

Seven Chicago Police to Face Bootleg Charge

High Officials Are Involved, and Chief Says He Will Dismiss Half of Force if It Proves Necessary

To Get Blacklist To-day Federal Prosecutor to Name Alleged Whisky Ring and Ask for Indictments

Special Dispatch to The Tribune CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—At least seven indictments of members of the Police Department in connection with bootlegging, it was stated to-day, while at the same time Chief Charles C. Fitzmorris predicted that wholesale dismissions of policemen and police officials would be made.

Clyde Proposing List of Names to Chief

The list of names will go to the chief from District Attorney Charles E. Clyde in the form of a letter which the latter is preparing. Mr. Clyde refused to divulge just what the letter would contain, but indicated that it would be much information concerning scores of alleged crooked policemen and their activities in whisky dealing.

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

Schoolboy Rescues Two Unidentified Men Disappear White Crowd Applauds Youthful Life Saver

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 25.—Leonard Black, fifteen years old, a freshman at the Atlantic City high school, was the hero of the resort to-day when he rescued two men from drowning in a choppy sea.

When the Boat Reached the Spot Where Blair was Struggling with the Man, all the rescuers were close to collapse.

When the boat reached the spot where Blair was struggling with the man, all the rescuers were close to collapse. The trio were hauled into the center around young Blair, who rescued two men disappeared in the crowd.

Six Socialist Poes Quit Board of Rand School

ACTION FOLLOWS ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION REFUSING RECOGNITION TO 'THIRD INTERNATIONAL' The board of directors of the American Socialist Society, the governing body of the Rand School, was completely reorganized yesterday afternoon, after the resignation of six members because of the adoption of a resolution affirming the educational affiliation of the Socialist party and its refusal to recognize the 'Third International.'

Police Compel Jack Johnson To Abandon Stage Strife

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 25.—Jack Johnson, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, was forced by the Police Board last night to abandon his theatrical performance of the week with a theatrical troupe.

Police Commissioner John T. Swift Said the Board Took Action Because of Profits which had characterized Johnson as a 'one-time fugitive from justice and a convicted man under the Mann act.'

Balloonist's Back Broken, Parachute Didn't Open Effort to Escape From Leaking Craft Causes Accident Before Newark Crowd

NEWARK, Sept. 25.—John Karnschitz, thirty-three years old, an aeronaut, living at 413 Garden Street, Union Hill, broke his back yesterday when he tried to descend from a leaky balloon while making an exhibition ascent at Hillside Park, using a parachute which failed to open.

Truce on Beer Bill Scheduled To Be Announced To-day

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Formal declaration of a truce in the Senate fight over the anti-beer bill and its search and seizure clause is expected tomorrow. Suspension of hostilities is to last a few weeks, according to the present outlook, or until the Senate debates of the tax revision bill and the German, Austrian and Hungarian peace treaties.

Dry Count on Withholding of Regulations While Treaties and Tax Are Settled

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Formal declaration of a truce in the Senate fight over the anti-beer bill and its search and seizure clause is expected tomorrow. Suspension of hostilities is to last a few weeks, according to the present outlook, or until the Senate debates of the tax revision bill and the German, Austrian and Hungarian peace treaties.

When the Tax Bill is Called up Tomorrow, Senator Sterling, Republican, of South Dakota, in charge of the anti-beer measure, plans to give way with an announcement of his understanding that the 'dry' bill shall be given right of way after action on the tax measure and after the Senate has acted on the German, Austrian and Hungarian peace treaties.

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

There's Not a Man on the Force, Including Myself, Who Place Could Not Be Filled on the Minutes' Notice

"There's not a man on the force, including myself, whose place could not be filled on the minutes' notice," said the chief, "I have a complete list of all the men on the force who have fallen under Federal investigation in connection with whisky running, 'shake downs' in illicit booze deals and bootlegging."

Entire Nation Flooded With Illicit Liquor

Drunkennes is common. 'Wets' argue that those who want liquor will get it even if of an inferior, man-killing quality, while the 'drys' insist that prohibition is the only way to get rid of the evil.

