

The Graphic's Own SPORT COLUMN

No. 23

Johnny Weissmuller

A half dozen rapid-fire snapshots catching Johnny Weissmuller, swimming marvel, with a characteristic expression on his features. Johnny, who wears the insignia of the Illinois A. C., holds the American 60-foot pool record and the 75-yard, 100-yard and 120-foot pool, and also backstroke world records.

Movie by Sussman.

CLASSIC DANCERS REST AND SPLASH. The pool is on Lord Leverhulme's estate. The dancers are pupils of Miss Margaret Morris, of London, and they have just finished an outdoor program at The Hill, Hempstead.

Central News.

LONDON BY TWILIGHT. Not the London of dense fog swirled about the city streets. The father of countless alarm clocks, or this picture get the Houses of Parliament in silhouette.

"Of course, temperament

"figures in swimming.

"Nobody who is a grouch

"can ever be a champion.

"Learn how to smile be "fore you learn to swim.

STATEN ISLAND'S BUNGALOWTOWN. It extends more than four miles along the shore, and bathing suits are all you can see and ukuleles all you can hear until summer is over.

Gilliams.

FOLA LA FOLLETTE, actress, daughter of Wisconsin's Senator and wife of George Middleton, playwright, on the beach at Atlantic City.

Paul Thompson.

Right—LADY ISABEL, DAUGHTER OF THE MARCHIONESS OF GRANBY. The Marquis is the son of the Duke of Rutland.

Wide World.

Right—CHAMPION PIE BAKER. Miss Barbara Heger, of Cincinnati, with the work of art which won her a prize in a recent contest.

Gilliams.

SOCIETY LEADERS AT NEWPORT. Miss Cathleen Vanderbilt and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. Miss Vanderbilt is now with her father, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, at Newport. Her mother is now Mrs. Sydney J. Colford jr. The photograph was taken at the sale held for the New York Association for the Blind on the beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Gillespie.

Alexander A. Brown.

Left—WELL, HE ASKED FOR THE JOB, AND SEE WHAT HE GOT! Attorney General Daugherty looking over letters and telegrams from the public bearing on the big strikes.

Harris & Ewing.

GRAVES THAT ARE REMINDERS OF A GREAT DISASTER. The Johnstown flood, on May 31, 1889, cost more lives than any other flood that has occurred in this country. Hundreds could never be identified, and the field of white stones, where they now rest, is peculiarly impressive.

Keystone.

LUTHER BURBANK ACTIVE AT 73. The eminent naturalist is in the lessness of the spineless cactus, which he developed, and looking at a head of the dog, he is demonstrating the Burbank headacheless headstand.