Special Cable to The Tribune Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc. PARIS, Nov. 14.—Great Britain has accepted the French proposal to hold Allied conversations preliminary to the Lausanne Near-East Conference at Paris this week end, instead of at London during midweek, as the English first suggested.

From sources here Premier Poincare it was later announced that Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish Nationalist Lausanne delegation, when he arrives here to-morrow in answer to the French Premier's invitation to hold preliminary conversations, expects to extract a pledge from France of special support for Angora's aspirations at the conference, he will be easily dissuaded. French officials at the same time ridiculed the suspicion current in some circles here that Great Britain intends on Saturday to force France into a position which would compromise the success of the Lausanne gathering, thus forcing a resumption of warfare in the Near East by the idea of adding the straits of the Dardanelles, along with Malta and Gibraltar, to British possessions.

Ulterior Motives Denied Officials here decline to ascribe any ulterior motives to the stand of the Bonar Law government, whereas six weeks ago they would not have hesitated to suspect almost any hidden purpose of the Lloyd George regime. The absence of Lloyd George from European affairs, it is said in high circles to-night, now makes it certain that Premier Poincare's reception of Ismet Pasha to-morrow will be both formal and brief.

A memorandum outlining Premier Bonar Law's entire view of the Near Eastern situation is reported to have been forwarded from London to-day. This had not reached the Quai d'Orsay to-night. French officials express firm conviction, however, that it contains nothing about which there could be vital disagreement between the two countries, and hence to-night they are forwarding their plans for the meeting of the Allies here, at which the Italians will be represented, and for the dispatch of the French delegation to Lausanne Monday.

That the British are not going to Switzerland unless they are assured in advance that the Allies are agreed as to the main course of action to be pursued there, is a fact well understood in French official quarters. A French official feeling it announced as being sympathetic to this attitude, and the French are pointing their course toward Saturday's meeting from this angle. Meanwhile, minor points will be negotiated between the two countries by wire, it is said. This probably means that Premier Poincare's conversation with Ismet to-morrow will be limited to reminding the latter that France is already pledged to military co-operation with the other Allies in the event of Turkish violation of the terms of the Madana armistice, and to the issuance of a warning to the Turkish envoy in accordance.

News reaching here from Constantinople to-day appears better, following the talk of the Allied High Commissioners with Rafet Pasha, Angora's so-called governor of the capital. The Komalst order for the evacuation of Asia Minor by all Christian peoples within thirty days continues.

PARIS, Nov. 14 (By The Associated Press).—"Votes for women" disturbed the Senate's calm to-day before packed galleries, the women supporters having the floor first.

Senator Gourju declared: "The hour has come for us no longer to be afraid of women," a remark which made even the gravest smile. Five Premiers—Millerand, Poincare, Briand, Painleve and Viviani—were seated and advocated woman suffrage. And he added: "Women are not soldiers; but maternity service is quite as valuable as military service."

Senator Labrousse took the responsibility of opposing the movement. "Woman is essential and closely associated with man's work," he said. "To

Chile Quake Toll Increases as One City Reports 1,500 Dead

SANTIAGO, Nov. 14 (By The Associated Press).—Each hour brings further details of the great disaster of Chile caused by the earthquake and tidal waves, and each new report received from the provinces which suffered the full force of the convulsion adds to the list of dead and the enormous damage already recorded.

Advised that afternoon from Valparaiso, in the Province of Atacama, say that the total dead recovered thus far at that place number 1,500, while the adjoining town of Freirina is in complete ruins, the casualties not being known.

An official compilation by the Ministry of the Interior, based on reports received by that department earlier in the day, gave the number of dead in six towns 886 and the injured, 2,410. These towns were Valparaiso, Copiapo, Coquimbo, Huasco, Chanaral and Freirina. This compilation therefore did not take into account the hundreds of smaller places within the radius of the earthquake which are virtually shut off from communication because of the break-down of telegraph lines.