Cleveland Is Drying Up, Prohibition Agents Assert

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25.—Is Cleveland 'drying up'? Yes, says Chief Federal Prohibition Agent Fred Collins, and Chief of Police Frank W. Smith and police court judges add their voices.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

Woman Accuser Of Arbuckle Goes On Stand To-day

Mrs. Bambina Delmont, who First Blamed Comedian for Miss Rappe's Death, Will Testify at Hearing

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, film comedian, charged with the slaying of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, passed a quiet Sunday in jail, while the District Attorney prepared a list of witnesses for examination when the police court hearing is resumed tomorrow. Arbuckle was visited by relatives. Under his attorney's orders he refused to discuss the charge against him.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

Whisky Sells in Denver For as Low as $3 a Gallon

From The Tribune's Washington Bureau DENVER, Sept. 25.—The only change in the prohibition situation in Colorado in recent months has been that bootleg liquor has become more easily obtainable. Despite a vigorous anti-liquor campaign conducted by two newspapers here public sentiment has not been noticeably aroused, nor has there been an appreciable decrease in the wholesale and retail liquor business.

U. S. Ships Drop Aliens To Give Americans Work

Commander of Board's Fleet Tied Up at Norfolk Acts on Legion's Suggestion

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 25.—One hundred aliens manning the Shipping Board's fleet laid up at Camp Eustis were discharged Friday and their places will be taken by American citizens. Experience men will be given the preference.

Woman's $20,000 Diamonds Mysteriously Missing in Hotel

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25.—City detectives to-night are trying to clear up the mystery that surrounds the disappearance of diamonds valued at $20,000 and owned by Mrs. George Carson, wealthy divorcee, who lives at a hotel in the city.

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

U. S. Ships Drop Aliens To Give Americans Work

Commander of Board's Fleet Tied Up at Norfolk Acts on Legion's Suggestion

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 25.—One hundred aliens manning the Shipping Board's fleet laid up at Camp Eustis were discharged Friday and their places will be taken by American citizens. Experience men will be given the preference.

Woman's $20,000 Diamonds Mysteriously Missing in Hotel

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 25.—City detectives to-night are trying to clear up the mystery that surrounds the disappearance of diamonds valued at $20,000 and owned by Mrs. George Carson, wealthy divorcee, who lives at a hotel in the city.

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

MAY FARLEY, twenty-three years old, of 453 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, attempted to commit suicide last night, according to the police, on the Long Island Railroad by swallowing the contents of a bottle marked "lysol."

Girl Fails to Patch Up Quarrel; Takes Poison

Visits Former Fiance on Fruitless Mission, Then Attempts Suicide on Station Platform

Every hour on the hour to Philadelphia from Liberty Street (Trains also at 10.00 P. M. and 12.10 midnight.) 15 minutes earlier from 23rd Street, 12.10 midnight train from Liberty St. only. Sleeping cars on 12.10 midnight train may be occupied from 10.00 P. M. to 7.00 A. M. SUNDAY TRAINS Leave Liberty Street 11.00 A. M., 8.00 P. M., 4.00 P. M., 8.00 P. M., 7.00 P. M., 8.00 P. M., 12.10 midnight, 15 minutes earlier from 23rd St. 12.10 midnight train from Liberty St. only. Less than two hours on the train. New Jersey Central.

B. Altman & Co. Mahogany Furnishings for here and there In this attractive Department one may find many interesting articles for gift purposes or for filling in odd nooks and corners about the house. There are, for example: Unusual desks for the boudoir or writing room; tea wagons; tables of many persuasions, for as many purposes; sewing tables of the Colonial influence; convenient stands for books and magazines; smokers' utilities; clocks for hall, living room and library; and a large and varied assortment of French Gilt Mirrors (Fourth Floor) Madison Avenue - Fifth Avenue 34th and 35th Streets New York B. Altman & Co. The Autumn Importations of Paris Gowns are displayed in the Salons of the Special Costumes Department on the Third Floor Inspection is invited Copies of these new and marvellous creations will be made to special order at reasonable prices. Madison Avenue - Fifth Avenue 34th and 35th Streets New York