

BON VOYAGE—After giving the United States a thorough two-months coast-to-coast once-over, Lord and Lady Louis Mountbatten, cousins to King George, finish off their wedding trip by sailing for home aboard the Olympic. Lady Mountbatten was Miss Edwina Ashley, the richest heiress in England. Wide World.

"THE SHEIK" and his newest wife, having done their Christmas shopping early, gain a little desired publicity by calling in a cameraman to picture them wrapping up and addressing their many gifts. Movie fans will of course recognize the good-looking pair as Mr. and Mrs. Rodolph Valentino. P. & A.

JAMES COUZENS, of Detroit, whose $1,000 started the Ford Motor Company twenty years ago, pictured at the phone in the Hotel Belmont, New York, receiving congratulations on his appointment as United States Senator by Governor Groesbeck of Michigan, to fill the unexpired term of Truman H. Newberry, recently resigned. In his early forties, Mayor Couzens is said to be America's richest city administrator, and has given millions of his immense fortune to charity in the last few years. Wide World.

GLIDING OF FIRMA—A German student pilot instructed in art of operating controls of the motorless airplane at a station. Note the contraction of glider rest.

NOT A BRONX MERCHANT, but General Ismet Pacha, the Kemal Foreign Minister, attired in civilian clothes and snapped on November 8 as he was about to leave Constantinople for the Near East conference at Lausanne, Switzerland. The head of the Turkish delegation is very deaf, cannot speak English, and French only falteringly. Wide World.

Right—WORLD'S GREATEST BILLIARDIST, Greenleaf, who recently awarded possession of diamond net of the pocket billiard ship of the world, shown here in a difficult maneuver, carefully met without the loss of a single game. Wasp aspirations too strong for him on break, several.

Left—THE FUNERAL OF A GIANT—Reservists hold back the bare-headed crowd of a thousand who stood in the drizzle Sunday to watch the casket containing the body of Captain George Auger, and tackle to the window of his friend's apartment in Manhattan Ave., New York, where he died suddenly a week ago Thursday. Twelve men were required to handle the ropes necessary to lower the specially constructed coffin which contained the famous giant's 8 feet 6 of height and 385 pounds of weight. Wide World.

Right—NOT A MODEL OF ST. PETER'S DOME, but a wonderful jeweled tiara recently presented to Pope Benedict by the people of Milan. The presentation took place with full ceremony at the Vatican, following which His Holiness gave the city of Milan his special benediction. P. & A.

Left—A KLU-KLUX INITIATION. A photo that perhaps Senator Ransdell, of Louisiana, had not seen when he arose the other day on the floor of the Senate to defend his state against charges of excessive Klan influence and activities. Here are some of the 383 candidates being initiated into the Klan in a public ceremony conducted after dark at New Orleans recently. Some 500 knights of the "Invisible Empire," clad in white robes and hoods, formed a hollow square about the officiating members with their flaming crosses. Note the American flag that is in evidence. Fotograms.

"CORNELL WE YELL CORNELL!" Five agile cheer leaders from Ithaca leave the ground of Franklin Field in unison in their efforts to stir up their fellow students from the shores of Lake Cayuga—a picturesque phase of the annual Thanksgiving Day football game between Penn and Cornell, in which the Quakers went down to defeat by the score of 9 to 0. Underwood.

Right—NEW NEBRASKA CONGRESSMAN. But then, you'd just know he was from the "Black Water State." The gentleman on the right, so reminiscent of the Great Commoner, is Edgar Howard, former newspaper printer, editor of "The Columbus Telegram," former Lieutenant Governor of his state, able writer and brilliant orator, who was elected to Congress in the recent Democratic tidal wave. Kepstone.
