

SAN FRANCISCO CELEBRATES THE LANDING OF SIR FRANCIS DRAKE. Hundreds at the foot of Prayer Book Cross, in Golden Gate Park, celebrated on October 29 the landing of Sir Francis Drake. Services were also held at Drake's Bay. The Prayer Book Cross was erected as a memorial of the service read there by Francis Fletcher, Sir Francis Drake's chaplain. P. & A.

HARVEST TIME DECORATIONS AT FANCY BALL. Mrs. Arthur D. Lawrence, of Yonkers, as Fatima at the costume ball held at the Westchester-Biltmore Country Club. International WONDERFUL PICTURE OF ST. PAUL'S. An impressive study of the Chapel of St. George, with the screen dividing the chapel from the south aisle standing out in silhouette.

A GRIF-FITH STORM. One of the worst that ever hit the "movies." It is in "One Exciting Night," which is thrilling New York. Frank Sheridan has hardly a dry thread on him.

SIX-MONTHS-OLD BABY WEIGHS FORTY-FIVE POUNDS. This giant youngster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McClung, of Bernice, La. She is 42 inches in height and has long, silky hair and appears to be at least three years old. Central News

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES ON U. S. NAVY DAY IN PARIS. Members of American crews in French waters, with representatives of French and other navies, gathered at the Arc de Triomphe on Navy Day. Captain F. E. Upham, United States Naval Attaché, is shown delivering his speech at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. International

LATE COIFFURES KEEP THE EARS A MYSTERY. All rumors that feminine ears are to be seen again are disproved by these Paris creations by Marcel, originator of the hirsute wave. The styles, it is explained, are mostly borrowed from the Middle Ages. Kadel & Herbert

ACTRESS TO STAND FOR PARLIAMENT. Miss Kylie Bellew, wife of Arthur Bouchier, will be a candidate for Brighton if her health permits, it is announced. She has taken an active interest in politics for a considerable time. International