who was engaged in the motion picture industry, died Tuesday night at his home, 237 Central Park West, of pneumonia poisoning. He was thirty-four years old.

Mr. Cooke went into business with his father, the late George J. Cooke, president of the Alfa Lithograph Company and was connected with motion pictures for ten years. He volunteered as a wireless operator in the navy during the war.

SIR SAMUEL DAVIDSON BELFAST, Ireland, Aug. 18.—Sir Samuel Davidson, who was knighted when King George opened the Ulster Parliament in May, is dead at his home at Bangor. It was announced here to-day.

Sir Samuel was chairman of the board of directors of the Sirocco Engineering Works of Belfast, and was said to be the second largest shareholder in the American Sirocco Company of Detroit, Mich.

Atlantic City Fete Helped Kiwanis Club, at Hofferberger Luncheon, Pledges Support

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 18.—Dr. Albert C. Hofferberger, of the Columbia University faculty, addressed the Kiwanis Club of Atlantic City to-day on the "Psychology of Advertising." His address was received with applause by the 150 Kiwanians and their guests who attended the luncheon held at La Victoire Restaurant.

The affair developed enthusiasm for the coming annual picnic to be held here September 7 and 8. Thomas P. Endicott, director general of the pageant, and Samuel P. Leeds, president of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke on the advantages of the project to Atlantic City and predicted that it would be attended by hundreds of thousands of visitors from all sections of the country. William S. Emley, as president, pledged the support of the Kiwanis Club.
