FREE AIR. No more lung straining attempts to partially inflate a football. No, sir; not for the New York youngsters, whose gridiron is the first vacant lot. They've solved the problem at the expense of Mr. Motorist. Just remove the valve cap from the first handy car carrying an inflated spare—and there you are, provided the cop has turned the corner. Kudel & Herbert

MARIE CORELLI AT THE RACES. An interesting picture of the rarely photographed novelist taken in her car at the Stratford-on-Avonsteeplechases. Although of Italian parentage, the famous authoress of "A Romance of Two Worlds," has made England her home for many years. Underwood

LEAVE IT TO THE WEST FOR SNAPPY FOOTBALL ACTION PICTURES. Here's a thriller. Wilcox, wearing the cardinal of Stanford University, "dumping" a fleet backfield man of the powerful Oregon Aggies during their recent gridiron battle in California. As the spilled runner hit the ground he dropped the ball, Wilcox scooping it up and getting away to a touchdown. Underwood

Snow White and Rosy Red

Framed by the rosy curve of her lovely lips, her smile reveals the flashing white of perfect teeth.

Her beauty blooms triumphant over Time because she knows the secret of a healthy mouth.

Pyorrhea, which attacks youth's radiance as a grub destroys the budding rose, has passed her by.

Do you face your telltale mirror as fearlessly as she?

Four out of every five people who pass the fortieth milestone have Pyorrhea. Thousands younger are not immune.

Its danger signal is tender, bleeding gums. Quickly its deadly work is done, unless you halt it in its course. The gums recede from the teeth. Germs attack the roots, seep through the system. Sickness follows, the teeth decay, loosen, drop out or must be pulled.

You can stop Pyorrhea abruptly in its course of havoc. At the first sign of warning, see your dentist for treatment.

Then go to your druggist, buy a tube of Forhan's For the Gums, and use it regularly.

Forhan's For the Gums is the scientific formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S.

It will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently.

Forhan's is a pleasant dentifrice that leaves the teeth white and clean, keeps the gums pink, firm and healthy.

Brush Your Teeth With Forhan's—How to Use It

Use it twice daily, year in and year out. Wet your brush in cold water, place a half-inch of the refreshing, healing paste on it, then brush your teeth up and down. Use a rolling motion to clean the crevices. Brush the grinding and back surfaces of the teeth. Massage your gums with your Forhan-coated brush—gently at first until the gums harden, then more vigorously. If the gums are very tender, massage with the finger, instead of the brush. If gum-shrinkage has already set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment. 35c and 60c, in the U. S. and Canada. At all druggists.

NEXT TIME YOU'RE IN WISCONSIN TRY IT. A curious freak of nature, a lofty pillar of rock, out in the dells of the Badger State, stands just six feet from its adjoining cliff, and proves mighty tempting for the tourist who would enjoy a closer inspection of its geological formation. The chap in our picture is making the return trip and our camera man has caught him in the act of making his nervy leap. Photograms

Left — LEATHER-NECKS TO GUARD UNCLE SAM'S PRECIOUS MAILS. As a precaution against a repetition of the recent $2,000,000 Broadway robbery of registered mail, Postmaster General Will Hays has ordered 200 "devil dogs" to New York to lend added protection to the city's mail trucks. Here is one of the scrappy marines, armed and on the job in the driver's cab of one of the department's thundering motor trucks. I. P. B.
