

Morvich Crowned 2-Year-Old Champion After Impressive Victory in Rich Hopeful Stakes

Unbeaten Colt Lands $34,900 in Winning Ninth Straight

Benjamin Block's Entry Makes Show of Field in the Closing Feature of Saratoga Meeting; Kai Sang Is Second and Whiskaway Finishes Third

By W. J. Macbeth

SARATOGA, Aug. 31.—Another Man of War was born to-day in the running of the rich Hopeful Stakes, the closing feature of the Saratoga meeting. Not exactly born, but at least discovered. It was Morvich, the unbeaten colt of the season, which won so impressively that every good judge of horseflesh to-night is ready to assign the two-year-old championship to him.

It was the Morvich's ninth straight victory. The son of Rinnymede-Hymir had taken them one and all since camp previous to this afternoon's performance. He had won as he pleased. He had set the pace and he had come from behind. But he never had such a race in his life as he did this afternoon in winning the rich Hopeful, which was worth $34,900 to Benjamin Block, his owner. Kai Sang was second and Whiskaway finished third.

Not a horse race at all, as everybody expected—simply a procession for Morvich. It was expected some horse might give him a tussle, but Morvich showed he had been a 100. They laid as good as 7 to 5 against him, and those who didn't take it—well, they simply overlooked it.

Johnson up on Winner

It may have been the rider rather than the horse that the good folk steered clear of. Andy Johnson had the leg up. He's not the best rider in the world, but a Morvich doesn't need a rider. He's got it. He's got it in his race. He could have won with Colonel Til Huston in the saddle.

Track conditions had the crowd nervous, and it was not the best riding in the world. It had rained heavily in the night, and the track was only slow. It was known that Morvich was a bear of a mudraker, but nobody ever had seen him perform in the mud. He's got it in his race. He's got it in his race. He's got it in his race.

Along in the second division paced Whiskaway, the ride and the hope of Harry Payne Whitney, who shot for the rich and historic purse with no less than three candidates.

Sets Pace Throughout

Morvich broke in front from third position and stayed there all the way. He set the pace and he stayed there all the way. He set the pace and he stayed there all the way.

Whitney's Calamity Jane is one of the fastest of all the juvenile fillies. Calamity Jane broke with Morvich; Kai Sang and raced nearly a quarter back to finish a lunging fourth. Kai Sang was second and Whiskaway finished third.

A better line might have been had on Morvich had the luck of the race not gone against Kai Sang and Whiskaway. Kai Sang was second and Whiskaway finished third.

Ford conquers Purcell in Final For Herald Cup

Wins Close Contest at Van Cortlandt Park; Dispute Over Score of Match

By Ray McCarthy

The Herald cup is still in competition. The late James Gordon Bennett donated this trophy some twenty years ago to an annual championship tournament of the best players, and to date no player has been able to win two legs on the prize.

Purcell, a left-handed player of considerable ability who is now developing his game at the Van Cortlandt Park, came as near as anybody did to winning the tournament twice. But he was beaten in the final round of thirty-and-two holes at Van Cortlandt Park yesterday, so that the trophy is still at stake.

Young Joseph Ford, a frail little Italian lad, who is sixteen years of age, was Purcell's opponent in the final round. But the margin of victory was not there's the rub! It is either 3 and 2 or 2 and 2, and after we spin this little yarn you can figure it out for yourself.

Debates Mark Contest

Purcell in weight is about the equal of the youngster. In age he has the edge, but he is more experienced. But it was an even contest of interest all day. It was quite exciting, and elicited several deep breaths from the galleries. It was quite a large-sized, colored gallery which trailed the pair. And all the Argentinians, the Portuguese, the Americans and the Greeks were for the Italian.

The morning round ended all even, and in the afternoon round Ford, aided by a beautiful eagle 2 at the third hole, where he laid his drive dead to the cup. Ford was 2 up at the third hole. Purcell got going, and at the eleventh hole had cut his opponent's lead to 1.

At the twelfth hole Ford hooked his second shot, and when he came up to his ball he found it lying behind a wire fence. A local rule of the New York Golf Club allows a player to move his ball a club length, but this fence, although Ford could have played the ball from its original lie.

The youngster won the hole, and as the match continued he scored 75. J. T. Skoog won the official Jersey range, a total score of 96. Jesse Rothchild took third with a like score. Rothchild won the place over Purcell because he shot better at the 500-yard range.

In Doubt Over Score

Ford won the next hole, but Purcell got that back at the fifteenth. Ford, playing a better second, was nearer the hole on his third at the sixteenth than Ford was on his second. The seventeenth and eighteenth holes were halved so that Ford would have won in any event by one up. In view of the fact that Purcell withdrew his protest, he was promptly lodged a protest. They played the match waiting for a decision from the committee.

Kramer Again Wins Title; Has Walk-Over in Trial

Frank L. Kramer, the East Orange speed marvel and "daddy" of all bicycle riders, was crowned the bicycle champion of America at the Newark Velodrome last night. This is his eighteenth time that Kramer, who is now almost forty-one years old, has won the premier honors in cycling in America.

Kramer by winning the last two championship races created a tie for first place with Raymond Eaton. The tie was supposed to have been ridden off last night, but Eaton refused to ride unless the management guaranteed him a large sum of money for the balance of the season. This they refused to do, and when Eaton did not ride Kramer won the championship by default, after riding one circuit of the track.

Wilson Directs Anderson Registers Double Victory in Title Tennis Meet

Training Work To His Defense

By Jack Lawrence

Tex Rickard announced last night that in order to claim the championship belts held by Johnny Wilson and Johnny Buff their opponents on Labor Day, Bryan Downey and Indian Russell, will have to secure knockouts.

The young Brooklyn star first eliminated the veteran Henry W. Mollenhauer at 6-1, 6-3, and then defeated Voshell, of New York, John B. Gilbert, of the British Isles Davis Cup team; Frederick C. Anderson, of Brooklyn; Atherton Richards, of New York, and Davis, of California. They will meet in that order this afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock.

Forty Toams in Doubles

Forty teams began to play in the men's doubles, with the Kinsey brothers, Voshell and Frank Anderson, and Clarence Todd and J. O. Anderson, of Australia, appearing as the outstanding contenders for the title. According to the plans of the tournament committee, there will be no play on Monday to-morrow, Saturday or Monday, so as not to conflict with the Davis Cup challenge round matches at Forest Hills on those days.

Charles J. Raleigh, chairman, and Messrs. Gibney, Dimars and Charles Chambers, referee of the tournament, have handled the big fields in singles and doubles with such splendid efficiency that they are actually ahead of their schedules and were not for the three days' lay-off would complete everything ahead of time.

Robert Kinsey was forced into a three-set struggle by Clarence V. Todd, of Australia, winning by a score of 6-2, 5-7, 6-3. Both men are great court coverers and adepts at change of pace. Kinsey was the quicker at covering closely, and going after the volleying was under better control.