The reports to the minister give the following casualties: Valparaiso—Dead, 600; injured, 1,000. Copiapo—Dead, 150; injured, 800. Coquimbo—Dead, eighty; injured, 500. Huasco—Dead, twenty; injured, sixty. Chanaral—Dead, eighteen; injured, fifty.

to create the greatest disorder, however, according to advices from Near East Relief officials. The greater part of the Christian population is reported to be in panic flight, with every road choked with men, women and children, who have fled their homes in an effort to get away before the final time limit expires. They are trooping toward the Mediterranean and Black seas in immense confusion, dispatches say, carrying their families and their belongings. Hairs have now set in and are responsible for much sickness and many deaths. The Christian population affected by the Komalst order number about a million.

To effect the evacuation of any such number of people is a task calling for world-wide assistance, relief officials say. The organization already is chartering steamships to take away the Greek and Armenian orphans in its charge. One of these ships left Constantinople yesterday, bound for Samos, where it will take aboard 7,000 little ones. The steamship carries foodstuffs for distribution at Black Sea ports, which are crowded with refugees. The number estimated as already approaching 15,000.

LAUSANNE, Nov. 13.—(By The Associated Press).—Ismet Pasha, head of the Nationalist delegation, left Paris to-night to discuss conference matters with the French. His departure has created a kind of speculation concerning attempted reconciliation of the views of France and England. Although some are of the opinion that the Lausanne conference may never be realized, official arrangements continue vigorously. The American and English representatives are due to arrive the latter part of the week.

From The Tribune's European Bureau Copyright, 1922, New York Tribune Inc. LONDON, Nov. 14.—With the news that Ismet Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist representative to the Lausanne conference, has to-day accepted Premier Poincare's invitation for a visit to Paris prior to the convocation of the conference there, the key to the Near Eastern situation, in the opinion of many observers, may lie in what takes place between him and the head of the French government at their meeting to-morrow.

The differences between the British and French policies in regard to the evacuation of the Lausanne conference, which seemed at one stage to have temporarily glossed over through a compromise to-day which provides that preliminary conversations shall take place through the several Ambassadors and foreign offices. Fundamentally, however, the situation remains unchanged. The Turks have not yet translated their threats at Constantinople into action, it is not known how long they will abstain from such a course in the face of the Allies' delay in meeting them at Lausanne.

The Allied program for the rest of this week now calls for meetings between Lord Curzon and Signor Della Torretta, the Italian Ambassador at London, and between Premier Poincare and Lord Hardinge, the British envoy at Paris, in an effort to draw up terms of a joint Allied case to be presented to the Turks. Should an agreement be reached Lord Curzon will see Premier Poincare at Paris on his way to Lausanne.

The impression here is that while the French President may accompany Lord Curzon to Switzerland, he will not participate in the actual negotiations with the Turks.

Daughtery to Rule on Cronkhite Cases Soon Department of Justice Will Get Records From Attorneys of East and West

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Decision will be reached by the Department of Justice by the end of this week, it was said officially to-day, as to its action in the Cronkhite case, as to the death of Camp Lewis, Washington, in 1918, of Major Alexander Cronkhite, son of Major General Adalbert Cronkhite.

United States Attorney Thomas Ravelle, of Seattle, who was instructed by Attorney General Daughtery to come to Washington with all records obtained by his office in the matter, is now in New York conferring with Attorney Hayward. Mr. Ravelle is expected to return here Friday or Saturday, possibly accompanied by Mr. Hayward.

Senator Labrousse took the responsibility of opposing the movement. "Woman is essential and closely associated with man's work," he said. "To

Britain to Pay, Says Official of 'London Times'

W. Lints Smith, Director of Journal, Who Is Here as 'Pupil, Not as Teacher,' Praises Lord Northcliffe

Asks Sympathy for France Lloyd George Should Have Quit 2 Years Ago, but He Will Return, Says Visitor

David Lloyd George is temporarily disabled—"run down"; Great Britain will pay her debts "to the uttermost farthing"; labor in Great Britain has defeated its own aims through greed for power, and France's attitude toward Germany contains much that must be condoned, W. Lints Smith, managing director of "The London Times," said here yesterday. Mr. Smith came on the Majestic for his first visit to the United States.

