

Love Sneaks in Holy Rollers Laundry Door

Golden Haired Girl, Bending Over Tub, Wooed by Tongue-Tied Chorus Boy Till Elders Stop Romance

Swain Tries to End Life

Court Voices Pity for Afflicted Youth Pining for the North Bergen Maiden

Romantic Setting Revealed

But the elders and the deacons, glancing into the laundry, saw merely an earnest girl laboring in the vineyard for the uplift of her soul.

Leon Fears France Will Lose Prestige At Policy Luncheon

War Counsel Refuses Call to Speak; Says the English Point of View Will Receive Most Emphasis

Deacons Horror-Stricken

The elders and the deacons were horror-stricken. A formal meeting of the entire Holy Roller body was called, and before this solemn assembly was announced the laundry of the flower-like face and golden hair.

Ralph Tells the World

This, it was felt, was an affair beyond the exhortations of the elders and the deacons. The police were called and Ralph was arrested.

Court Denounces Phone Service Here as Crime

Judge McIntyre Deplores Communication Facilities as He Discharges Grand Jury

Gurdsmen With Tanks Enforce Newport Peace

Patrol Kentucky City After a Battle Between Mill Police and Strike Sympathizers

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Science Before Dogs, Women's "Fed." Rules in Bitter Fight

Lifelong Friendships Shattered, Tears Are Shed and Pleas of "Grandmother of Clubs" to Indorse Anti-Vivisection Bill Is Rejected

Mrs. Belle de Rivera is the founder and honorary president of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs. When the women are talking in the semi-humorous, affectionate tone possible among old friends they call her the "grandmother of the clubs."

Arlliss's Pathos Draws Tears

With Kentucky debating the question of evolution, it seemed to certain federation members yesterday that they should not compete with a debate on vivisection, yet what could they do without Mrs. De Rivera in the chair?

Victim Goes Home After Being Bandaged; Hurls Woman Out; She Returns on Still Hunt With Police

Kate Dolski disagreed last night with a sentiment expressed by her common-law husband, Mike Dolski, as he refused an invitation to dine at 517 East Twelfth Street.

Prosecutor Insists Federal Act and Old State Statute Will Stem the Flood of Liquor

ATLANTIC CITY, Feb. 3.—The decision holding the Van Ness enforcement act invalid will not open alcohol to the flood of liquor, according to Prosecutor Edmund J. Gurnea.

Detective Testifies He Killed in Self-Defense

O'Neil, on Trial, Says Hostler Attacked Him in Restaurant; Denies Bribe Offer

Queens Residents Oppose Making of More Burial Ground

Residents of Queens, through the Queensboro Chamber of Commerce, yesterday notified legislative representatives to oppose the bill introduced by Senator Harris, of Brooklyn, which authorizes the Jewish War Veteran Burial and Cemetery Society, Inc. to acquire forty-six acres in the borough.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Aid Rail Credit Before Rate Cut, Hoover Urges

Wage Scales Also Must Come Down, He Testifies Before I. C. C. Hearings; Sees Reduction in Year

Cheaper Tariffs Vital

Most of Economic Depression, He Says, Is Due to "Spread" From Raw Goods

Reductions Predicted in Year

Expressing his belief that an opportunity to cut rates would be had in about a year, Mr. Hoover, who was called as a witness by the United States Chamber of Commerce, said it would be an "economic crime" if rate schedules were not revised to give basic raw materials much cheaper transportation as compared with finished and high grade materials.

Asks Passenger Rate Cut

State railroad commissions centered their evidence to-day upon an attempt to get passenger rates reduced.

Atlantic City to Remain Dry Despite Law's Repeal

PROSECUTOR INSISTS FEDERAL ACT AND OLD STATE STATUTE WILL STEM THE FLOOD OF LIQUOR

Detective Testifies He Killed in Self-Defense

O'Neil, on Trial, Says Hostler Attacked Him in Restaurant; Denies Bribe Offer

Queens Residents Oppose Making of More Burial Ground

Residents of Queens, through the Queensboro Chamber of Commerce, yesterday notified legislative representatives to oppose the bill introduced by Senator Harris, of Brooklyn, which authorizes the Jewish War Veteran Burial and Cemetery Society, Inc. to acquire forty-six acres in the borough.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Kentucky Legislature to Rule on Darwin Theory

Bill Under Consideration Has It We Must Not Admit Brute Ancestry

Wadsworth Introduces Measure Framed by Pershing

Reducing Active List From 13,040 to 12,000

'Plucking' Board Provided

Less Suitable Commanders To Be Weeded Out During a Five-Month Period

'No Tobacco Day' Set

By Arkansas Governor

Citizens Urged to Abstain in Warning That Habit Is Leading to Degeneracy

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

Awards for Designs of Model Tenements Decided

First Prize Goes to Sibley & Petherston, Second Prize to Frank J. Scheffek

Maiden Lane Fire Has Extra Police Detail Keeping Watch

Many records and books were destroyed early yesterday morning in a fire of unascertained origin in the office of the brokers' branch and burglar department of the National Surety Company, on the second floor at 21 Maiden Lane.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Ouster of 1,000 Army Officers Sought in Bill

Wadsworth Introduces Measure Framed by Pershing

'Plucking' Board Provided

Less Suitable Commanders To Be Weeded Out During a Five-Month Period

'No Tobacco Day' Set

By Arkansas Governor

Citizens Urged to Abstain in Warning That Habit Is Leading to Degeneracy

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

Awards for Designs of Model Tenements Decided

First Prize Goes to Sibley & Petherston, Second Prize to Frank J. Scheffek

Maiden Lane Fire Has Extra Police Detail Keeping Watch

Many records and books were destroyed early yesterday morning in a fire of unascertained origin in the office of the brokers' branch and burglar department of the National Surety Company, on the second floor at 21 Maiden Lane.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Planes to Drop Flowers on Shaughnessy Cortage Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Edward H. Shaughnessy, of Chicago, Second Assistant Postmaster General, who was fatally injured by the collapse of the Knickerbocker moving picture theater here last Saturday night, will be buried to-morrow afternoon in Arlington National Cemetery.

Portugal Drops Passport Bars for U. S. Tourists

American tourists in transit through Portuguese territory, which includes the island of Madeira, a way station for the