Bantry Pass Finishes Second After Setting Sizzling Pace... Mare Covers Distance in 1:05 1-5 Under Clever Ride From L. Fator; Toboggan Handicap and Juvenile Will Feature Card This Afternoon

Ye good men who intend to toy with the bangtails this afternoon are hereby warned to start for Belmont Park early. It is Memorial Day and Memorial Day, throughout the history of beautiful Belmont Park, has been noted for its big crowds and short prices.

There should be a good attendance this afternoon. Secretary Larlocker had done himself proud for the occasion when one stops to consider conditions. He has arranged a program of six events with a twin feature. Two big stakes, beside a steeplechase are down for decision. What undoubtedly should prove the big attraction of the afternoon (though not so rich as the other commercially) is the Toboggan race at Belmont Park, to-day.

Not less than eighteen of the best handicap horses that have been appearing in the East this spring have been named to start in the Toboggan. There is likely to be some scratching even if the weather remains fine, as predicted and the track remains fast. Some of the favorites of the turf have entered several, a few furlongs only the best of which are likely to win.

The Harry F. Sinclair-Sam Hildreth combination have the call in quality and quantity in members. Mad Hatter, Dunboyne and the oft scratched Knobbe are all named to go. Undoubtedly this combination will race favorite. Harry Payne Whittier will be strong with the year-old Rocket and the four-year-old Roper. Walter J. Salmon's Careful, which gave Mad Hatter the race of his life in the mile Metropolitan opening day, is also named for serious consideration.

One of the very largest Monday crowds of fifteen years (aside from those times when Memorial Day fell on Monday) was at the races yesterday afternoon. The attendance approximated a Saturday afternoon. The transients were out in such force as to suggest that many were enjoying a double holiday. As transients usually "chase" the races, it is not surprising that favorite is vouchsafed in the "line" these irregulars were home happy for the most part. Not less than four of the public choices came tripping to the wire in front.

Undoubtedly the most popular victory of the afternoon was that of the Triple Springs Farm's six year old little mare, Pen Rose, that set a new track record in the mile Metropolitan opening day, at five and a half furlongs, in 1:05 1-5. She was ridden by Harry Payne Whittier. Pen Rose, which was literally a head and a neck in front of the field, but after a furlong took back out on a lead of five lengths before the head of the stretch, but he foiled like an accordion inside the furlong pole.

The four and a half furlong dash of the mile Metropolitan opening day was simply a romp for Frederick Johnson's Certain. Six tired steeds staggered home in the steeplechase after four other had fallen on the way. Our Boots and Quaker, both of whom were among the favorites, were heavily played and he came a cropper four jumps from home because of the carelessness of his leading. He was taking twenty lengths and taking the fences like a seagull.

Walter J. Salmon's Ghost made a show of the field of a half dozen in the four and a half furlong dash. The favorite, Top Notch, was sour and had to be hard ridden all the way. Soviet, a stablemate of Ghost, would probably have won had he not swerved shortly

Benny Leonard To Box Britton On June 23d

Final Articles Signed for Match to Take Place at Boyle's Thirty Acres

By Jack Lawrence... Benny Leonard and Jack Britton have been matched again, according to an announcement made yesterday at Madison Square Garden by Tex Rickard. The lightweight and welterweight champions of the world are to meet at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City on Friday, June 23. The first announcement that the pair were matched was made several weeks ago. At that time they were scheduled to fight together in Jersey City on June 1 or 3. Dan Morgan, manager of Britton, asked for a postponement, however, and final articles were not signed until yesterday.

Morgan and Billy Gibson, manager of Leonard, appeared at the Garden yesterday and not only signed articles, but deposited the necessary checks for $5,000 in behalf of their respective charges as forfeits for weight and appearance. The weight calls for 147 pounds at 2 o'clock on the day of the contest.

Inasmuch as Leonard weighed only 137 pounds when he boxed Soldier Barthel at Madison Square Garden last August 29, he will have little to worry about in the matter of weight. The poundage should be easy for Britton, too.

Title May Change Hands... This battle, which may mean for Britton the loss of his venerable title, will be the third meeting of the two champions since they first met in a game marked by game uphill fighting. The score was 8 to 6.

