

New York Tribune
First to Last—the Truth: News—Editorials—Advertisements
Member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1922

Subscription Rates: By mail, including postage in the United States. Daily, one year, $12.00; six months, $7.00; three months, $4.00.

Playing England's Game
Senator La Follette has made himself one of the "white hopes" of the British shipping interests.

Effective Mediation
"Permanent" is hardly the word to apply to working agreements between labor and capital, however brought about.

The Harbor Appropriation
The project of the Federal government for deepening the channel in the Hudson River, which was commenced in 1913, is now practically completed.

The Spirit and the Tiger
Hardly comforting to Tammany can be Governor-elect Smith's assurance that he will still be with it in spirit, even after he departs to resume his interrupted labors at Albany.

Traveling With a Tether
Only a decided taste for travel would impel a man to circumnavigate the earth 400 times in twenty-two years, yet the call of the modified wild about Cape May, N. J., has carried Henry J. Fleischauer, probably the world's champion commuter, as many miles—namely, a million—in the same space of time.

Careers for Women
In the face of all difficulties women are working toward careers and into careers. That is the unmistakable fact. They reach their goal by various routes.

More Truth Than Poetry
By James J. Montague
Too Hasty
When Doctor Oeler, long ago, declared that man past forty years had lost the bright and youthful glow...

Use the Ships!
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Ship subsidy or no ship subsidy, we should possess the largest and best equipped merchant marine.

Mr. Hyian at His Worst
"Balderdash" was the word that Superintendent Ettinger applied to the utterances of the Mayor upon the building of schools, and his word seems a conservative summary of the case.

Question. Considering what woman workers have already accomplished, who will care to predict failure?

With Ambassador Harvey life is just one fit of despondency after another.

There is a good deal more of the poem, but perhaps this is enough to give you a hint of its tranquil spirit.

Under a Veteran's Skin
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: If ever anything got under my skin it was the article I read in The Tribune regarding an alliance of Germany and Russia for the purpose of attacking France.

What Readers Say
Follow Through
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Recently I read an article which said that M. Clemenceau was another one of those Europeans who came here only when in trouble trying to drag us into another European quarrel.

Dividing the Taxi Blame
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Your article yesterday "Criminal Incompetence" and the report to which it refers are interesting.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

question. Considering what woman workers have already accomplished, who will care to predict failure?

With Ambassador Harvey life is just one fit of despondency after another.

There is a good deal more of the poem, but perhaps this is enough to give you a hint of its tranquil spirit.

Under a Veteran's Skin
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: If ever anything got under my skin it was the article I read in The Tribune regarding an alliance of Germany and Russia for the purpose of attacking France.

What Readers Say
Follow Through
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Recently I read an article which said that M. Clemenceau was another one of those Europeans who came here only when in trouble trying to drag us into another European quarrel.

Dividing the Taxi Blame
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Your article yesterday "Criminal Incompetence" and the report to which it refers are interesting.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

The Lantern
Our New York Tribune Inc. 1922

With Ambassador Harvey life is just one fit of despondency after another.

There is a good deal more of the poem, but perhaps this is enough to give you a hint of its tranquil spirit.

Under a Veteran's Skin
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: If ever anything got under my skin it was the article I read in The Tribune regarding an alliance of Germany and Russia for the purpose of attacking France.

What Readers Say
Follow Through
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Recently I read an article which said that M. Clemenceau was another one of those Europeans who came here only when in trouble trying to drag us into another European quarrel.

Dividing the Taxi Blame
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Your article yesterday "Criminal Incompetence" and the report to which it refers are interesting.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

Nonsensorship and the Movies By Eugene S. Bagger

AT LEAST there is something to be thankful for. After all, this country is not in such a bad way as Mr. Harold Stearns and his friends would have us believe, and Messrs. William H. Anderson and John S. Sumner almost make us believe that it is. When Massachusetts, the original Pilgrim state, homestead of American Puritanism and fountainhead of all uplift, defeats state censorship of motion pictures by a majority of 340,000 votes there is hope for the salvation of the American soul—east, west, south and north of Kansas.

What Readers Say

Follow Through
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Recently I read an article which said that M. Clemenceau was another one of those Europeans who came here only when in trouble trying to drag us into another European quarrel.

Dividing the Taxi Blame
To the Editor of The Tribune: Sir: Your article yesterday "Criminal Incompetence" and the report to which it refers are interesting.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.

But of all movie censorship stories the prize belongs to the adventures of Carmen. After a triumphant career of over half a century on the operatic stage, the dashing cigar girl of Sevilla has at last gone the way of all flesh and joined the movies.