

The Sun.

THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1871.
Amusements To-day.
Theater: Grand Opera House, N. Y.
Theater: Grand Opera House, N. Y.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. Lists various items and their prices.

For the accommodation of persons residing in town, advertisements for this day will be received at our regular rates at the up-town advertisement office.

The Sun in the Country. Persons going to the country may have THE SUN sent to them daily by mail, for fifty cents per month, by sending the Publisher.

FOR PRESIDENT.

FARMERS' AND MECHANICS' CANDIDATE, THE GREAT AND GOOD USEFUL H. GREELEY.

TEXAN AND NEW YORK.

Fur Ahead.

The public mind has been kept under such a strain during the last twenty-five years in settling the slavery controversy, that the people are bent upon having a jolly time in the next Presidential campaign.

Hands Off.

The Troy Times speaks of the Irish Brigade as "the Irish Brigade." This language is outrageously disgraceful. The Irish Brigade was a Union brigade, composed exclusively of Irish regiments.

Quotations Rampant.

The Spanish Government is supposed to obtain its information of the state of the Cuban revolution from the telegrams and despatches of its Viceroy in the island, the Captain General.

It is highly probable that we shall see four or five Presidential candidates in the field for 1873.

The Want of Idle Men.

With the recurrence of every summer comes a complaint from the fashionable water-places of a lack of dancing, walking, driving, sailing, and flirting men.

The famous GUMBLETON murder case has been concluded in Chicago.

The famous GUMBLETON murder case has been concluded in Chicago, and the jury, according to the practice in the State of Illinois, fixing his punishment at imprisonment for life.

It results, too, from the industrious habits of our men as a class, that when they do take a holiday, they do not know what to do with themselves.

It is believed that there is no danger of war arising from the refusal of England to accede to Bismarck's terms of peace.

It is believed that there is no danger of war arising from the refusal of England to accede to Bismarck's terms of peace, and that the Government is certainly far from entertaining any intention of making a demand for a little rock in the ocean which we have no legal claim whatever, and by so doing prejudice our relations to the power which we have a right to consider our natural ally.

Senator Hurd's speech for Governor.

Senator Hurd's speech for Governor, delivered in the Senate Chamber for the past two weeks, and his honor and integrity have been preserved unimpaired.

version and self-amusement, having never been cultivated, gives out likewise in a few hours, and then nothing is left for them but patient endurance, until the time comes round to them to go back again.

Gov. Briggs's letter in reply to the demand for information concerning the finances and election laws of the State of Georgia.

Gov. Briggs's letter in reply to the demand for information concerning the finances and election laws of the State of Georgia, was received by the Chairman of the Congressional Committee to inquire into the condition of the insurrectionary States.

A curious scene occurred in the British Parliament on the evening of July 6.

A curious scene occurred in the British Parliament on the evening of July 6. The Opposition members had shown a disposition to impede the progress of the Ballot bill, advocated by the Government.

William Brown, Sr., would never show himself at the residence of his wife.

William Brown, Sr., would never show himself at the residence of his wife, the only inmates being his wife and the children.

There is a clergyman in Massachusetts named H. V. who religiously believes that the Almighty interfered to prevent Col. Fox's regiment from passing in Boston on a Sunday.

There is a clergyman in Massachusetts named H. V. who religiously believes that the Almighty interfered to prevent Col. Fox's regiment from passing in Boston on a Sunday.

Her mother was entirely to blame in this matter.

Her mother was entirely to blame in this matter, and I regret it for your sake, for you are a good officer.

What the People Say.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.

A FAMILY OF CRIMINALS. A WOMAN FLOODING THE COUNTRY WITH COUNTERFEIT MONEY.

The Arrest of William Brown, alias Boutwell-Circulating $150,000 of Counterfeit Money in Philadelphia.

Last Saturday night, Col. Whittier arrested William Brown, alias Boutwell, a notorious dealer in counterfeit money.

THE POLICE BOARD SOUND.

A Session in the Police Trial Chamber Yesterday. In front of a court at Church street and Park place stands a small boat, which is called a "Muddle."

POOR JACK'S HOMES.

The Park Place Pensioner—How the Mercenary Took in a Vagrant. In front of a court at Church street and Park place stands a small boat, which is called a "Muddle."

A DUCHMAN'S SHO HORSE.