The Navy took a big lead early, scoring four runs in the second and driving Cragin to the dugout early in the third. From this stage the game became a mighty struggle, with the Army players working most courageously to overcome the advantage and keeping the midshipmen on their toes at all stages.

In the first the Army filled the bases with no one out, but the midshipmen escaped with only one run scored against them and evened things in their own half.

Rickard is to have another conference with Phil Glassman, the manager, and it is possible that something important may be announced in connection with the proposed bout between Britton and Leonard.

The full card leading up to the Middleweight bout took place at Madison Square Garden last night. The card was given out yesterday. This is the last boxing show of the season at the garden. There will be forty rounds of fighting in all. In addition to the main event, Kid Sullivan, of Brooklyn, and Battling Reddy, of Harlem, will meet in the semi-final.

In the first of two semi-finals, six round scraps Johnny Coney will box Jack Kelly, and Eddie Fletcher will face Eddie Fletcher. The opening bout of four rounds will introduce Ponce De Leon, so-called Cuban fighter, against the training stunts, Bobby Barrett, of West Virginia, and Willie Bradley, of the West Side.

Villa Training for Bout... A bout that is attracting widespread interest is that between Pancho Villa, bantamweight Filipino, and Abe Goldstein, welterweight American, at the opening of the Oakland A. Stadium, Jersey City, next Monday night. It will be Pancho's first appearance in this country. His island home he was a terror in his division.

Governor Edwards, Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City and Referee Harry Ertle notified to Freddie Walsh's farm yesterday to see young Pancho and his training stunts. He boxed several rounds with one of his stablemates, Goldstein and Villa box twelve rounds.

Low Snyder, of Bayonne, appears to have a tough assignment in his hands when he meets Frankie Ritchie, featherweight champion of Panama, in a two-round bout at the Bayonne A. A. on Friday night. Ritchie is a former champion, faces Eddie Lynch of Poughkeepsie in the semi-final.

West Virginia Victor Over Pittsburgh, 5-4... MORGANTON, W. Va., May 29.—West Virginia defeated the University of Pittsburgh in a football game by the score of 5 to 4 in a closely contested game. The Mountaineers were out and played a poor game in the field, but they hit timely. Four of West Virginia's five hits were for extra bases.

College Baseball... YESTERDAY'S RESULTS... N.Y. 1, Army 6; Wisconsin 4, Michigan 1; Northwestern 1, Purdue 6 (11 Innings); West Virginia 5, Pittsburgh 4.

Ewing Is Victor Over Golden in Unusual Match

Spectacular Tennis Results in 4th Round of Eastern New York Championship

By Fred Hawthorne... Five men worked their way into the round before the semi-final in the annual Eastern New York State championship singles lawn tennis tournament on the clay courts of the Amackassin Club of Yonkers last evening.

I use the word "evening" advisedly, for some of the matches scheduled had not started at 6 o'clock under the luxurious "play-light" saving system. One of these, between Francis T. Hunter, national indoor champion, and Kenneth D. Fisher, of Staten Island, was about to start at 7 o'clock, at which hour this conscientious correspondent had to hop the train for the city.

The five contenders for the title now held by Vincent Richards, who is not defending, were Morton Bernstein, James Ewing, Fred Hawthorne, Alfred D. Hammett and Dr. George A. King, and it was Ewing who had the most gripping struggle on his hands.

It occurred between the second and third sets, Ewing won at 0-3, 6-2, 7-5, Golden taking the first nine games and Ewing the next ten, for a lead of 4-0 in the last set. They split the next two sets, Ewing winning the third at 5-1, and then while the gallery sat enthralled, young Mr. Golden proceeded to win the next four games, bringing the set at 5-4 and the match.

Confronted with a crisis, Ewing buckled down to his work again and ran out the next two games for the victory, 7-5, 6-4, 6-2, 7-5, 6-2, 7-5. If anybody present had placed a wager on either Ewing or Golden he would have been sorely disappointed.

Golden in Fine Form... Golden played really splendid tennis in those first nine games. Ewing's game was not so good as he was expected to handle, yet here was Golden fairly slaughtering the ball off his opponent's delivery, crashing back forehand, driving away with a powerful and he frequently scored on aces.