"I am deeply shocked to learn of the terrible catastrophe which has befallen your country, causing so great loss of life and property," President Harding said in a cablegram to Smith yesterday, offering assistance to the people of Chile who suffered from the earthquake. PEKING, Nov. 14 (By The Associated Press).—Chinamen will become "mistress in her own house" at Kiaochow December 2, or possibly December 1, according to an announcement by Katsujirō Dehuchi, head of Japan's Shantung commission.

Conditions in central Europe are deplorable, he said, and France will take a long time to recover. "Speaking of France, I would urge Americans not to think too harshly of her attitude toward Germany. Her wounds are still open. Her devastated areas are eloquent of the destruction which the war caused her in particular. Whether Germany can or cannot pay the sum demanded by France is a matter which I must leave to those in a better position to judge. She certainly cannot pay anything like the amount first contemplated."

Great Britain Mr. Smith compared to a boxer on one knee after a blow. "She will pay her debts. She will pay to the uttermost farthing, because Great Britain is a proud nation, as all friendly Americans would have her be," Stanley Baldwin, the new Chancellor of the Exchequer, who is coming to the United States to discuss a funding scheme, Mr. Smith described as "a straightforward, honest and able man who will stand for the square deal."

Mary MacSwiney Denied Sacramento, Vatican Told Women Cable About Prison Chaplain's Action; Electoral Bill in Draft To-day

DUBLIN, Nov. 14 (By The Associated Press).—Mrs. Pearce, mother of Patrick H. Pearce, "Provisional President" of Ireland who was executed during Easter week, 1916; M. J. Eamon Coonan, whose husband also was executed; Mrs. Charles Burgess, widow of Eamon De Valera's minister of defense, and Mrs. O'Rahilly, who has just been released from prison, have sent the following cablegram to the Secretary of State at the Vatican:

"Mary MacSwiney, sister of the martyred Lord Mayor of Cork, lies dying in a Dublin jail after a ten-days' hunger strike. We request Your Eminence to inform the Holy Father that the jail chaplain refuses the sacrament. A similar telegram has been sent to Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland. The electoral bill will be introduced in the Dail Eireann to-morrow. The bill provides no policeman may be registered as a parliamentary elector, but Free State soldiers may not only vote but will be permitted to do so by mail or by proxy. Soldiers are the only persons given this privilege."

Idle Detroit Jurors Threaten to Strike

DETROIT, Nov. 14.—Circuit Court jurors here are talking of a strike. Their grievance is lack of work, rather than overwork or inadequate pay.

Last week the court calendars were crowded and the twenty men on the panel were engaged every day, but this week the docket assumed normal proportions and the jurors were placed on a two-day a week basis at $2.50 a day.

Some of the leaders of the movement said a suit might be filed to test the right of the jurors to work five days a week. For an open mind, "a mind so open that it cannot be lightly closed by petty misunderstanding."

Lloyd George was forced out for several cumulative reasons, Mr. Smith said. "In the first place because the parliamentary machine had run down. The coalition had become artificial and unrepresentative of public opinion. It succumbed in the end to the weakness of cohesion at practically any price."

Lenine Upholds Soviet's Use of Private Capital

Retreat From Communism in Extreme Form Justified by Results, He Assures 3d Internationale

Economy Held Chief Need Government Does not Fear Revolt, He Says; Voices Faith in Nation's Future

MOSCOW, Nov. 14 (By The Associated Press).—The Soviet government's change of economic policy, effected in the spring of 1921, has been justified in every way, Premier Lenin declared in an address before the congress of the Third Internationale yesterday.

At the time the change was made, he frankly admitted, the Soviet was losing touch with the majority of the workers and virtually the entire peasantry was opposing the transformation into communism. The leaders had to admit that they had gone too far and too fast.

There is no possibility now of peasant uprisings, Lenin declared. "The peasants and the workmen in the industrial centers, too, are well satisfied," he said. "Hundreds of millions of peons of the grain tax have been collected this season without trouble or the use of force."
