

ALONG CAME RUTH. Miss Ruth Taylor, successful Republican organization candidate for Judge of the new Children's Court of Westchester County, located at White Plains. Miss Taylor, after a whirlwind canvas of the county, won over the anti-organization candidate by a majority of about 3,000. Keystone

A MOVIE TARGET as an aid to training sharpshooters for the New York police force. Colonel A. D. Martin, Commissioner J. M. Shaw and C. E. Scofield, military captain attached to the police training school, testing out the new animated target that has been installed at headquarters. An ingenious electric light device registers the hits scored. International

SOME SCOTCH that dodged the dry navy last week and slipped into New York aboard the Mauretania—a close-up of Sir Harry Lauder and his famous facial furnace. The noted comedian, accompanied by Lady Lauder, is on another farewell tour of the world, opening his American engagement tomorrow with a week's run at the Lexington Theatre. The only comment of the canny Scot, who favors short skirts, (that is for himself), when interrogated by ship news reporters about prohibition, was "Ah, weel, it ha' straightened out many a corkscrew." Underwood

Right—"BIG BILL'S" CANNONBALL SERVICE. An interesting action snap of William T. Tilden, 2d of Philadelphia, which has caught the world's champion tennis player just as he is about to smash over one of his famous service aces. Notice the champion's tremendous reach and the do-or-die look upon his face. Levick

EXTRA DRY. Introducing Captain George E. Tawes, of the dry navy, in command of that busy little revenue patrol ship, Hahn, whose activities in and out of the Port of New York the last few weeks have meant the confiscation of many a hundred cases of wet goods. Keystone

Right — ANOTHER "TERRIBLE TURK." A new picture of Mustapha Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, whose operations in the Near East these days are keeping European diplomats from getting their customary eight hours sleep. Wide World

"AT EASE!" General Pershing doffs his perfect-fitting army uniform to don flannels, roll up his sleeves and engage in a personal battle with old Colonel Bogey over the golf course at White Sulphur Springs, where the former C. I. C. of the A. E. F. has been the guest of Edward Stettinius, former Assistant Secretary of War. Underwood

W'S AIR SERVICE. Patrick, from a snap above in swaddling the largest airplane, the "The Owl," the pictured above. An out the features of al Patrick. The big Liberty motors, has hour and easily lifts F. Thompson-International

FROM NEWSBOY TO PRESIDENT. Sounds like the title of an Alger book, doesn't it? Clyd H. Marvin, M. A., Ph. D., a newsboy twenty years ago and who now, at thirty-three, leaves his position as dean of the University of California to become President of the University of Arizona. U. & V.

THE NEW WILLARD TO LOSE A DISTINGUISHED GUEST. This beautiful residence is the realization of a patriotic impulse on the part of Mrs. John B. Henderson, of Washington, who, believing that vice-presidents should not have to live in hotels, has erected this fine "second White House" at Sixteenth and Euclid Streets, and when completed will present it to the nation as the official residence of Mr. Coolidge and his successors. 21st Century Press

Left—"A BRIGHT PARTICULAR STAR." The Taurus, owned by William L. Inslie, Bayside Yacht Club, representing the star fleet for western Long Island Sound, wins the first national star class championship by scoring three straight victories. Similar craft, representing Narragansett Bay, California, Lake Erie and Central and Eastern Long Island Sound, competed in the series. Levick

Master Paul B. Hum- is the one-year-old above in swaddling sixteen pounds of ju-jitsu mother's clothes—has been in training old and expects soon formal challenges his own weight. Keystone

TREASURE beneath Coney Island. With son, the beach combing the sands for the th of jewelry and lost by careless bath- Photograms TON, famous 83-year greatest cross-coun-er known, arrives in after a thirty-mile left the next morning schedul—on his long Underwood

CALIFORNIA FINALE HOPPERS. What's in the bag? You'd never guess. Hops! Out in Santa Rosa recently 2,000 hop pickers failed to show up and the town was in danger of losing its million-dollar crop, so the sub-debs of the pretty California community volunteered along with other members of the "best families" and the precious crop of potential homebrew was saved. Underwood