When following in behind his own service, too, Golden made few mistakes, and he was very accurate in volleying and severe smashing. After he had run through the first nine games, rough-shod, it would have taken any nobody watching to guess as to the result of the match.

White Sox Pay $125,000 For West Coast Rookie... SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 29.—William Kamm, third baseman of the San Francisco club, in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, has been sold to the Chicago club, of the American League, for $125,000, and two players, one under par, in his route at Grassy Sprain this season, found that on certain days his club course can be very much of a dilemma.

Johnson in Semi-Final of Philadelphia Tourney... PHILADELPHIA, May 29.—Wallace F. Johnson, the title-holder, entered the final round of the tournament for the tennis championship of Philadelphia to-day by defeating E. M. Edwards, of Philadelphia, in a semi-final match, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2. This was the only match played to-day.

Johnson in Semi-Final of Philadelphia Tourney... The other singles semi-final, between William T. Tilden, 2d, world's champion, and Fred Fisher, and both semi-finals in the doubles were postponed until to-morrow.

Walker Defeats Fine Field of "Pro" Golfers at Grassy Sprain

Englewood Player Wins the First of Series of Competitions for Metropolitan With Par Score of 73; Hunt Captures Second Prize

By Ray McCarthy... Through the efforts of Sam Scribner, president of the Grassy Sprain Golf Club, the professional golfers of the metropolitan district were able to put into operation the first of a series of informal medal play competitions yesterday. The Grassy Sprain club subscribed several hundred dollars for prizes, and the various sporting goods houses in the city also made donations, so that there was in all a list of twenty-four prizes. Cyril Walker, the slender-built Englewood professional, won the first prize of $100 with a fine par score of 73.

The tournament, which consisted of eighteen holes medal play, was a success in every way, and it is certain now that more will be held at regular intervals during the remainder of the season. Some forty-five professionals turned out for the meeting. There were a great many new faces in the lot, many because of lack of time to do otherwise, and many because of a desire to have an opportunity to play in many tournaments. Several of these played exceedingly well against their more experienced brethren, such as Tom Kerrigan, George McLean, John Golden and others.

Frank Hunt, who makes his living at the Moshulu public links, had a fine round of 74, which netted him second prize. Hunt used his putter to excellent advantage on the velvety greens and also got through the fairways without much trouble. Another newcomer who did well was Joe Tinness, an assistant at the Fairview Country Club and a protégé of the little veteran, Jack Inglis.

Tinness Ties for Fifth Prize... We have no records to prove our statement, but off hand we would say that Inglis probably has turned out more golf professionals than any other man in the game in this country. Many of his pupils are now making their mark in the game. Inglis takes promising caddies at his place every year and develops them into first class professionals. Tinness tied with the excellent John Golden for fifth prize, with a score of 77.

Walker was in grand form yesterday. Although he weighs not more than 120 pounds, he was driving with the best of them yesterday. His approach shots were accurately played for the most part and he, too, did not waste many putts. Johnny Farrell, the graceful young golfer of Quaker Run, really played the best golf through the fairway, but did not putt as well as he might have. He was general, a bit shy on his approach shots, losing himself several six-footers on which he faltered. When Farrell gets to hitting his putts more boldly he will score better than ever.

Tommy Robertson, 106 pounds, 1st the 12-round tournament of Pennsylvania and Eastern states. All the other out-of-town players were eliminated in either the first or second round. Both Miss Ballin and Miss Gamble drew eyes in the first round. The second and third rounds, respectively, Miss Ballin defeated Mrs. F. H. Borden, Washington, D. C., 6-0, 6-3, and Miss Kelly Tappan, Philadelphia, 6-3, 6-2. Miss Gamble eliminated Miss Margaret E. Powell, Louisville, 6-2, 6-1, and Miss Louise Keefe, Philadelphia, by the same score.

Miss Anne B. Townsend, Philadelphia, the title holder, also advanced to the fourth round, defeating Miss Helen Sewell, 8-6, 6-3, and Mrs. G. M. Powell, 6-0, 6-0.

Rosenberg Outpoints Robson... Dave Rosenberg, weighing 124 pounds, earned the decision over Tommy Robson, 106 pounds, in the 12-round tournament of Pennsylvania and Eastern states. All the other out-of-town players were eliminated in either the first or second round.