The Arrest of the Mayor of Havrestraw—How the Leungers Got their Drink. Correspondence of the Sun.

THE FATE OF A STOWAWAY.

A Poor Englishman's Struggles to Reach the Land of the Free. Mark Auburn, a poor Englishman, resolved to come to America, but he lacked the money for a passage.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.

THE POLICE BOARD SOUND.

A Session in the Police Trial Chamber Yesterday. In front of a court at Church street and Park place stands a small boat, which is called a "Muddle."

POOR JACK'S HOMES.

The Park Place Pensioner—How the Mercenary Took in a Vagrant. In front of a court at Church street and Park place stands a small boat, which is called a "Muddle."

A DUCHMAN'S SHO HORSE.

The Arrest of the Mayor of Havrestraw—How the Leungers Got their Drink. Correspondence of the Sun.

THE FATE OF A STOWAWAY.

A Poor Englishman's Struggles to Reach the Land of the Free. Mark Auburn, a poor Englishman, resolved to come to America, but he lacked the money for a passage.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.

BUCKHOUT TO BE MANGED.

THREE TRIALS, AND ELEVEN ORIST. NATE JURORS ON EACH. The First Day of a Summer Fined for Hanging—The Story of the Sleepy Hollow Horror—The Insanity Nonsense was to be Crummed Down the Throat of Westchester Men.

The third trial of Isaac V. W. Buckhout for the murder of Alfred Rendall at Sleepy Hollow, Westchester county, on New Year's morning, 1870, was concluded yesterday, the jury rendering a verdict of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation to mercy.

The conversation then turned on women, and Buckhout said that if a man was naturally bad, he would be a better man if he had a woman to look after him.

THE ASSASSINATION.

Buckhout then was asked how he returned with a pitcher of beer and two goblets, which he presented to his guest, Charlie Rendall.

TWO BEARDS.

A man in the crowd, who was followed by a scuffling and shouting mob, looked out of a window which was Buckhout's window.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.

BUCKHOUT TO BE MANGED.

THREE TRIALS, AND ELEVEN ORIST. NATE JURORS ON EACH. The First Day of a Summer Fined for Hanging—The Story of the Sleepy Hollow Horror—The Insanity Nonsense was to be Crummed Down the Throat of Westchester Men.

The third trial of Isaac V. W. Buckhout for the murder of Alfred Rendall at Sleepy Hollow, Westchester county, on New Year's morning, 1870, was concluded yesterday, the jury rendering a verdict of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation to mercy.

The conversation then turned on women, and Buckhout said that if a man was naturally bad, he would be a better man if he had a woman to look after him.

THE ASSASSINATION.

Buckhout then was asked how he returned with a pitcher of beer and two goblets, which he presented to his guest, Charlie Rendall.

TWO BEARDS.

A man in the crowd, who was followed by a scuffling and shouting mob, looked out of a window which was Buckhout's window.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.

BUCKHOUT TO BE MANGED.

THREE TRIALS, AND ELEVEN ORIST. NATE JURORS ON EACH. The First Day of a Summer Fined for Hanging—The Story of the Sleepy Hollow Horror—The Insanity Nonsense was to be Crummed Down the Throat of Westchester Men.

The third trial of Isaac V. W. Buckhout for the murder of Alfred Rendall at Sleepy Hollow, Westchester county, on New Year's morning, 1870, was concluded yesterday, the jury rendering a verdict of murder in the first degree, with a recommendation to mercy.

The conversation then turned on women, and Buckhout said that if a man was naturally bad, he would be a better man if he had a woman to look after him.

THE ASSASSINATION.

Buckhout then was asked how he returned with a pitcher of beer and two goblets, which he presented to his guest, Charlie Rendall.

TWO BEARDS.

A man in the crowd, who was followed by a scuffling and shouting mob, looked out of a window which was Buckhout's window.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY.

What the People Say. A flag for the police and a fund for a Policeman's Widow.

Will the Police Keep this House?

Will the Police Keep this House? Six: My husband works every week, and when he gets his wages he goes to the saloon at 104 Chatham street, up stairs, and on reaching home, drunk and without a cent, abuses me and my children.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot.

Gen. Don Platt on the Riot. The insolence of the mob, the want of respect for the national flag, the want of respect for the laws of the country, the want of respect for the rights of the citizen.